Some Hollywood Pep

SWEETS GIVE ENERGY. Energy, and plenty of it, helps Mildred Perlee, Fanchon & Marco dancing star, to perform some of her acrobatics. "You needn't try this to prove you have energy," says Miss Perlee. "Stick to walking, ordinary setting up exercises and eat plenty of good wholesome foods including the energy building sweets like candy or cake. That's the newest Hollywood code."

CHURCH ANNOUNCEMENTS

Church of Christ

Rev. G. W. Springer, pastor. Beginning next Sunday evening, and continuing through the months of November and December, the evening church service will be an evangelistic service. We will have a Bible reading and memory verse contest. Every one is invited and urged to participate with us in this service. The young people have promised to supply special musical numbers. While our purpose is strictly to save souls, still we are sure this service will prove interesting to all who attend. The evening service begins promptly at 7:30 o'clock. Next Sunday evening Mr. Springer will speak on the first of a series of three sermons. The topic will be "Listening to the Devil's Music."
