

SAID TO BE FROM ABERDEEN

A professional actor was coaching a dramatic society.

"You must infuse more expression into your voices," he said. "Why, I remember an actor who could so read a menu as to make his audience weep."

There was a moment's awed silence, and then one of the amateurs remarked: "He must have read the prices."—Story Stories.

NOT WELL KNOWN

"Bill knows his onions, all right."

"Yes; but doesn't know 'em well enough not to eat 'em."

Yes, Sir!

Sign Language

"It is said that you are always talking politics."

"I fear," rejoined Senator Sorghum, "that the habit is very strong."

"But you sometimes shake hands by the hour without saying a word."

"Very true. But in this great game, even shaking hands is a sort of sign language."—Washington Star.

Not on Sight

Thrifty Man—Why spend so much on clothes? Cheap ones are just as good. I paid $3 for this suit, and I guess if I said I had paid $5 you would believe me."

Friend (examining cloth)—Certainly—if you told me on the telephone.

Lustige Satchel.

Absence Makes Landlord Richer

The poet was famous, but the landlord was lazier.

"I want my rent," stated the latter, "and I want it today. If I don't get it, tomorrow people will be pointing out this house as the place where you once lived."

Much Safer Guide

Wife—I am afraid our new housemaid is dishonest.

Husband—Come now, dear, you should never judge by appearances.

Wife—I don't. I judge by disappearances.—Story Stories.

TO STOP HER

Teacher—"Why should we put a full stop after the sentence, 'The woman said she was going after him with a stick'?"

Pupil—"Why—er—to keep her from going too far."

Truth in Ads

"I never smoke no cigarettes."

The famous player said:

"They had him on the signboards. Recommending Shanghai Reds."

A Friendly Word

Jasper—I haven't a good word for that fellow Jim.

Dexter—Well, they ain't much good said about him. But I'll say one good thing about Jim, he wasn't always as mean as he was sometimes.

Positions Altered

Hattie—Oh, Evelyn, did he propose last night? Tell me what it was like!

Evelyn—Oh, it was very simple. When he began he was on his knees, and when he finished I was on them.

Foggy Excuse

"I'm sorry Reggie's so late in bringing me home, mother. There was a dense fog, and his car was held up."

"Why, it's a clear, moonlight night, child!"

"So it is. I must have been thinking of some other night!"—Humorist.

He Was Willing

Judge—You attacked this man on the street. Can you deny it?

Accused—Yes, I can. Your Honor, if you think it will help me any.

The Age of Speed

"I can't understand why Vernon didn't propose to you when you told him you were sole heir to your aunt's riches."

"He proposed all right enough, but it was to auntie."

His Biethright

Proud Father—He's a fine baby. He inherits his looks from me.

His Wife—I've been thinking of that myself. Can't you see a lawyer about disinheriting him?

The upsets of Children

All children are subject to little upsets. They come at unexpected times. They seem twice as serious in the dead of night. But there's one form of comfort on which a mother can always rely; good old Castoria. This pure vegetable preparation can't harm the tiniest infant. Yet mild as it is, it soothes a restless, fretful baby like nothing else. Its quick relief soon sees the youngster comfortable once more, back to sleep. Even an attack of colic, or diarrhea, yields to the soothing influence of Castoria. Keep Castoria in mind, and keep a bottle in the house—always. Give a few drops to any child whose tongue is coated, or whose breath is bad. Continue with Castoria until the child is grown! Every druggist has Castoria; the genuine has Chas. H. Fletcher's signature on the wrapper.

Angler's Odd "Catch"

While fishing in a tributary stream of Pitt river, Charles Grant of Redding, Calif., had the surprise of his life when he hooked a deer instead of a trout. On an overcast into a pool he found a yearling buck on his line, hooked in the ear. The little buck was in the brush behind him. The frightened animal was released by Grant and went scampering over the hills.

Mrs. H. Dolhonde,

"Before my last baby was born, I started taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I got such good results that I named her Catherine Lydia. I have six older children and five grandchildren, too. I am now taking the Vegetable Compound again because of my age. I eat and sleep better and I do all my housework, and my washing. I will do my best to answer letters."

Mrs. Harold Goodnow
36 Cane St.,
Fitchburg, Massachusetts

"I cannot praise your medicine enough. After my baby came I was run down. I had to go to bed often through the day. I took three bottles of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I felt like a different woman. If any mother has those tired feelings I advise her to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound."

Mrs. Lloyd R. Blasing,
115 So. Ohio St.,
Anaheim, California

"After my baby came I was so nervous and tired that I felt miserable. One day a booklet was left at our door and after reading it I decided to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I am now on my fourth bottle and I feel much stronger. It has helped me in every way and I feel sure that other women in run down condition will pick up if they will only take a few bottles."
