A NEWSPAPER IS STARTED AT ALOHA

Among the late publications to be launched, is the Aloha Calendar, published by S. G. Kneely, Emerson and Schmid of Aloha. The first number announces that it is the outgrowth of the idea that a newspaper, to amount to anything, must get the undivided attention of its sponsor and publishers.

The printing shows good workmanship, the subject matter is much better than the average, and the whole publication though small seems very appropriate.

FINDLEY FORMING SALEM DELEGATION

Believing that the present system of land taxation is unjust the several organizations in joint session at the Court house in Hillsboro, Saturday evening of last week adopted a resolution to be presented to the Washington county delegation in the Legislature asking that all taxes on real estate be abolished.

A public hearing on the resolution will be held in Salem, Monday, February 20, 1933. The evening, and all who are interested in the proposition are requested to be present.

H. R. Findley is busy gathering together a good sized delegation to attend from this part of the county.

HOME ECONOMICS CLUB HAS MEET

The Home Economics club of Aloha met Wednesday with Mrs. Fred Nault. A very interesting program was rendered. They reviewed their work for the past year, making reports, planning work for the coming year, appointing committees, etc.

IN FIVE ACTS

Act 1. In days of old, From out the flock, Father Israel brings in the best lamb; over it's head he confesses his sin; draws the knife; in death the blood flows to cover Israel's sins. "Blessed is the man whose sins are covered," says God.

Act 2. Years later—John the Baptist, standing with two of his followers, as Jesus passes by. "Behold," says John, "the lamb of God that taketh away the sins of the world." Sins covered over are to be wiped out.

Act 3. Three years later, Jesus bearing his cross goes forth to Calvary and there they crucify him. Again the blood—"the blood of Jesus Christ that cleanseth from all sin."

Act 4. Today, A man bogged down in sin sees the Holy One taking his place, dying under his guilt for his sins. "Lord, save me!" This one cry and the answer comes back, "Whosoever cometh unto me I will in no wise cast out."

Act 5. Scene in heaven. Joy among the angels; a sinner has turned. His name is in the lamb's book of life. Now the mighty God goes to work to build his new son into the likeness of Jesus Christ. Old Time Religion, Box 95 R.F.D. 2 Beaverton, Oregon.

Wholesale Grocers

Distributors of Nationally Known Foods and Canned Goods in Portland at 251 East Salmon, Is Prominent Wholesale Grocery House in This Part of The Country With a Record of Service Which Has Been Indispensable In The Continued Progress and Development of The Community; Thoroughly Conversant With Such an Important Institution And is One of The Community's Foremost Business Assets.

Telephone EAst 9107

A well organized and present day concern with extensive establishment in town, whose service as a progressive wholesale grocery has been essential in the continued development and expansion of Portland and vicinity. This is one of the prominent firms of the country under experienced management.

There isn't any question but that this popular establishment is an important factor in the commercial and business life of this section as it is one of the foremost groceries of this part of the state.

The retailers have come to know that they can get from them the very best goods on the market, hence they seek no further market. They have a reputation far and wide as business men of wide experience and straightforward.

methods and it is not surprising that the volume of the business is ever increasing.

The word service has been much mis-used of late, but as applied to this firm it takes on its full significance. They not only insist upon prompt and courteous service, but they have provided for their patrons the best quality.

They long ago determined to see that their patrons received the better quality which the consumer demands in these days and therefore it is not strange, that patrons of stores who receive their goods from this well known grocery seldom think of buying elsewhere.

There is a great deal more to the business of conducting a wholesale grocery than the average man understands.

This is an essential business that requires at its head a man of experience in the buying world and executives who are familiar with the details and the necessity for adequate distribution. It is such houses as this that add to the convenience and comfort of the modern householder and provides wholesome goods of the highest quality at the most reasonable prices.

We are pleased in this edition to direct your attention to this progressive establishment as a very distinctive feature of the community and to the managers as among the leading business men and most valued citizens of the community who materially assist in making this community more progressive and more attractive from a commercial standpoint.
