

THE BEAVERTON REVIEW

The Only Newspaper Devoted Exclusively To The Interests Of Eastern Washington County.

VOLUME XI, No. 6.

Single Copy, 5 Cents

Beaverton, Washington County, Oregon.

Friday, January 6, 1933.

$1.50 Per Year

County Delegation On Many Committees

McAlear Is Chairman Of Dairy And Food Products Committee

CLERKS SALARY CUT

Johnson Prefers Curtailing Expenses To Piling Up Higher Taxes

When the Thirty-Seventh Legislative Assembly met at Salem Tuesday Representative J. O. Johnson, of Tigard, and E. J. McAlear, of Hillsboro, were given chairmanships of important committees, J. O. Johnson being made Chairman of the Alcohol Control Committee which will propose new legislation on liquor control in the state of Oregon. E. J. McAlear was made Chairman of the Food and Dairy Products Committee which will handle all legislation pertaining to those subjects. McAlear was also appointed as a member of the Constitutional Law, Resolutions and Motor Vehicle Committees. Representative Johnson was appointed a member of the Banking and Corporations, Constitutional Law, Insurance, and Military Affairs Committees.

The house at its first session adopted rules cutting salaries of clerks and other employees twenty percent or more. The cut applied only to a special session but will undoubtedly continue through the regular session. Two bills were introduced at the first session providing for increase of income tax and sales tax on tangible property and personal service.

Representative Johnson stated that he favored consideration of the budget before revenue bills were considered as he believed that material cuts could be made in the administration of state affairs. Many other representatives expressed the same opinion. Special session, however, has limited consideration to methods of raising revenue and unemployment relief.

Citizens of Washington county interested in any proposed legislation are urged to write this newspaper which will endeavor to secure the information requested.

HAROLD TITUS Author of "Below Zero"

When Harold Titus locates a story in the north woods he has a setting with which he is familiar. He knew the north woods; he knew lumber camps; he knew the lumber "jacks" and their ways, for he was born and raised with them. He is a native of Traverse City, Grand Traverse county, Michigan. His lullaby when an infant was the ring of the woodsman's ax and the crash of the pine and spruce as they fell. He spent his boyhood days amidst the lumber camps that then dotted northern Michigan. He harks back to the stirring scenes of those boyhood days when he wants a setting and characters for the kind of a story he finds joy in writing.

Harold Titus is a graduate of the University of Michigan. In school he showed a decided bent for a job of writing, and he followed it up after graduating by securing a reporter's position on the Detroit News. Then the call of the beauty of the outdoors caused him to go back to his home county and write, with the growing of fruit as a side line.

When the World war came he enlisted in the American army and served throughout the conflict as a sergeant in the ordnance service, which gave him experiences and settings for more stories. With the close of the war he went back to his stories and his fruit farm, but for a time served as conservation commissioner for the state.

Harold Titus has produced a number of stories that have achieved distinction. Among them may be mentioned "Conquered," "Bruce of the Circle," "The Last Straw," "Timber," "The Beloved Pawn," and many others, the latest of which is "Below Zero," which will appear serially in these columns, the time of which is the lumbering days of Michigan, and the setting and characters are those with which he was familiar as a boy. It is a specially good story, with an abundance of action, depicting stirring adventures and a charming romance. We feel that we are unusually fortunate in being able to secure the right to print it, and that every reader will appreciate it.

ORCHESTRA TO PLAY MASSENETS "LE CID"

With the new year, the second half of the Portland Symphony Orchestra season has commenced. Only three Sunday matinee and three evening concerts remain, the next Sunday afternoon "popular" program coming January 8.

The attendance by visitors from distant cities as Seattle, Wash., and Medford and Klamath Falls, Ore., has been an ever-growing indication of Portland's position as an important music center in the Northwest. Particularly the Sunday afternoon "popular" concerts at popular prices give the week-end visitor an opportunity to enjoy a symphony performance.

Willem van Hoogsteden, conductor, has arranged a program of wide appeal for presentation at 3 p. m. January 8, at the Municipal Auditorium. The guest artist will be Sylvia Weinstein Margulis, violinist who will play Mendelssohn's violin concerto. Her appearance is a special attraction for the first matinee concert of the new year.

The concert will also include: Overture from the opera "Mignon" (Thomas); Largo from the opera "Xerxes" (Handel); Ballet music from the opera "Le Cid" (Massenet) and Overture "Year 1812" (Tchaikovsky).

Unusually delightful will be the Massenet ballet music from "Le Cid." It is divided into six parts, illustrating dances from different regions in Spain. The six are: "Acastillano," "Andalouse," "Aragonais," "Aubade," "Madrilene," and "Navarrais."

Reservations may be made by mail or direct at the Symphony Box land, Oregon.

SCHOOL BY RADIO STARTS IN JANUARY

The first attempt to use radio as a supplement to classroom instruction has been started the first week in January by the agricultural engineering department at Oregon State College working in cooperation with the Smith-Hughes agricultural teacher in 12 high schools of the state, using station KOAC, the state owned station at Corvallis.

The course is in rural electrification, and while broadcast primarily for the students enrolled, will doubtless prove instructive to others who may care to "audit" the course say those in charge. Under the plan devised two lessons a week will be broadcast, Monday and Wednesday at 2 o'clock, these to be repeated Tuesday and Thursday respectively at 9:30 a. m. Classes enrolled are: Amity, Brandon, Coquille, Cottage Grove, Gresham, Coos River, Grants Pass, Lebanon, Silverton, McMinnville, Woodburn and Redmond. College lectures will be Clyde Walker, F. E. Price and C. J. Hurd.

CHURCH HAS THANK OFFERING MEETING

A special thank offering program was observed at the Congregational Church Sunday evening. A short playlet demonstrating the work of the medical missionary Dr. Indira was given by the following ladies and girls: Mesdames, W. H. Boswell, L. R. Dean, A. E. Olsen, and H. M. Barnes, Miss Juliette Carter, Miriam Doty, and Aline Boswell. Mrs. Geo. N. Taylor, Mrs. L. L. Myers, and Mrs. Metcalfe also gave a short dialogue, concerning the "Thank Offering Box." The picture slides which were to have been shown at this time were postponed due to lack of time but will be shown next Sunday evening.

FIRE DESTROYS ATTRACTIVE HOME

Mr. and Mrs. Hans Englemann of Raleigh lost their attractive home by fire Sunday morning. The house and its contents were a total loss, the occupants escaping in only their night clothes. The origin of the fire was unknown. The family is temporarily domiciled with Mrs. Gertrude Gore of Beaverton, a sister of Mrs. Englemann.

BUILDING MANAGER HAS A BUSY WEEK

Manager N. J. Skee and Chas. F. Clarke, secretary of the Community Building Association have been busy this week. Stock certificates have been printed and are ready for distribution to those who have paid their quota. Men have been busy on the building nearly all the week, plastering, painting, repairing, so that the interior makes a very respectable appearance.

LETTERS From Our Readers

Editor Beaverton Review: This to notify my Beaverton friends that I am holding my own and that my Dr. and nurse have consented to allow friends to pay me short visits, provided they be most of the talking and I listen. I am in private residence of nurse, Mrs. S. E. Fayram, located at 147B Lincoln Street, 3 blocks east of courthouse, N. W. corner Lincoln and 5th streets, Hillsboro. C. E. HEDGE

MANY HIGH PRIZES WON BY MEMBERS

Oregon 4-H club members ranked high in achievement at the National Club Congress in Chicago, reports H. C. Seymour, state leader at O. S. C. Six Oregon members in one club, in competition with entries from 40 states won five first places one second, one fourth and three fifths. Counting the scholarships and trips won, the money value of the awards totaled $2055.50.

The largest single awards were a $300 scholarship at Oregon State college won by Alice Welbes, Multnomah county, from a fruit jar manufacturing firm, and a trip valued at $1000 won by Helen Clark also of Multnomah, from a big Chicago merchantile firm.

LOCAL TEAMS LOOSE BASKETBALL GAMES

Three basketball games were played at the local high school gym Tuesday evening.

The Beaverton teams had the misfortune to lose all three games to their opponents from Millwaukie. Two of the games were won in the last few minutes of play. Beaverton High first team were defeated by a score of 19-18. The second team 22-8. The Beaverton team was also defeated, the score being 32-31.

SILENTLY PASSING

Louis Martin Hesse, 55, prominent farmer and public citizen of Scholls died at his home Dec. 30 th after an extended illness. He was born in Forest Grove, September 16, 1877 and spent his entire life in this county. He was a successful farmer and had been prominent in politics having served as representative from this county and also as commissioner. He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Ella Scott Hesse, and a son, Louis F. Hesse at home, and two brothers, W. G., and Henry T. Hesse also of Scholls. The funeral was held at the Methodist church at Scholls Monday at 1:30 p. m. with interment in the Farmington cemetery. W. E. Pegg was in charge.

Time was taken by president to install the Vice-president, L. R. Richey, and the Secretary-Treasurer "Dod" Berg at the weekly meeting of the Kiwanis club.

Oddfellows, Rebekahs Have Joint Installation

Hazel Miller Noble Grand And E. R. Sheets Will Rule I.O.O.F. Meets

A PROGRAM IS GIVEN

Refreshments Of Cake And Coffee Served After The Ceremony

Beaverton Lodge No. 252 I.O.O.F. and Beaverton Rebekah Lodge No. 248 held joint installation ceremonies for the new officers Wednesday evening. Hugh Lewis, Grand Master and Rose Stevens, President were the installing officers. Andrew Denholm and Marjorie Lewis were the Grand Marshalls. They were very ably assisted by Past Grands and Past Noble Grands.

The following officers were installed for the coming six months: I.O.O.F. Lodge—E. D. Sheet, Noble Grand; Jay Frost, Vice Grand; L. J. Fosteer, Secretary; Hugh Lewis, Treasurer; C. J. Stevens, Warden; O. M. Taylor, Conductor; Harley Taylor, Right Support to the Noble Grand; Tom Miller, Left Support to the Noble Grand; V. O. Wilson, Right Support to the Vice Grand; Fred Turnsted, Left Support to the Vice Grand; L. F. Humburg, Chaplain; Dewey Drorbaugh, Inside Guardian; S. G. Rogers, Outside Guardian; Raymond Hurd, Right Scene Support; R. V. Cary, Left Scene Support; and Manly Underhill, Past Grand.

The Rebekah Lodge officers are as follows: Hazel Miller, Noble Grand; Florence Drorbaugh, Vice Grand; Sarah Chamberlain, Secretary; Louanna Underhill, Treasurer; Torborg Benson, Warden; Olga Biehlman, Conductor; Anns Rogers, Chaplain; Helen Walker, Inside Guardian; Bertha Wilson, Outside Guardian; Mary J. Ware, Right Support to the Noble Grand; Alice Wheeler, Left Support to the Noble Grand; Sarah Hardman, right Support to the Vice Grand; Adeline Frost, Left Support to the Vice Grand; Elizabeth Myers, Musician; Edna Sheets, Past Noble Grand.

After the installation ceremonies a short program was given: Evelyn Alexander playing solos; readings by Betty Myers; and a gypsy dance by Edith Hardman. The numbers were greatly enjoyed by the audience. A number of visitors from other lodges were present.

After the program all retired to the dining room where cake and coffee were served.

COUNTY HEALTH REPORT

The report of communicable diseases in Washington county for the week ending December 31 is as follows: 37 cases of Flu; 6 cases Pneumonia; and 1 case each of Scarlet Fever and Diphtheria.

COURT HOUSE ITEMS

ARRESTS

Henry Laboisiers arrested for murder, given a life sentence.
Emory D-latel, and Howard Galbreath, larceny.
Louis Hemrich, driving while drunk.

ACCIDENTS

Earl M. Madsen and Victor D. Brown coming from opposite directions about one-half mile east of Beaverton on the Bertha-Beaverton highway misjudged the clearance of cars and side swiped, throwing both cars off the road. Bruises and minor injuries were received by Mrs. Brown, Mr. Knox, Mrs. Margaret Rands and Mr. Elvan Rands.

CIRCUIT COURT

J. Thompson vs Tex Rankin, suit for execution of agreement.
Geo. G. Hancock vs Martha M. Scott et al mortgage foreclosure.

PROBATE COURT

Arthur Wilkenson petitions the court to appoint him as administrator of the estate of Everett W. Wilkenson deceased.
Petition to admit the estate of Betty V. Craddock to probate and to appoint Anna Cooper administratrix.
The will of Marshall Brierly admitted to probate and his daughter Anna Garrett appointed executor.

Orders Signed By Judge Templeton

The will of Mary Pringle admitted to probate and Joseph M. Loomis appointed executor. Anna Cooper appointed administrator of Betty Craddock estate. Arthur Wilkenson appointed administrator of Everett Wilkenson estate. Anna Garrett appointed executrix of the will of Marshall Brierly.

MARRIAGE LICENSES

Otto Jackman of Portland and Ina Lougherty of Hillsboro.
Erwin Harold Raz and Carol Nell Silkworth Portland.

TUTTLES ENTERTAIN ON NEW YEAR'S DAY

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Tuttle entertained with a large dinner party on New Year's day. Their guests were Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Tuttle of Orenco, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Swisher of Scholls, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Tuttle and children, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Wise and daughter all of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Gumm and sons Melvin, Curtis, and Jack.

Mrs. Mable P. Jacobs was installed as Matron of the Portlands Chapter Order of the Eastern Star Friday evening December 30. Mrs. Jacobs was a former member of Beaver Chapter where she served as organist for some time. Those attending from Beaverton and vicinity were Mr. and Mrs. S. B. Lawrence Mrs. L. J. Carter and Mrs. Forest Howard. Mrs. Howard sang in a ladies chorus which especially honored Mrs. Jacobs.

New City Officials Take Over Government

Town Officers Sworn In By Recorder. Former Officers Applauded

ITEMS ARE DISCUSSED

M. Welter Resigns And F. Koshland Appointed To Fill Vacancy

At the first meeting of the year the retiring councilmen and executive officers of the Town's government turned over the business of this municipality, to quote Auditor Amacher, "If not more solvent than last year, then less bankrupt than it was a year ago."

Alderman Fordney asked to have added to the minutes of the previous meeting as read that Alderman Barnes with the Recorder and Mayor had checked the contract with Eingham Pump Co., and found it all right and Mayor Wilson reported that the contract had been signed. Bills included a $440. statement from the Valley Water Co. some seventy dollars more than rendered the previous month. Some discussion arose over a bill for thawing out frozen pipe lines in Berthold Addition, some believing that the pipes were on private property, but the bill was finally ordered paid. There was some other discussion about a bill for nineteen dollars for repairs to the fire truck but the voices were too low to catch what was said.

The auditor's report showed some $8,100 cash on hand as of December 31, 1932.

The correspondence read concerned complaints and one letter from a state official regarding the attitude of the Town officials regarding permits to sell liquor.

Mayor Wilson then reported having let the job of putting in a foundation for the new pump at the well to Frank Smith for $55.

The new officers were then sworn in, excepting Alderman Barnes who was absent and Alderman elect Welter who sent in a very nicely written resignation. Retiring Recorder administered the oath of office enmasse.

Immediately on taking his chair Mayor Fisher read a list of recommended appointments which includes his committees; finance Livermore and Barnes; Streets, Bishop as chairman Drainage and sewers, Boswell; water, Fordney; charter, Livermore; Resolutions, Boswell; health, Welsh and Mason; fire chief, Chester Beach; for Councilman to fill Welter's place, Fred Koshland; for marshal, W. W. Peets and M. W. Rice, on a 50-50 basis. These recommendations were ratified unanimously with the exception of the marshal job which was taken under consideration by the Council. Koshland was then appointed chairman on the committee on civic improvements.

In the discussion regarding the marshal appointment, Bishop offered a suggestion that the work concerning the water department which has been done by the marshal be placed in a water department. Boswell inquired whether the license fees were to be paid to the police.

Fordney moved that the city safes and cabinets be brought to the city hall at the city's expense and the motion prevailed. Livermore spoke in favor of raising the Recorder's bond from $2,000 which has always been the sum to 5,000. This motion also prevailed though the discussion brought out that school districts require a bond double the sum likely to be in the clerk's hands at one time and the City Auditor's report showed that right now there was more than $8,000 to be turned over to the Recorder.

Alderman Livermore then called attention to assessment bonds in the sum of $2,000 being handled by C. N. Tripp of Portland on which Tripp threatened to have attorneys begin suit to collect. These are bonds due in November 1931 for which the Voters authorized the issuance of refunding bonds but on account of a provision in the charter that none of Beaverton's bonds may be sold for less than par and of there being a depressed bond market, there have been no bidders for the refunding bonds. Livermore thought that perhaps Tripp might make a partial exchange but that he insists on some money.

The Council just before adjourning subject to call, authorized the payment of $250 more on the well contract.

Time to Wind It Up

