Still Somewhat Behind
O'Fuddle—Well, old top, are you and your wife keeping up with the Joneses?
O'Fuddle—Oh, I am keeping up with Jones, but my wife is one operation behind Mrs. Jones for the moment, I believe.
Worth Investigating
"I saw you kiss my daughter. I can't stand that sort of thing."
"But you just try. You have no idea how nice it is."

TOO MUCH OF A GAME
Mrs. Knotts—I can't understand why you aren't like Mrs. Dobbs' husband. He's the most perfect man I know of.
Mr. Knotts—Why all the admiration for our neighbor?
Mrs. Knotts—He never passes a mail box that he doesn't feel in his pockets.

Proof Enough
Mr. Motor—I have shown my wife that I didn't marry her for her money.
Friend—How did you do it?

TRUE TO THE LAST
She—"Here I find you going with another girl. You said you'd be true to the last." He—"So I am—always true to the last."

Try It Out
Hubby—These portable houses ought to be easy to houseclean in.
Wife—Not any different from any other houses.
Hubby—Yes, they are. You can let the slides down and have the wind blow the dirt out.
Much Better
"So your new neighbor isn't as much of a nuisance as your old one."
"No. This one's got two phono records."
