

WITH COUNTY SEAT GROUP POMONA GRANGE MEETS

Washington county Pomona met with Hillsboro Grange in their new hall on Wednesday October 26 with about 197 members and 17 visitors in attendance. Many attended from Beaverton Grange.

W. A. Root, able Pomona master presided at the meeting. The visiting members, Mrs. Edith Tuzler Weathered, master of the Oswego Grange, Mr. and Mrs. Davenport, Mr. Davenport, master of Yamhill, State Deputy Brown and wife. The State master, Ray Gill was present in the afternoon.

The County agent spoke briefly on the work of the 4-H club, the Land Products show there fifty two prizes were awarded in this county. Brother Craft reported for the State Lank committee. The committee was retained.

After a delightful luncheon the grange reconvened at one thirty. a memorial for four departed members was observed. The Rev. Lockheart of Hillsboro Methodist church led in prayer.

Those who spoke in the afternoon were Frank Peters supporting J. W. Malony, Democratic candidate for State treasurer. Mrs. Weathered filled the vacancy on the program in the absence of Senator Steiwer. She considered it a huge joke as she is a Democrat; never the less she expressed her esteem for Mr. Steiwer. Her plea to the voters was to vote for the man and not the party. Ray Gill, master of the State Grange spoke on the measures the grange is supporting, the Oleo Bill, water power Bill, opposing the repeal of the 18th amendment.

Pomona officers were elected as follows: Geo. Woodworth from Hillsboro, Overseer, Mr. Fay Miller from Washington Grange, Lecturer, Mrs. H. P. Stricker, Sherwood, Steward, Chas. VanKleek, Kinton, Chaplain, Mrs. H. M. Sammons, Flora, Miss Margaret Flint, Scholls Leedy grange, Secretary, Effie Dorland, Washington grange, Treasurer, A. M. Armistice day all the sisters were invited to meet at Evening Star Grange where the Multnomah county Pomona will sponsor a fashion show. The evening of Nov. 8 the Sherwood Home Economics committee will have a program.

The lady corps of officers exemplified the third degree in a very commendable manner. Eighteen were instructed in the fifth degree, those from Beaverton were Mr. and Mrs. James Lewis, and Mrs. Chas. Hastings. Pomona Grange will meet with Aloha in January when the officers will be installed.

The Beaverton Grange is planning a benefit to be held on the evening of Nov. the nineteenth. The entertainment will consist of a play and other numbers.

Members of the West Hills Post No. 66 of the American Legion and Auxiliary Unit will celebrate Armistice entertainment, cards and dance. The function will be restricted to legion members and members of the auxiliary. Walt Beardsley and Mildred Beardsley are the committee in charge of the affair.

B. B. REEVES
Democratic Candidate For County Assessor

My parents came over the old Oregon Trail all the way from Missouri, in 1852, settling in this famous old county. They in later years formed a partnership and gave me a birthday at Cedar Mill on Thanksgiving day, Nov. 1878, where I have since resided.

I am no politician, neither am I the son of a politician, but I am a conscientious, energetic contender for the office of County Assessor on the Democratic ticket, not having changed my politics for the sake of a job.

I want your votes on election day and will give you a good administration in that office. I am competent and will be economical and everyone connected with that office will do a full days work or get no salary from the County funds.

I believe the County should be represented officially as to different locations, a little CHANGE sometimes, if you please that its citizens may have the satisfaction of knowing, seeing and feeling that they are a part and parcel of the County in the same manner as when they dig up their taxes.

VOTE X No. 57

J. W. Connell, Republican Candidate for reelection for Sheriff. If reelected I will follow the same policies as I have in the past, giving the people of our County an economical and courteous administration of all County affairs and enforcement of all laws.

J. W. Connell Sheriff of Washington County.
