AN EDITORIAL

Look out! Mother will have to spank. Such memories are familiar to everyone.

Beaverton High School is confronted with the problem of what to do with students who evidently haven't passed this stage. Of course I mean the Fresh! Nope, wrong this time. The subject of concern happens to be mostly Juniors and Seniors. No, they are not constantly balling but they always annoy their teachers and some other student. No, they are not scratching mother's new furniture but they certainly insist on leaving their cards on every desk. They believe in emptying Mother's dresser drawers only in school it happens to be desks and lockers.

Like all infants they seem bound to destroy and mar things. They scatter paper from here to town. Daddy isn't here to make them pick it up. But you know some people just never grow up.

Words are wonderful things! Have you ever thought what they can do? It's worth the time to do so. There are words which you utter that can make everyone feel that this world is a beautiful place to live in. Those words radiate cheerfulness and brighten lonely lives. They are contagious. If you begin the day by using them, others will do the same. Yes, these are the kind words!

Then there are the bitter words which cut, like knives deep into our hearts. Physical wounds may heal but not those made by unkind words. These wounds hurt tremendously and are always slow to heal. This world of today needs only kind words. Let's use them, students!

STUDENT COUNCIL HOLDS A MEETING

A Student Council meeting was called to order first period, Wednesday by Ivan Bierly. Porter Underwood was elected chairman as it was the first meeting of the semester. Lloyd Wirtz was the only other nominee. Thelma Tefft was unanimously reelected as secretary. Reynold Wilson made a treasurer's report, which was followed by much discussion of school finances and ways and means of eliminating the Student Body debt. It is hoped that the deficit will not exceed $40 or $50 by the end of the school year. A program was outlined for the coming Student Body meeting to be held Friday. The meeting was adjourned.

REGULAR ASSEMBLY MEETING IS HELD

The regular meeting of the month was called to order, Friday, March 31, at 12:30 by Ivan Bierly. The minutes of the former meetings were read and corrected.

It was generally announced that there would be no Girl Reserve Carnival this term. All students were urged to buy more Hummers. Ed Posson and Carl Gravelle played two duets. Ruth Folgam accompanied (by Betty Buchanon) at the piano sang several numbers. Lila Fay Boyce played several violin numbers accompanied by Helen Godfrey at the piano.

BEAVER CHIPS

By "The Snoop"

Bill M. now drives a Ford. They satisfy.

At last the cast for the Senior play has been chosen. After much deliberation the cast is complete. Youse lucky guys!

K. Taylor's laugh is very menacing according to the play.

J. Gilmore has a new dog and she wishes to inform us that it's name is Leopold Napoleon Cortez Antonio Ricardo Dolorso. Gus for short.

Only ten more weeks of school! Just feature a nice hot sun, a cool breeze and a good book plus a bit of shade and nothing to do but read all day. "Ah sing the Spring Song", Ray.

Next week the editor of the Snoop column changes hands thanks to you peoples. S.I.B.A. will take the controls. You may file all libel suits with him. The unfortunate guy.

Helen B. says she wishes L. W. (my old colle or colleague) would shave his side burns straight not crooked. Oblige us and the fair lady, Lloyd.

Wishing the next Snoop Editor my fate. I remain,

—KATIE

Good night all and remember the fate of the Spanish Armada. Voika.

Douglas Taylor. "This is the last time I'm going to ask you for that nickle you owe for the Hummer."

Kenney W.: "Thank goodness that's over."

Don W. (gustling) "Anything I say goes."

Any girl: "Well say your name a couple times."

The meeting was adjourned.

Aunt Sophrony's Column

Dear Aunt Sophrony:
Will girls ever quit falling for Couck Shively?
—(Apple picker Hotcha) F. J.

Dear Fay:
Time alone will tell. Are you one of these under his spell? A.S.

Dear Aunt Sophrony:
Is it true a "good line" is the shortest way to a mans heart?
R.F.

Dear Ruth:
A good line helps, but a careful study of a few lines of a recipe is much more effective.
A. S.

Dear Auntie:
Willard has been very restless in English class lately. I like to see my student's get their work, so please tell me what is the trouble.

Dear Mrs. Snyder:
Knowing that Willard took Isabelle to the debate banquet, I think this answers your question. Don't you know it is spring and a young man's thoughts turn to things other than English. A. S.

Dear Auntie:
My misfortune is the same sad story. I admire a certain boy in this school (L. W.) but he seems never to notice me. What shall I do?
H. B.

My dear Helen:
Your's is a simple matter. Perhaps the young man thinks you are the same character you portrayed in the Student Body play. Convince him you are not and this will straighten out the whole affair.
A.S.
