his heart was lifted up to destruction. He died a leper, for the Lord had smitten him. At such a mournful time, and in such distressing circumstances, the vision of the thrice Holy One came to Isaiah. What a change from the vision of a leprous defeated king to that of the exalted Throne of the Eternal One. In this message we show up the glorious vision, a humbling confession, a great salvation, pardon, purity, power and a definite commission. You will be benefited from this message, and a cordial invitation is extended to you. Our mid-week service at the church is set for eight o'clock. A bible exhortation and music, followed by choir rehearsal.
