

HE'S SEVERAL JUMPS AHEAD OF OLD-FASHIONED EASTER RABBIT

The Candy Man, modern successor to the Easter Rabbit, shows some of his tricks to Baby Rose-Marie Curley, seven-year-old radio, stage and movie star. Small eggs may be molded by machinery but the luscious candy greetings, flowers and curiosities must be put on by hand, he explains. They come in more colors and flavors than the legendary Bunny ever thought of, and the Government sees that all of them are pure and wholesome. The egg which Baby Rose-Marie is admiring is one of millions now being prepared for Easter morning.

NOTICE

IS HEREBY GIVEN that I am asking the Republican voters of Washington County for re-election in the Primaries, May 20th, 1932. I am a candidate to succeed myself. I have held the office of Sheriff for the past three years and if the voters approve of the administration I would appreciate their assistance of going to the Primaries and voting for me for Sheriff for the next term of office.

Respectfully submitted, J. W. Connell, Sheriff

FOR COUNTY COMMISSIONER TO THE VOTERS OF WASHINGTON COUNTY:

I hereby announce my candidacy for re-election to the office of County Commissioner of Washington county at the Primary election to be held May 20, 1932.

If nominated and elected, I will, during my term of office, faithfully and impartially perform the duties of said office, which are many and exacting, to the best of my ability. During the eight years which I have served as County commissioner, when the present term expires, I have been confronted with many important matters, which it has been my duty to assist in solving, and in this long service I have acquired an intimate knowledge of the many problems before the public which come before the Board of County commissioners for its consideration, and feel with my years of experience I can render valuable service in the final adjustment of the many and varied matters that are constantly before the County Court for its final action, in which the most careful and conservative judgment is required to guard and protect the interests of the public; and should the voters of Washington county decide to retain me in this important position during the next four years I will promise the same courteous treatment to all and the same honest, efficient, and economical administration of the county affairs which has been my policy during all the years of my service as County commissioner. (Signed) J. M. Hiatt.

He also exhibited a collection of curios which proved of great interest to those present.

Tigardville Rebekahs

We were very pleased to have such a good membership in attendance March 22. Our N.G., Sister Montague, and Sisters Holmes, Case and Tigard were all with us again after a spell of the flu. Sister Zweiner, our faithful secretary, is home from the hospital, where she has been for two weeks, and is getting along nicely. We hope she will be with us on our next meeting, which will be April 12.

After lodge our surprise committee surely gave us a fine program. Vinies' Hawaiian orchestra gave us a number of selections, with Sister Hilma Gaarde and Earl Shealy singing several selections with the orchestra. Brother S. Montague played several selections on the harmonica. We hope they can come and play for us again in the near future. Another committee got busy and served cookies and coffee.

To the absent members—you had better come every time, for you are missing something fine.

The last of the series of card parties will be given at the hall on Friday evening, April 1. The Rebekah club will meet Tuesday, April 5th, at the Downing home with Mrs. Elizabeth McGowan as hostess.
