SPRING FOOTBALL IS COMMENCED

Spring football practice was started Monday, Feb. 27th. There are about 30 or 35 boys turning out. The purpose of Spring Football is to better prepare a team for the coming season next fall. There will probably be no games with any other schools, this spring, however. The squad is divided into two teams which will have games together. Vernon Bronkey is the captain of one team; Jack Barron of the other.

As there are few lettermen back next fall the team will be somewhat inexperienced. Coach Warren intends to concentrate more on defence than offense because of the fact that the team will be new.

Bob Denney.

Now what's happened?? The study hall desks have been cleaned out.

P. Boeckli escorted three fair maidens home from the Smoker last week. "There is safety in numbers."

In the spring a young man's fancy turns to thoughts of love. It isn't spring yet but C. Dashney and P. Moede don't care.

Seen during the noon hour: Georgia B. Kamberger and Nelson Swolgaard holding hands. That's right spring is coming.

BEAVERTON CON-TINUES VICTORIOUS

Once again Beaverton "brought home the bacon" in the field of debate. Last week on Wednesday the negative team went to Canby for a debate. After a short delay during which the Beaverton debaters, Ivan Bierly and Kenneth Taylor went over their notes again in preparation for the fray, the debate began. This debate and the one in the afternoon with Milwukie was very important, being the semi final of this district, which takes in five counties.

The debate was carried on well by both sides, but at its conclusion the critic judge gave the decision to Beaverton. Canby showed her good sportsmanship by serving lunch to Beaverton's team and the coach.

About half an hour after the victorious negative team arrived home, the debate with Milwukie began in the Beaverton gym. Paul Boeckli and Thelma Tefft, the local affirmative team, gave one of the best debates of the season. The judges gave a 3 to 0 decision.

This Thursday both teams will have gone to McMinnville, to meet Newberg who also beat Milwukie and Canby in the district finals. The result of this dual debate will determine the district champion, who will still be eligible for the state championship debates.

Agda Mattson appeared with a bandaged eye on Wednesday as a result of having bumped her head on a drinking fountain in the hall. This injury narrowly escaped being tragic for a doctor's care was probably the only thing that saved Agda's eye.

After wondering for some time what ailed their vision on Thursday the faculty members realized that the brilliant display of jewelry worn by the Junior class was quite sufficient, to dazzle the eyesight of anyone. The Juniors are very proud of their new class rings and pins.

Clarence Croeni visited B. H. S., Thursday, as the guest of Warren Haley.

Aunt Sophrony's Column

Dear Aunt Sophrony:
I have went to school every day this year so don't you think it would be all right if I took a day off now and then C. D.

Dear C. D.:
I would advise you to get a permit from Mr. Metzler first. He can give you a definite answer. A.S.

Dear Aunt Sophrony:
Although against Coach Warren's wishes, I am so attached to smoking that I can not give it up. Don't you think it would be alright if I took a drag now and then? V.B.

Dear V. B.:
Let your conscience be your guide. Auntie

Dear Auntie:
Mr. Metzler talks so fast when explaining Economics that I dose off. What can I do to avoid it? A.H.

Dear A. H.:
Nothing can be done to avoid it but try to keep your eyes and ears open. —A.S.

Dear Aunt Sophrony:
What did Mr. Webb mean when he said I talked Blue Streak in a debate at McMinnville? B. D.

Dear B. D.:
He meant what he said. You talked too much and too fast; you talked until the judges could see nothing but "Blue Streaks." A.S.

Dear Aunt Sophrony:
Why was Willard running when he overtook Bob and Donald in McMinnville? Agda.

Dear Agda:
Ask the girl he was talking with. Aunt S.

A man wandered into a tennis tournament the other day and sat down on the bench.
"Whose game?" he asked.
A shy young thing sitting next to him looked up hopefully.
"I am," she retorted.

THE BEAVERTON REVIEW

AN "IF" FOR GIRLS

If you can dress to make yourself attractive, yet not make puffs and curls your chief delight;
If you can swim and row, be strong and active,
But of the gentler graces lose not sight;
If you can dance without a craze for dancing,
Play without giving play too strong a hold;
Enjoy the love of friends without romancing,
Care for the weak, the friendless, and the old;

2.
If you can master French, Greek and Latin,
And not acquire, as well, a priggish mien;
If you can feel the touch of silk and satin,
Without despising calico and jean;
If you can play a saw and use a hammer,
Can do a man's work when the need occurs,
Can act when asked without excuse or stammer,
Can rise above unfriendly snubs and slurs;
If you can make good bread as well as fudge,
Can sew with skill and have an eye for dust;
If you can be a friend and hold no grudge,
A girl whom all will love because they must;

3.
If sometimes you should meet and love another,
And make a home with faith and peace enshrine,
And you it's soul—a loyal wife and mother,
You'll work out pretty nearly to my mind.
The plan that's been developed thru the ages,
And win the best life can have in store,
You'll be, my girl, the model for the sages,
A woman whom the world will bow before.

4. PITY SAKE!
I 1-der when I say 2 you
While earth 3-mains my heart is true,
(I never felt like this be-4)
If 5 a chance at all to win
In this 6-pensive game I'm in.
It's 7-ly to think your mine!
If 8 will only be 9
I'll love you 10-derly, always
And 0 shall cloud your happy days.
