Lee Richey, L. W. Short, A. E. Wilson and C. J. Beilman drove to McMinnville Monday evening to learn of the plans of this organization. Richey explains that farmers can through this organization get money to buy seed for re-seeding their winter-killed crops or for other worthy purposes, buying stock, machinery, poultry, etc.

If Beaverton business men want to help along a worthy cause, they can do no better than help farmers in this community get in touch with this organization.

Copies of applications for the different kinds of loans that can be secured may be seen at Richey Hardware store.

Congregational Church
Rev. Charles F. Clarke, Pastor

Well, Friends: We have some good news for you—that's what "Gospel" means. They talked Greek then, we talk English now; but the good news is for all times; but how can we give you the good news if you do not come to hear it? You will find it being told in the Bible school at 9:45, at the church services at 11:00 a.m. and 7:30 p.m., and at the two Christian Endeavor Societies at 6:30 every Sunday. In the morning, Mr. Clarke will give us "The Bible View of Human Values". In the evening more hymn stories illustrated by stereopticon. Special business meeting, Wednesday at eight.

THREE FOR ME

Here! Here!! HERE!!! Here you have the secret of the power—men who from ancient of days have lifted the world Godward.

1st. Bible! Bible!! Bible!!! Full of it; they knew the blessings God waited to pour out if men would break with sin and meet God's terms. "He that spared not his own Son, but delivered Him up for us all, how shall He not with Him freely give us all things?"

2nd. Pray! Pray!!! These power-men pled much for all who live Christless lives, going out into Christless graves and on into Christless eternities. "While they are yet speaking I will hear," God's promise.

3rd. Go! Go!! Go!!! Yes—go ye into all the world and tell the good news to every last man.

God commands each of the saved to get the word of life out to the last soul he can reach. "Herein is my Esther glorified, that ye hear much fruit," Christ pleads. Old Time Religion, Box 95, R. 2 Beaverton, Oregon

Church of Christ
Rev. G. W. Springer

Applications are coming in for membership in the fisherman's club. The definite date of our first meeting will be announced next Sunday. All who are eligible for membership are urged to hand in your application as soon as possible. Of course, only those interested in becoming fishers of men need apply. The young people of the Christian Endeavor are beginning Christian Endeavor week next Sunday by taking charge of the evening service with the exception of the sermon.

Next Sunday morning Mr. Springer will speak on the topic, "Eight Eternal Things."

The sermon in the evening will be especially for the young people. The topic will be "In The Days of Thy Youth".

Methodist Church
George F. Gordon, Pastor

Mr. Roger Babson says, "Four per cent of the men of the United States do ninety five per cent of the thinking and managing and planning for the country" There is a reason for this. Just as this is true in the world of business it is true in church school and lodge. So few people take responsibility is what we hear on every hand. We are offering on Wednesday evening at seven thirty for the next few weeks at the church, a course of addresses and lessons on a great subject and theme. We call this course "Personology". It is what you need to develop you and make you capable of taking places of responsibility. The course will be helpful to those who wish to do things better. Regardless of your creed or church or lodge we invite you to be with us each Wednesday evening. You will find something in this course you have longed for. No doubt you have qualities of leadership. Perhaps you have not organized these to serve you. Perhaps you have no definite purpose. This is the cause of the greatest inefficiency in America. We promise you work more effective and far reaching take this series of lessons. Bring a note book and pencil.

Sunday services each Sunday at eleven o'clock. We invite you to worship with us. You will hear a message that will do you good. You will meet friendly people and will come again. Let us meet you, Sunday. Sunday school at ten. Our's is progressive and interesting. We meet the problems of the day through a frank candid discussion.

Blower Demonstrates New Fisher Ventilation System

Simulating the conditions encountered in driving, the 53-miles-an-hour blast from this big blower finds itself completely tamed by the new Fisher No-Draft Ventilation system. In the upper photo, the driver's window is lowered and the ventilation regulator set to admit full flow of air, paralleling the condition existing in the conventional type of car with driver's window down. The faces and attitudes of the occupants reflect the discomfort they feel.

The lower picture was taken under identical conditions, except that the Fisher No-Draft Ventilation system has been brought into use. Note the white ribbons—which were fluttering so violently in the upper picture as to be entirely invisible—hanging straight down above the rear seat occupants' heads. The small blurred streaks on the outside of the car in both photos are similar bits of ribbon, whipping about in the wind.

The diagram beside each photograph gives an idea of the course of air currents in the car when the picture was taken. In the upper view they rush in and cause discomfort and drafts in their effort to escape; in the lower view they are drawn in to compensate for the removal of spent air, which has been drawn out by the semi-vacuum in the wake of the car.
