MR. PARK, OF THE HONEYDALE ESTATES INC., ASKED TIMMIE TO HAVE HIS TEAM AT THE STATION IN TIME TO CATCH THE 9.44 TRAIN TO THE CITY SO THEY COULD HAVE THEIR MEASUREMENTS TAKEN FOR UNIFORMS.

THAT'S WHAT HE IS

First Turtle—"Mr. Frog is an awful pessimist. Just see the sour look on his face." Second Turtle—"Yes; he's a regular old Croaker!"

Hard Toss, Too

Wearry Pete—Gee, whiz, I'd like to be like a snake.
Ramblin' Dan—What's the big idea?
Wearry Pete—Just think, when you wanted to go some place you could move without getting up.

Mas-Understanding

Browsing around the large assortment of Shakespearean works in the book department, the cultured individual was heard to murmur, "Tell me where is fancy bred."

To which an alert salesgirl replied, "Bakery goods on the main floor, sir."

The True Test

The Demonstrator—This cake is made from our celebrated sugar, butter and egg substitutes. Will you try a piece, sir?
Mr. Younghusband—It looks very nice, but I notice you don't eat it yourself.

DID SHE UNDERSTAND?

Willie (awake)—"I heard you putting the car away. Why are you home so late?" Hubby—"Just had a little blow-out, m' dear."

Quite the Reverse

It was Mike's first day aloft catching rivets on the new skyscraper, and he was scared to death.
Pat, also an Irishman, but an old hand, said to him: "Begorra, you're green at this job."
"Green nothin'," answered Mike: "I'm pale white!"

A young sub-editor on a busy magazine wished to be transferred to the advertising department.
"All right," said the big boss, "but you have to hunt for advertisements, buddy. They don't come in like spring poetry."

Helped at Change of Life

"Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is a wonderful medicine at the Change of Life. I would get blue spells and just walk the floor. I was nervous, could not sleep at night, and was not able to do my work. I know if it had not been for your medicine I would have been in bed most of this time and had a big doctor's bill. If women would only take your medicine they would be better."—Mrs. Anna Weaver, R. F. D. No. 2, Rose Hill, Iowa.
