

Savory Soups for Chilly Days

Here are three savory, delicious ways for serving children part of the daily milk ration which is so vital to their health. These soups are full of nourishment and delicious flavor and quite substantial enough to serve as the main dish for the school child's lunch. If the children cannot get home to lunch, these soups can be taken to school in a vacuum bottle or prepared in the school kitchen for the school lunch club.

For the grown-ups, too, a good hot soup is just the thing with which to start a "pick up" dinner or a light luncheon. Each one of these soups is economical and deliciously different but they have one ingredient in common—a small quantity of quick cooking tapioca used as a thickener. This gives them a delicate, smooth texture and substance without stodginess. Tapioca always blends perfectly with the most delicate ingredients and never obscures the flavor.

Celery Soup
1½ cups celery stalks and leaves, finely cut
1 cup water
3 cups rich milk and 1 cup chicken or meat broth or 4 cups rich milk and 2 bouillon
Cook celery in water 10 minutes. Add milk mixture, Tapioca, salt, celery salt and cayenne, and cook in double boiler 15 minutes, or until Tapioca is clear, stirring frequently. Add onion juice and butter. Serves 4.

Duchess Soup
2 tablespoons quick cooking Tapioca
1½ teaspoon salt
1½ teaspoon pepper
1 tablespoon onion, finely chopped
1 quart milk, scalded
2 tablespoons butter
4 tablespoons grated cheese
2 tablespoons parsley, chopped
Add Tapioca, salt, pepper and onion to milk, and cook in double boiler 15 minutes, or until Tapioca is clear, stirring frequently. Add butter, cheese and parsley. Cook until cheese is melted. Serves 4.

Salmon and Celery Soup
2 tablespoons quick cooking Tapioca
½ teaspoon salt
½ cup milk
2 bouillon cubes (chicken flavor)
Dash of paprika
Add Tapioca and salt to milk, and cook in double boiler 15 minutes, or until Tapioca is clear, stirring frequently. Cook bouillon cubes and celery in water 5 minutes, and add to Tapioca mixture. Add salmon, butter, pepper and paprika. Reheat and serve. Serves 4.

White Rats Show Human Beings
Secrets of How to Live Best

Two youngsters have an equal chance at good health. But one loses steadily. With the passage of only a few years in the life of both, the outlook for one becomes as bad as it is good for the other.

Correct feeding has kept this little girl a happy, healthy child. Research has removed all doubt as to the best diet for everyone. Since white rats respond as persons do to changes in their food, in the nutrition research laboratories of the Battle Creek Sanitarium feeding tests on the rodents prove the soundness of dietary methods followed with the patients. Menus vary, of course, being adapted to the needs of the individuals so as to bring quickest possible recovery and maintain highest possible health, but in general they should predominate in protective foods, an abundance of vitamins, minerals and residue, as contrasted with a diet chiefly bread, butter, meats, potatoes and sweet desserts. This little girl is regarded as an outstanding example of biologic living advantages. She has been reared on milk, fruits, vegetables and cereals, following the example set by many grownups who have regained or maintained their health by the same feeding methods.

BUYING INTEREST IN AUTOMOBILES IS HIGH

That buying interest in automobiles is increasing locally and that sales in this section will exceed those of last spring are the belief of E. Stipe, local Chevrolet dealer. He bases his prediction on sales made and number of prospects visiting his used car market.

Mr. Stipe is conducting a Spring Used Car Sale in connection with a national used car sale by Chevrolet Dealers, which opened in every section of the country on March 1 and continues for a month.

"We have had more callers," said Mr. Stipe, "at our used car showrooms the last ten days than in any previous period in many months."

"Many factors appear to make up the present lively interest in used cars. The public today is more favorable than ever toward used cars. It appreciates that they possess greater value than ever before and when purchased from a dependable merchant are entirely satisfactory."

"Used cars this year have an extra appeal. There are better looking, and more 'youthful' used cars on the market than formerly. Also, so far as we are concerned, the cars possess greater value than ever before. Every car we offer carries the famous Chevrolet red O. K. tag which means it has been thoroughly reconditioned by factory trained mechanics, more miles and longer life have been put back into it and it is backed with a guarantee."

The three act drama, "The Little Clodhopper" given by the Ladies social club of Laurel at the Kinton Grange hall Friday evening was much enjoyed by a small audience. Those who did not attend missed a fine play, which was well put on by the ladies.

More than 73,000 miles in a New Ford

THE substantial worth of the new Ford is reflected in its good performance, economy and reliability. Its stamina and endurance are particularly apparent in sections where bad roads and severe weather put a heavy extra burden on the automobile.

In less than a year a new Ford Tudor Sedan was driven more than seventy-three thousand miles over a difficult route. The operating cost per mile was very low and practically the only expense for repairs was for new piston rings and a new bearing for the generator.

The car carried an average load of 1200 pounds of mail and was driven 250 miles daily. "The Ford has never failed to go when I was ready," writes one of the three mail carriers operating the car. "The starter did the trick last winter even at 34 degrees below zero. The gas runs about 20 miles per gallon. At times I pull a trailer whenever I have a bulky load."

Many other Ford owners report the same satisfactory performance. Every part has been made to endure — to serve you faithfully and well for many thousands of miles.

LOW PRICES OF FORD CARS

Like Father, Like Son;
But Methods Change
Fast in Oil Business

A few years ago F. W. Barnes of Long Beach (above) used a mule-drawn tank cart to deliver gasoline to scattered garages and grocery stores in the beach city. His Crescent Oil Company grew with the industry, methods changed, demand for Violet Ray gasoline increased, a fleet of powerful trucks was kept busy. Last month Mr. Barnes sold out to General Petroleum Corporation and his son, Lynn Barnes, took over the reins as district manager. He is shown sending out one of many trucks now used to serve hundreds of active accounts.
