

SILENTLY PASSING

Thomas Dennis of Portland, who was well known around Kinton, having made his home for many years with the late Mrs. H. M. Van Kleeck, died the last of last week, the funeral service being held Sunday afternoon from Pegg's undertaking parlor in Beaverton, the interment being in Crescent Grove cemetery. A number from Kinton attended the funeral.

Mary Anne Rigart, aged three months and twenty-seven days, was buried from St. Cecilia's church, Monday morning. Interment was in the Cooper Mountain cemetery, W. E. Pegg in charge of arrangements.

Madden Realty Co. reports the renting of the old Barboeue building on Broadway to J. H. Watring of Tigard. Mr. Watring expects to open up a furniture repair shop there in the near future.

Mr. Yates, an aviator and an instructor at the flying school maintained at Watt's Airport by the National Aircraft Corporation, has rented the J. Schmit house formerly occupied by R. Hawley. P. M. Madden handled the deal.

BIGGER AND BETTER

PRESENTING

THE NEW CHEVROLET SIX

Today the Chevrolet Motor Company presents the Bigger and Better Chevrolet Six, a new model of the six-cylinder car which has enjoyed such wide popularity. In both the chassis and body, you will find expressed, as never before, Chevrolet's well-known policy of progress through constant improvement.

never was Fisher's fine craftsmanship more evident than in the bodies of the new Chevrolet Six! They are roomier, more comfortable, and throughout exhibit that attention to detail which is the basis of true quality.

Mechanically, too, the new Chevrolet Six is better. The wheelbase is longer. The frame stronger. The steering easier. The clutch more durable. There is a smoother, quieter transmission. Wherever finer materials and more advanced design could increase Chevrolet quality and economy—improvement has been made. The new Chevrolet Six is an outstanding achievement—it is the Great American Value!

The new Chevrolet is longer, lower and strikingly smart. The radiator has been deepened and its appearance enhanced by a curving tie-bar and chrome-plated parabolic headlamps. The long hood sweeps back gracefully into the new body lines. And
