IT ALL DEPENDS

(From a well known trade paper)
When a plumber makes a mistake, he charges twice for it.
When a lawyer makes a mistake, it is just what he wanted, because he has a chance to try the case all over again.
When a doctor makes a mistake he buries it.
When a judge makes a mistake it becomes the law of the land.
When a preacher makes a mistake, nobody knows the difference.
When an electrician makes a mistake, he blames it on induction; and nobody knows what that means.
When a printer makes a mistake, he gets the "devil."
But when the editor makes a mistake, hell is to pay.

ISN'T IT FUNNY

Isn't it funny that the first thing a business man will do when his wife catches him kissing the maid; and starts an awful fuss; and drags him into court for the judge to look over; and tells the judge what a soft old fool he is; and of what her suspicions about him have ways been; and everything—that his first thought will be to rush to the newspaper office and try to keep the story out of print? The next day he turns down advertising with the argument that advertising doesn't pay because "nobody reads your paper, anyway."

SOME FOLKS

Some folks are just crazy about bathing suit—although they haven't bathed any!

Some folks say that Japan is looking for more trouble—for she has just instituted trial by jury!

If some folks changed their ways instead of their location they would be happy in any location!

Some folks say it is funny about the Ten Commandments—men are always breaking them, yet they always remain whole!

Some folks think that the safety of our homes depends upon a man's having only one wife, or upon monogamy—others think that would be monotonous!

Some folks say that if the preacher wants to see all his flock he will have to go to the show to do it!

Some folks smiled at the newspaper headline, "Keep Politics out of City Water"—it appears that the folks can stand fishing water, boating water, and swimming water to drink—but deliver them from Political water!

Some folks say no wonder we have a crime wave, when California—on which presumably to raise murderers?

THINKING OUT LOUD

Now that motion pictures can come in over telephone wires, we can expect to get the "wrong film" more often than not!

The tennis matches to be held in Mexico will no doubt revolutionize the game.

The Yale Glee Club are to give a series of concerts in central Europe. No doubt they're setting out to travel on the high C's.

THE HOME TOWN PAPER

When "chores" are done and stock is fed, And the wee little rascals are tucked in bed, The keesene lamp is adjuste adjust so.

It throws a light with a soft yellow glow; While my pipe is filled with the favorite brand— And then somehow to get the news The Home Town Paper I peruse.

From six in the mornin' till darkness comes, We keep things movin' till they fairly hum;

Well, if I must say it, I'm fond of work— The neighbors'll tell you I never shirk;

Yet I have my hours to while away Round about the finish of a good long day— Then I like very well, if you must inquire, The Home Town Paper and a good hot fire.

The Joneses may come or the Browns may go; There may be new "fandangos" at the show; Here's a big ad 'bout the grocery store. Prices are comin' down more and more;

Every column is just plumb crammed— Well, if there ain't my name, I'll be d—l. That there editor fellow in town, His Old Home Paper is winnin' renown.

Home Run Heroes

The "Home Run King" and "The Crown Prince" get together as Lou Gehrig (left) and Babe Ruth (right) pose for their pictures at the Spring training camp of the New York Yankees, St. Petersburg, Fla.

Mr. and Mrs. Edw. H. Hannier have returned to their home in Seattle after spending a week with Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Alexander.

Miss Frances Sundberg, employed in the office of the Evans Auto Loading Co., at Marshfield, drove to Olsen station recently to visit her mother, Mrs. Viola May Sundberg, a former resident of this city.

He Answers to "Jiggs"

"Jiggs" is hailed as a new dog luminary of the movies. His "feline" delight is to ride in a new Chevrolet Six-Cylinder with his owner, C. C. Elus.

Is America Growing Hard-Boiled?
Not by 17 Million Bibles a Year!

One of the most priceless and ancient bibles in the world—the 100-year-old, gold-covered, Byzantine scripture discovered last year in Paris.

The jazz picture of modern youth is badly out of focus, and the proof for it is that interest in bible study and religion is actually on the increase among the rising generation, especially in the cities.

There is also no such thing as a "bible belt" in America, say religious leaders and publishers of bibles and bible-study courses, who have been making an analysis of the reasons for the steady increase in bible sales since the world war. Sales statistics so far gathered disclose that the city is just as good a market for religious items as the town.

"Almost 17 million bibles and tens of thousands of bible-study courses were sold in the United States last year," states G. E. Bogart, commissioner of the Direct Selling Federation, Chicago, who has been gathering the business statistics of the survey, "and 1929 promises to smash all previous records."

So many requests have come into the management of the Beaver Theatre to have "Country Store" night on Thursday instead of Wednesday that Art Lohahl, the manager, has decided to make the change.

Many of these requests come from people who state that they would like very much to come to the Beaver Theatre on "Country Store" nights but they have some other place that have to attend like a lodge meeting or some church activity or something of that sort.

The manager, Mr. Lohahl announces that in order to accommodate these people, Thursday night hereafter, and until further notice will be the evening for "Country Store" instead of Wednesday night at it has been for some time past.

But the Home Paper Told It!

"Wasn't it fine about Priscilla getting honors in her school work last term?" said Mrs. Smith to Mrs. Brown.

"What?" asked Mrs. Brown. "I didn't know about it."

"But it was in the Home Town Paper," replied Mrs. Smith. "Don't you take it?"

"No," said Mrs. Brown, "but I am going to."

And she did, for this is a true story.

As much a part of the community life as is the school or church is the Home Town Paper.
