

Careful Mothers Guard Youngsters in Constant Battle for Good Health

"Mary, come play in your own yard!" Playful youngsters do not draw lines when they seek playmates. The most disheveled ragtag and bobtail urchin, with a frowny puppy or a grimy lollipop, frequently has charms not possessed by the neighbor's children.

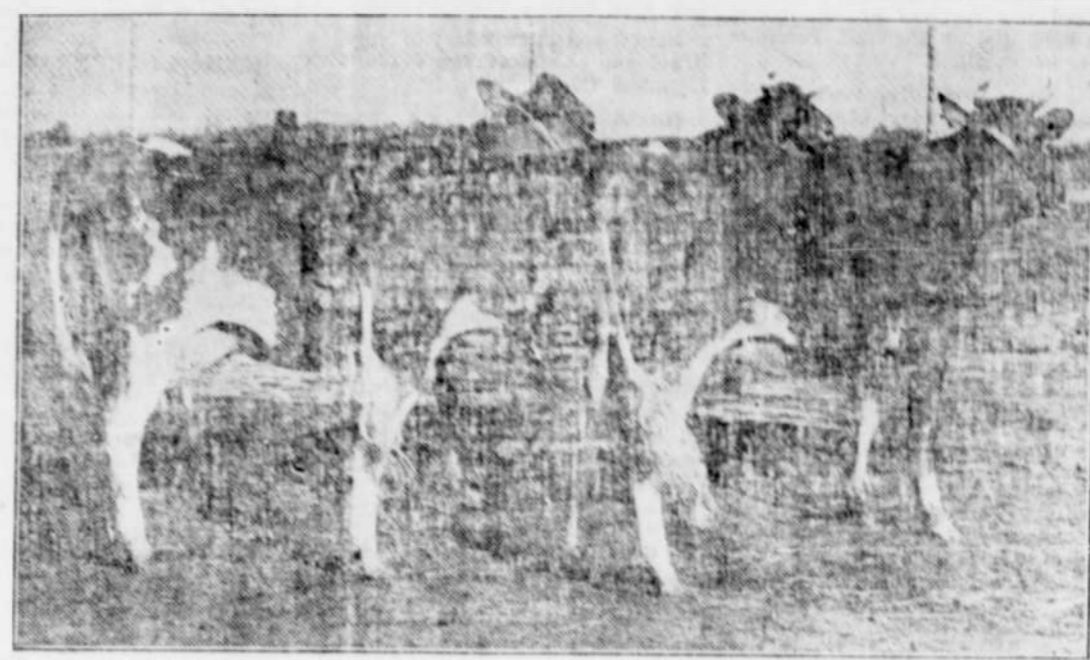

And so every vigilant mother sees that her carefully reared youngsters play with only their kind. They are exposed enough in the democracy of our public schools. In all their other waking hours, therefore, she insists on controlling their play, their companions and their health.

"Vital, active children make a wandering problem for every mother," says the household research bureau conducted in Peoria, Ill., by the makers of ABC Washers. "She insists on having their garments washed or themselves, away from any risk of contamination from others' clothing. Now she finds it easier than ever to obtain immaculacy and perfect sanitation. Switching the little garments clean is not the task it once was. Into a shining porcelain washer tub they go to be cleaned perfectly in almost less time than it takes to tell about it."

"Increased ease of keeping children's clothes clean, even with three of four romping boys and girls in the family, is a marvel of today's house-keeping. The busy housewife sees to it they are cleaned where she can supervise every bit of the operation and does not pause even to use a springer. ABC Spinner washers extract the water, instead, by centrifugal force.

"Then they are ready for the final drying on the line, cut in the open air, as good for clothes as it is for kids."

Three Prize Winners at State Fair

These three Guernseys, awarded high honors at the 1929 exposition, will be returned this year by M. C. Fleming of Portland to compete in the 69th annual Oregon State fair at Salem, Sept. 22 to 28, where prize herds from all over the west will vie for a share of the $80,000 in premiums.

SCHOOL DAYS ARE FAST APPROACHING

Vacation time is nearly over, and the first day of school, September 8, is almost here. Education bears the torch that enlightens the world, and the school room is its workshop. And the schoolroom must have numerous supplies with which to carry on its work.

In our store we carry a complete line of school supplies. All of the books that the state course of study requires may be bought here. In addition to our large supply of new books, we have also at hand many used books that we will sell at a very cheap price indeed.

We also have many other useful articles for school use. Almost any kind of notebook you can imagine can be purchased here. There are college notebooks, many different sizes of handy looseleaf notebooks, scratch pads and other small notebooks and composition books.

We sell two sizes of tablets, a five cent kind, and a ten cent kind. In our tablets there are many fine sheets of paper, well worth the money.

We also sell fillers for our loose leaf notebooks at a very moderate price. "Palmer" paper of a good quality can be purchased here at ten cents a package.

We sell pen holders, pen points, all kinds of pencils, ever sharps, lead refills, ink, and many other necessary articles.

Do not wait until the last minute for service. Bring your list in early and be assured of a good selection.

FROZEN TOMATO SALAD
Peel and cut into fairly small pieces two cups of ripe tomatoes. Add two cloves, two peppercorns, two tablespoons sugar, one teaspoon salt, one-quarter teaspoon celery salt, one sliced onion, a few grains of parsley, and two tablespoons vinegar. Boil for ten minutes, then press through a sieve. Freeze to a mush. Beat a half cup of cream until stiff and add to the mush. Then complete freezing. Serve on crisp, thoroughly dried lettuce leaves with mayonnaise dressing.
