HITEON NEWS

Donna Metzentine was sick last week with tonsillitis.

Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Officer spent several days in Portland during the cold spell.

About sixteen young people enjoyed Thursday evening sliding on Strather's hill.

Miss Dorothea Struthers and Mr. Lester Robinson spent Sunday at Mt. Hood at the Winter Sports Carnival.

Mrs. H. Metzentine entertained the Tigard Rebekah club last Wednesday. The afternoon was spent in cutting material for relief sewing. The club met Monday at Tigard for a pot-luck dinner at Hanna Christensen's and finished the sewing and tied a comfort.

FARM REMINDERS

The most frequent questions asked at the county agent office about gardens is in relation to fertilizers and to insect pests. On many of the small tracts gardens are the main dependence of the owners.

Generally the question in regard to the kind of fertilizer to use can first be answered by advising the use of plenty of barnyard manure. There is not anything else that will adequately replace this in maintaining the fertility of the garden plot. If this cannot be had then red clover straw, spoiled clover or alfalfa hay or even grain straw will help. When the latter is used it is well to add sulphate of ammonia at the rate of about 150 pounds to the acre. The addition of this nitrogen carrying material will mean the more rapid rotting of the straw.

Attempting to obtain satisfactory results in the garden with commercial fertilizers alone when the soil is lacking in organic matter will probably result in disappointment. When there has been added a good application of manure or its equivalent in some other material then the use of some form of quick acting commercial fertilizer adapted to the particular crop will likely prove profitable. Manure or other material used to take its place should be applied to the garden plot in the fall. Where this has not been done it is not too late yet.

CEDAR MILL MAN HAS HARDY CLOVER

Sweet clover on the J. A. Lindow farm near Cedar Mills came thru the recent cold weather in satisfactory shape without any apparent damage. This was seeded alone last May and is of a stem rot resistant type developed at the Oregon Experiment Station at Corvallis. Clover stem rot has been the most serious handicap to the growing of sweet clover in the Willamette valley. Just how successful this sweet clover may turn out to be is not known as yet. Further trial plantings will be made in this coming spring by the county agent in cooperation with the farmers of the county. The planting on the Lindow farm made a fair growth the last summer and furnished some pasture for calves and hogs. Plantings next spring will be made alone and also with nurse crops.

in the contest.

The club's milk testing demonstration team composed of Francis Detrick and Earl Jossy placed second, the showing and fitting demonstration team consisting of John Hansen and Don Jossy placed fourth. Don Jossy was selected as the outstanding club member of Washington County for the club year. Don also exhibited some Chester White hogs that won him a first, second and third.

At the State fair the Rock Creek members had on exhibit eight head of cattle and one pig which won them a total of $120. This included one first, five seconds, two thirds, three fourths, one fifth and one sixth. These were divided as follows: Francis Detrick won first on her Holstein junior yearling calf and fourth in the Holstein showmanship contest. Don Jossy won second on his senior yearling Holstein, sixth on his senior calf and second in the Holstein showmanship contest. Alan Detrick won second on his Holstein junior calf. Wilfred Grossen won second on his Brown Swiss senior yearling heifer and second on the Brown Swiss Showmanship contest. John Hansen won fourth in his Brown Swiss senior yearling heifer and fourth in the Brown Swiss Showmanship contest. Ray Wismer won fifth on his Junior Guernsey calf. Earle Jossy won fifth on his Hol-

P. T. A. MEETING ENJOYS A CONCERT

Tuesday evening, January 16, the Parent Teachers Association met at the Beaverton High School.

Miss Mooks gave a report on the cafeteria, saying that it was just making expenses and that it needed the assistance from the Parent Teachers Association each month.

A report was expected from Dr. Welch but he was unable to attend because of the influenza epidemic.

Those attending the meeting were entertained by a violin concert which was given by eight children from Multnomah.

Refreshments were served after the concert.

GIRL RESERVES TO GIVE PLAY SOON

The cast has been chosen for "Betty's Degree", the Girl Reserve play which is to be given before the Student Body on February 8. Daily practices are being held in room 18 under the direction of Mrs. Lynn Hughes.

The play is about a popular young girl who attempts to earn her H. C. Degree.

Those chosen in the cast are: Betty Imogene Smith; Blance, Lila Fay Boyce; Janet, Dorothy Boid; Grace, Margaret West; Agnes Rhoads; Mying, Dolly; Margaret Dickman; Maid, Helen Berst.

SCHOOL READY FOR MID-YEAR QUIZZES

The schedule for examinations was completed Friday and was of vital interest to everyone in school.

Tests for single section classes were held Tuesday at the subject's regular time. Students reported to their classes as usual and those being exempt went to the study hall.

The tests on Wednesday were for those subjects which have classes during two or more periods a day. Students who were "exempt" from these or who had finished on Tuesday were allowed to enjoy the freedom of no school.

Report cards were given out Friday afternoon and E. H. S. is now ready to begin the work of its second semester.

SCHOOL HAS INTERESTING ASSEMBLY

One of the most interesting assemblies of the semester was held Friday, January 19 at 12:30. It lasted an hour and a half to the joy of all the Torch Honor students and a good time was had by all.

Much enthusiasm and pep were shown toward the basketball game between Tigard and Beaverton. Kenneth Taylor, chairman of the basketball soliciting committee announced the new plan of admitting 3 for a quarter to that particular game. This was attempted with the hope of having a larger attendance at the night games and stimulate interest and enthusiasm. Speeches of approval were given by members of the team and songs were sung.

As a result of the Girls' Pep Meeting two of the girls led the assembly in some new yells. After challenging the boys. The girls created much pep and aroused more enthusiasm than has been shown for many moons.

Mr. Webb introduced the debate team which presented the pro and con of the question: Resolved that sandwiches shall be buttered on both sides." This was a side splitting debate and will be remembered long. After the debate Mr. Metzler gave instructions concerning the schedule of the semester examinations and the schedule for the new semester.

HEIN SENIOR CALF AND THIRD IN THE HOLSTEIN SHOWMANSHIP CONTEST.

Besides these prizes Francis Detrick was judged outstanding club girl in Holstein club work in the state of Oregon. Also the judging team from Rock Creek club composed of Don Jossy, Francis Detrick and Albert Grossen placed third Miss Detrick was also second highest scoring judge in the state and highest scoring girl.

At the Pacific International Livestock Exposition the club members won about $50. Francis Detrick, Earle Jossy and Don Jossy had on exhibit four Holstein heifer calves and John Hansen exhibited a brown Swiss heifer calf.

Miss Detrick's calf placed fourth. Don's two calves placed third and sixth. Earle's placed fifth and John's placed third. In the Holstein showmanship contest, Don Jossy placed second and Francis Detrick third. In the brown Swiss showmanship contest John Hansen placed third.

SNOW MAKES BUS DRIVING HARD WORK

Wednesday Jan. 28 the students woke up to see a world of white. Many went down to the bus line to wait for the busses hoping in their hearts that they would not come. Most of the busses were on time however but one or two arrived a few minutes late. Thursday morning, bus No. 6 was forty-five minutes late and such a hurry and scurry as there was in the halls.

On the way home Thursday evening bus No. 6 tried to turn around near Wilbur and Frances Hanson's house. The snow was so deep that the bus got stuck. The students wanted to help the bus driver so despite the cold and snow they got out and pushed the bus out of the snow and mud. The bus went the rest of the way without further trouble.

A similar experience was had by Mr. Kamberger who drives bus No. 4. Mr. Kamberger was returning alone from his route when his bus became embedded in the mud near the Bethany Baptist Church. He got out without much trouble. No serious accidents or delays were reported with the bus service out it looked for a time as the old man winter was going to stop the routine of our schools.

DEBATERS SHOW LOTS OF HUMOR

A humorous debate was given at the student body assembly, January 20, by six students of Mr. Webb's public speaking class.

The question debated was: Resolved that all sandwiches should be buttered on both sides. The affirmative team was made up of Margaret Dickman, Willard Clinton and Donald Walker. The negative team consisted of Frances Marvin and Boeckli and Bob Denney. Kenneth Taylor was chairman of the debate.

The speeches of the debaters were very humorous, especially Donald Walker's. He succeeded in making the students and teachers laugh at his actions as well as his speech. It was one time that no teacher told Donald to throw his gum away while talking.

The judges for the debate were Ila James, Lloyd Wertz, Hayes Boyce, George Brandie, Reynold Wilson, Arline Bixby and Miss Sweeney, who represented the faculty. Miss Sweeney whose vote was the only one counted, gave her decision to the negative team. Her reason she said was, that it was enough to fall over Eugene Hanson's feet in the assembly without having butter on the floors.

TIGARD TEAMS WIN BASKETBALL GAMES

At the sound of the whistle on Friday evening, Dec. 20, Tigard and Beaverton began a closely contested basketball game.

Tigard started early in the first quarter to show their desire for the victory. Although Beaverton almost tied them several times it seemed as if the local team could not gain the lead. Both teams fought earnestly to gain the advantage if the other but Tigard forged ahead at the last and won with a score of 22-17.

The two second teams also played and Beaverton came out ahead with a score of 13-12. The second team's game was very exciting because the score remained close throughout the game. The teams seemed equally matched but the Beavers got ahead in the last few minutes of the game.

The Beaverton line-up for the first team was: Charles Shively and Beverly Bielman, Forwards; Lloyd Wertz and George Brandl, Guards; Vernon Bronkey, Center; Paul Boeckli, Tom Wilson and Neil Jackson substitutes. Second team line-up: Bob Denney and Joe Vrlicak, Forwards; Hays Boyce and Norman Tolefson, Guards; Willard Clinton, Center; Theodore Hetu and Henry Jacobson, substitutes.

Catherine: "Mr. Warren, during commercial arithmetic usually comes around the room to see that we do our tomorrow's assignment, correctly Dorothy: "Well, my gosh, how does he see your problems when you work them home every night."

During the 1932 fair season the Rock Creek club won about $240. in prizes. This included scholarships and other special prizes.

The club will probably have more livestock and of better quality this year than last.

GRADE SCHOOL NOW HAS LUNCH ROOM

A new kitchen has been installed in the lunch room of the grade school. Approximately one hundred students are served daily with either a bowl of hot soup, hot chocolate, salad or a dessert. Each dish is five cents.

Two girls from the high school serve the dishes. They are prepared in the high school cafeteria and are taken over to the grades.

The new kitchen is equipped with a gas plate, small lunch counter, several new tables and adequate sink facilities.

The P. T. A. has issued about forty free tickets to the needy students of Beaverton. The tickets are also available to those students who wish to purchase tickets instead of taking money each day.

Aunt Sophrony's Column

Dear Aunt Sophrony:

Please answer this perplexing question for me—If cats have kittens and dogs have puppies, what do owls have?

G. Wolfe

Dear G. Wolfe:

Drug stores!

Aunt Sophrony

Dear Aunt Sophrony:

As much as I hate to admit it, I may be forced to cheat in my English semester exam. If I do have to resort to such desperate means and Mrs. Snyder catches me red handed, what shall I do?

Carl G.

Dear Carl G.:

Be nonchalant—tell her you cut your hand.

Aunt Sophrony.

Dear Aunt Sophrony:

Every time I go out I eat so much that I am really too fat. What can I do to reduce?

Pearl D.

Dear Pearl: Try going out with college boys.

Aunt Sophrony.

Dear Aunt Sophrony:

My boy friend went away two weeks ago. He wrote me a letter and at the end of the letter he put a couple of x's. What does he mean?

I. Smith.

Dear I. S.:

Simple my girl! That means he is double crossing you.

Auntie

Dear Aunt Sophrony:

Gray hairs or no gray hairs I worry day and night. Can you set my heart at ease and tell me what an operetta is?

L. W.

Dear L. W.:

Don't be foolish. It's a girl who works for the telephone company.

Your Aunt Sophrony

Dear Aunt Sophrony:

Woe is me! I lost another girl friend because I cannot remember dates. What would you do if you were in my shoes?

J. Stassen

Dear J. S.:

I'd get a pair four sizes smaller.

Aunt Sophrony

Dear Auntie:

I haven't skipped one day this year. I have studied hard and received good grades. Should I start in skipping again?

Carl D.

Dear Carlton:

I advise you to ask Mr. Metzler about skipping. Maybe he will let you leave whenever you wish and take V.M. along. Think what wonderful spring holidays you might arrange for and how comfortable to know that you have the superintendent behind you.

Aunt S.

SPOSD T'B UMORUS

Ben Scruggs: "What made that bump on your head?"
Chuck Shively: "That's where a thought struck me."

Mr. Hughes: "Jean, explain the terms of the Treaty of Guadalupe-Hidalgo between the United States

THE HUMMER

Issued every Friday

By Junior English Classes

Editors: Louise Martin, Jeanne Sivard.

HIGH SCHOOL NEWS

Earl Jossy has been absent from school for several days as a result of illness.

Misses Burk and Schaefer spent the week-end at Mount Hood enjoying the winter sports.

From the worried expression on the faces of some of the B. H. S. students and even the faculty it is apparent that the jig-saw puzzle craze has superseded the Yo-Yo obsession.

The regular noon interclass basketball games came to an end this week. Throughout the season the senior class has won the majority of games.

Try-outs for the Student Body play were held in Miss Sanford's room on Thursday and a satisfactory group entered into competition for places in the cast.

The Junior English classes are well pleased with the sale of the "Hummer" last week and hope that the regular forth-coming issues meet with an equal reception.

"Funny Phiney" a comedy in 3 acts has been chosen for the student body play and will be presented in the near future.

The death of Mr. D. C. Howard, father of Donna Rae was a shock to the entire student body. Mr. Howard has been an active sponsor in the 4-H club work and the boys on his teams won many honors at various contests. Mr. Howard will be missed in our community.

S. B. OFFICERS TO BE INSTALLED SOON

Student body officers for the ensuing semester were elected Monday January 16 during the second period. Those elected are: Ivan Bierly, President; Lloyd Wertz, Vice President; Catherine Markovitch, Secretary; Reynold Wilson, Treasurer; Charles Shively, Student Body Manager; Dick Goyt and Edward McElroy, Yell Leaders; and Thelma Tefft, Song Leader. The new officers will be inaugurated at the first regular assembly in the new semester.

GIRLS TO ORGANIZE A PEP CLUB HERE

The dread epidemic "laziness" will get you if you don't watch out. It has got its skinny fingers on many a student and will get you too if you don't keep alive. "What we need is pep" said Miss Barnes at the girls' assembly January 19th.

The girls are contemplating the organization of a pep club, whose function it will be to meet for a rally before each game. Other schools have large turnouts at their games and Beaverton certainly should support its athletic teams with the same vigor. Come on, let's get some pep," said Ruth Fulgham.

Miss Schaefer's gave a short talk on sportsmanship. She told the girls that they would be allowed to practice basketball at 3:30 each Friday. Yells were led by Vera McElroy and Annabelle Benson and Thelma Tefft directed the group in some school songs.
