

LOCAL HAPPENINGS

The Happy Harmonizers are sponsoring a big modern dance at Huber Hall on Saturday evening, April 15. They are planning a good time for all who attend.

Beaverton Grange will hold its regular meeting Saturday, April 8 at 10:30 A.M. The roll call will be "Suggestions for odd jobs in the home and on the farm."

Mrs. James McDermold of Tacoma visited at the S. B. Lawrence home, Friday. Mrs. McDermold was a former resident of Raleigh and is a member of Beaver Chapter O. E. S.

House guests at the L. D. Shellenberger home are Mrs. J. J. Newkirk of Los Angeles, Calif. sister and Mrs. J. J. Weatherman of Pocatella, Idaho, sister-in-law of Mrs. Shellenberger.

Mrs. Sarah V. Lawrence visited her daughter, Mrs. Dave Fiske of Multnomah this week. Mrs. Fiske has just returned from the Portland Sanitarium where she recently underwent an operation.

Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Denney attended a birthday dinner party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Ayres of Ridgefield, Wn. on Wednesday evening given in honor of their son Millard's twentieth birthday.

Tom Allen, Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Williams, Harvey Williams and Mr. and Mrs. John Eggman attended the funeral services at Skamokawa, Wn. of Mrs. Amanda Richards who was buried at the Fern Hill cemetery there.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Effenberger (Gladys Shellenberger) visited at the L. D. Shellenberger home Saturday. Mr. Effenberger is a member of Gov. Meier's Reconstruction committee as a representative from Tillamook Co. The committee met in Portland Sat.

TORCH HONOR SOC. PRESENTS DRAMA

The Torch Honor Society presented "Who Kissed Barbara?" a one act play, sixth period last Wednesday. The cast included: the bride, Thelma Tefft; the groom, Kenneth Taylor; the bridesmaid, Margaret West; the best man, Ivan Bierly; the butler, D. Taylor. The gym was darkened to add to the mysteriousness. Miss Schaefer's, the Torch Honor Society's faculty advisor, proved to be an able coach.

Other numbers on the program were a piano solo by Helen Godfrey, and a vocal duet by Elizabeth Struthers and Esther McKeown.

The admission was 10c and the Society netted 11.20, part of which will be used to buy a loving cup for some member of the graduating class.

GIVE MESSAGE TO EIGHTH GRADERS

In September you will be in the new Freshman class entering our "HI". In order that you may enjoy your first year more it is our desire to make you better acquainted with our work and activities. We are sending an account each week through the Hummer of these. By reading the Hummer you can decide what activities you wish to enjoy.

To you parents of future High School students, we urge you to read the Hummer and then make your decisions concerning your son or daughter and Beaverton High School.

LARGE CROWD AT TEND BAND CONCERT

On Friday evening, March 31, a band concert was given at the High school auditorium. Several numbers were played by the band some of which they will play in the State Band Contest.

The three contest numbers are: "Our Director," a march—"Oregon Melody," a waltz and "Iron Count," an Overture.

Singing by the girls' Glee club and a tap dance by Thelma Tefft were also features of the program.

The Torch Honor Society's play "Who Kissed Barbara" gave the audience much amusement and was a fine closing for the entertainment.

—Bob Denney

JUNIOR CLASS

The Junior class held a special meeting Friday in room 9 for the purpose of discussing the Junior Prom.

Annabelle Benson was chosen by the president to be chairman. The following committees were appointed: Refreshment, Margaret West; Entertainment, Alice Lundgren; Decoration, Joyce Simontson; Patron, Dorothy Roy; Orchestra, Betty Buchanan. The admission will be 25c for a single person or 25c a couple. The lower classes are to be allowed to come provided they are accompanied by a Junior or Senior.

As Mildred Fennell has moved Dorothy Roy was elected as the new secretary.

—June Hansen

BEAVERTON WINS DEBATE HONORS

Beaverton High school is now district champion in debate. Both her teams have shown great ability and versatility during the hard struggle to this high position. The affirmative team, Paul Loeckli and Thelma Tefft have not lost a debate during the whole district series. The negatives, Ivan Bierly and Kenneth Taylor have lost only one. This wonderful record was climaxed by the defeat of Newberg's teams in the hardest debate of the season, to date, which gave Beaverton the district Championship. This debate was held at Linfield College.

Beaverton meets Seaside at Seaside with her negative team April 8th. On the same date Springfield meets Albany, Medford meets Myrtle Point, Clifton meets Redmond, and Baker, Pendleton. These schools are champions in their respective districts.

If Beaverton wins from Seaside her negative team will two weeks later meet the elimination between Springfield, Albany, Medford and Myrtle Point. The school winning this debate is the Western Oregon Champion. If Beaverton wins her way to this honor her affirmative team will meet the Eastern Oregon Champion at Eugene. The winner of this debate is state champion.

NEWS NOTES

The Girl Reserves have ordered their rings which will be presented to them April 21 at a formal ring ceremony at McClay Park in Portland.

Miss Burke has been besieged by students of the public speaking class, to find orations. Alan Lowery gave Lincoln's Gettysburg Address. Vivian Jeffries gave Susan B. Anthony's famous speech on woman suffrage. Ray Wismer gave one of Daniel Webster's speeches.

On account of the bank situation there will be no Girl Reserve Carnival. It has been postponed till early next fall.

Mr. Hughes has set aside Monday of each week to discuss current events with his 6th period American history class. The idea was originated by Catherine Markovich.

The Lincoln-Douglas debate and the Webster-Hayne debate will soon be given by four students of the public speaking class.

Wednesday noon students enjoyed seeing on the third floor, an Indian war dance given by none other than our joke editor, Margaret Dickman, in disguise.

Bus No. 5 holds the record of not being late this school year. The students are disappointed but it is their opinion that it will be late June 2, the last day of school.

"Will you write in my autograph?" "Oh, I can't think of a thing to say" Such are the words you hear in the halls and classes now. The autograph mania has begun again.

Miss Schaefer's French 2 class members are waiting anxiously to receive their first letters from French correspondents.

WORRY?

Some shoo trouble away; but back it comes again next day. Sure—for, "Man that is born of a woman is of a few days and full of trouble."

Here is the cure—
"Come unto me all ye that labor and are heavy laden and I will give you rest"—the words of the Lord. And the Good Book says to cast all your care upon Him for He careth for you.

Who is it that casts all their anxious care upon the Lord? Who is it that walks through the valley of the shadow of death and fears no evil? They have settled the big question.

Now settle it; take your stand that Christ's death for your sins clears you and opens the way for God to pour in—pour in—pour in—of his blessings. Second; Bible—Bible—Bible for your new marching orders. Third; prayer—prayer—prayer for the power to go ahead.
