KIWANIS CLUB MEETS

AT LOTAL HOTEL

The regular meeting of the Kiwanis gathered at the Commercial hotel, Tuesday evening of this week.
The Vancouver, Wash., club was to have taken charge of the meeting, but owing to the international convention they were unable to attend.

The local club put on the program consisting of singing, a solo by Dr.
J. R. Talbert and a very inspiring and instructive talk by Kiwanian Geo. Lippert who spoke on "Law Enforcement."

Many matters of special value to the welfare of the community were discussed, among which came the proposed market road between here and Tigard. Resolutions were adopted, urging the County Court to hasten the work with all possible speed.

The next meeting will probably be in the Masonic Temple and the banquet is to be served by a club of Beaverton ladies with Mrs. E.
Stipe as supervisor. This is "Charter Night" and "Ladies Night" and every good Kiwanian is expected to be present. Accompanied by at least one lady.
