BILL BOOSTER SAYS

THE MAN WHO THINKS GOLF, TENNIS, SHARDS, HUNTING AND FISHING ARE ALL A WASTE OF TIME WILL GO THROUGH LIFE WITHOUT EVER REALIZING THE BENEFICIAL EFFECTS OF RELAXATION - DON'T BE AFRAID TO PLAY! YOU CAN WORK HARDER AFTERWARDS!

THE CHEERFUL CHERUB

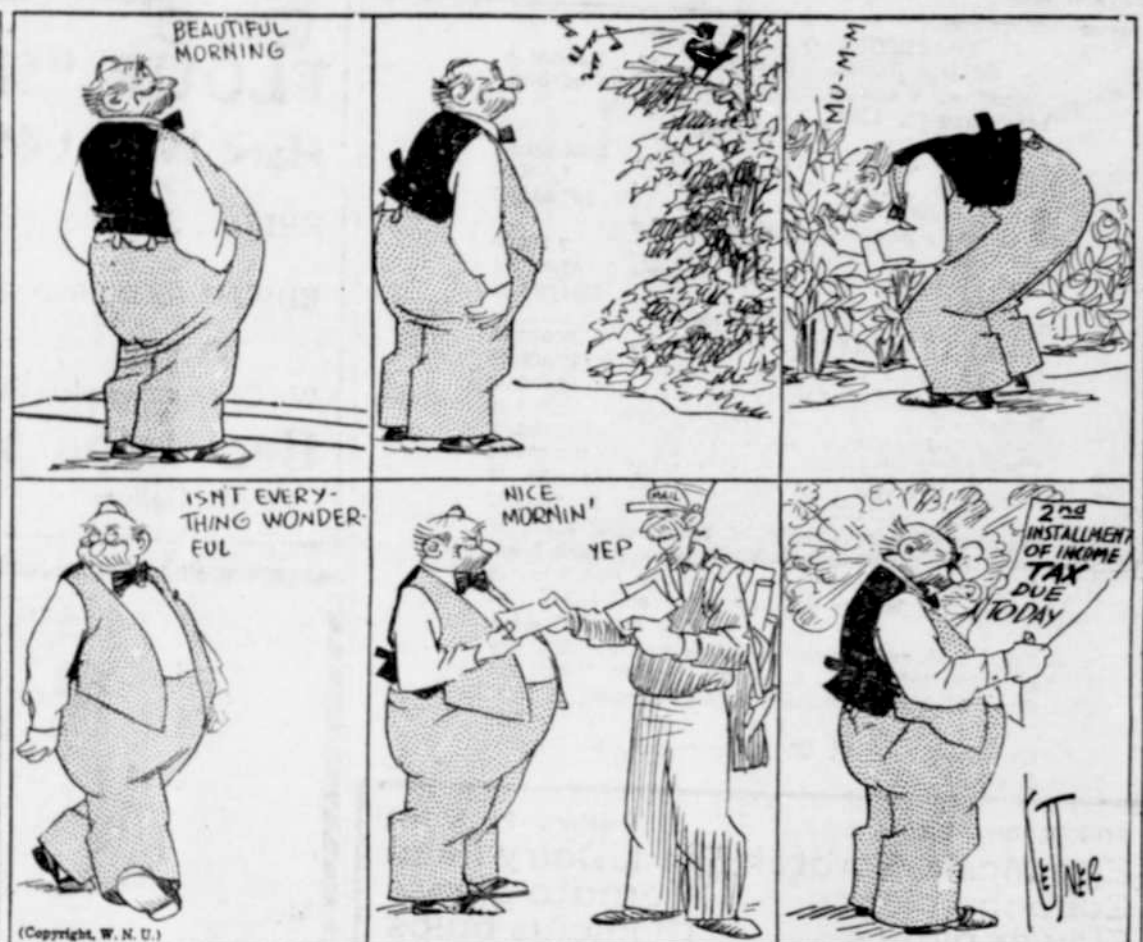

Although I'm not important here, I'm young and plain and small, I like my job because I feel so chummy with you all.

Height of Distraction

Professor (absent-mindedly patting little girl) - What a nice little girl you are. Do you play with my little Elsie?

Safe

The Kid - Dad, don't dlive so fast; you might get pinched. Don't you know we're in town?

Dad - Well, can't you see I'm getting out just as fast as I can?

ROLLING THE DOUGH

Influential Friendliness

"You have always been the friend of the taxpayer," "Of course, I have," answered Senator Sorghum. "You can't expect a taxpayer to follow along your plans to make him pay up and look pleasant, unless he thinks you're a wonderfully good friend of his."

Delaying Life Insurance Payment

His Wife (angrily) - I would like to know just one good thing about you. He (sarcastically) - Well, my health is pretty good. His Wife - And that's the worst thing about you that could be good.

A REASONABLE REQUEST

Fatal Ethics

"Where's that salesman you had in the used car department who swore he never told a lie?" "Oh, he starved to death."

Steak or Music

"What kind of music suits your taste?" "Well, I'm not particular. I like it either rare or well done."

Business Basis

Mother - That young Mr. Salsman has been paying you a lot of attention lately. Do you think he means business? Daughter - I'm sure he does; he represents a motor firm, and wants daddy to buy a new car.

Round and Round

His Wife - Did baby finally go to sleep in your lap? Mr. Longsuffer - Yep, the four hundred and thirty-second lap.
