SPEAKING CLASS HOLDS CONTEST

The public speaking class held their six weeks exam in the form of a contest. They have been studying oratory, so the exam included nothing but oratory. The students were paired each couple having the same oration. They were judged on gestures, memory, interpretation, and general attitude. Ronald Webb of Pacific University acted as critic judge on Monday and the judgeship was supplied by students the rest of the week. The winners of the various couples were: Marvin Stalder, Vernon Bronkey, Donald Walker, Bob Denney, Isobel Wallis and Virginia Robertson. Several students were given individual work. This contest proved very interesting to the class.

Magdalena Boeckli '32 is planning to enter Emanuel Hospital in January.

AN EDITORIAL

The backstop for the tennis court is up. What shall we do? Let it stand there without a purpose, or shall we make a good court for it? The bus drivers of B. H. S. have donated their services to put up the backstops. Why shouldn't we put in a few days work and make a court? We need one. The gymnasium is emptied at 4:30 and while we are in there it is crowded. On Saturday there is no place to play. What to do? Work on the outdoor tennis court TOMORROW and get it done. —Carll Beach.

"Necessity is the mother of invention," so it is said, but many things were invented not because they were necessary but because the inventors had the initiative to do something different.

We must cultivate our initiative because the man who has initiative has a better chance to realize his ambitions. To put our initiative into practical use we must have an education and the best time to get an education is now.—Lynar Short

NEWS NOTES

Dorothy Cox from Franklin High school in Portland visited here on Monday of this week.

Miss Schaeffers has selected the Senior play cast and is working very hard to make this a worth while production.

Great strides are being made on the new outdoor tennis court. (Teachers note: "Do not take this literally")

Baseball has proved to be a well liked sport with the girls of the school. There are inter-class games every noon and there is a good showing at most games.

The indoor tennis court is very popular with the students. The court is full at all possible moments.

The Design class has just completed a twelve weeks course in home furnishing and has entered a course on Home Management.

English 8 classes have just started the study of American literature, and expect to make six rapid weeks survey of them.

Dear Little Helen: When we grow up we acquire some sense. Cheer up, you'll grow up some day maybe and forget him. Aunt S.

Dear Aunt Sophrony: Josephine Boner is thoroughly disgusted with Oregon. She says she had lots of boy friends in Nebraska and can't get a one out here. Will you please tell her what she can do to win a boy friend here in Oregon. —J. B's friend

Dear Sympathetic One: She might try the same tactics she used in Nebraska on boys who are not already claimed. L. W. is claimed by several, so she had better try some one else because the girls who have been here first think they have first right to him. If she will do this, she will find the Oregon boys are not so particular. —Aunt S.

Dear Aunt Sophrony: How can I make B. M. care for me? Nothing I can do seems to attract him. —G.J.

Dear Genevieve: Don't despair. Try rolling your eyes like R. F. and invite Bob to dinner some night. The way to a man's heart is through his stomach. He's not worth the effort, anyway. Aunt S.

Dear Auntie: As I am a taciturn lad of invincible modesty, it annoys me to distraction to have my name appear in the scandal sheet as it has done for the last few weeks. What can I do to make them stop? —K. T.

Dear Kenneth: Suppose you try acting the part of "a taciturn lad of invincible modesty" as you claim yourself to be.

Dear Aunt Sophie: Last Friday night a nice looking bachelor took me home from the dance at Huber. Now, all the kids are teasing me about it. What can I do to make them stop? P. D.

Dear Pearl: Maybe they are only jealous. Try and find one for them, too, and they'll quit. —Aunt S.

Dear Aunt Sophrony: What can I do to get rid of H. G? He bothers me all the time. M. W.

Dear Meg: Kid him along and tell him where you live. Be grateful for all attention. —A. S.

Dear Auntie: I can't understand why my crooning does not touch H. B's heart. Is he naturally hard hearted or is there someone else. —R. F.

Dear Ruth: He's fickle. His heart doesn't stay with one girl. Don't bother. A. S.

B. H. S. TRACK TEAM DEFEATS NEWBERG

Beaverton's track season looks as though it will be one of high success. I think Beaverton will go far this year in track because she has an even balanced team with no one star. Sweeping all events but three, Beaverton took Newberg into camp by an overwhelming score.

Friday, April 21, 1933, Beaverton took on Hillsboro and Forest Grove in a triangular meet. Beaverton lost this meet by two points, but this did not discourage the athletes because they will go to defeat all other opposition and take the district meet.

In my opinion Beaverton should have at least three men going to the state meet this year, not counting the relay team which will surely go, having made the time of 1:35, all ready this year.

Last year Beaverton won the district meet by one point with your help they can repeat this so lets get behind the team and make them win. —Clarence Henderson

BEAVER CHIPS

By "The Snoop"

Seen at Aloha last Friday night; Carl Beach trying to learn the Tango. You show the lad, Margaret. Reason he wasn't successful he forgot his smoked glasses. Will you sign my autograph book?

Dick Goyt drives like a madman. Why Sunday he brutally murdered 3 pigs and one hog not forgetting the sow he killed. Charge manslaughter.

Have you seen the miniature of King Kong around school. He has curly hair, white flashy teeth, and a magnificent pair of side burns. 3 guesses.

There is a new car hanging around school and the owner: well, we won't even give an opinion. Name of car, ya. "Chevorlatzizramozaty." Some crate.

Douglas T. can't you cheer up your brother. He has a bad case of — She's mad at him. A century of progress, bah!

Cooperation. This word is a new discovery. The meaning is, "Buy a Hummer." Nice. I suppose athletic means a new way to work Algebra. Well, we all should regardless, conzertymozation. That means buy a Hummer and pay for it.

Yours (like)—The Snoop.

Dr. Howard C. Hall

Optometrist

In Portland at 719 Selling Bldg. Telephone Beacon 4034. Dr. Howard C. Hall has had long experience and wide knowledge as a specialist in eye troubles. Immediate attention to these delicate organs may save you much inconvenience and expense.

Some of us inherit eyes subject to certain defects. Other of us have taken bad care of our eyes when we were children. Any inherent weakness or any mistreatment of the eyes may cause us to need glasses. Because of the delicateness of the eyes no one but an expert should be allowed to examine and correct our vision. A mistake may mean a handicap for life in the way of extremely defective sight.

It should be a source of great satisfaction to the people of this community that they have conveniently located here a man whose fine technical skill and long experience make him an expert in examining for and fitting glasses. This up-to-date office is well patronized and justly so. He has spent years in making a special study of the eye and is thoroughly competent in every detail.

His reputation as an optical specialist is not limited to this community. Persons from everywhere in this section of the state take occasion to come in and have their eyes examined with regularity. His office is equipped to fit you perfectly with glasses. He uses only the finest makes of lens prepared for grinder. Back of his work is not only his reputation and experience, but his personal guarantee. His glasses must give satisfaction.

Dr. Howard C. Hall makes each case one for special study, and can fit you with the lenses, the correct power for your individual needs.

If you have children it is a wise thing to have a regular examination made of their eyes, along with a complete physical examination. Dr. Hall has made a study of the troubles affecting children's eyes, and he will be glad to give you the most expert advice on the matter.

Your eyes are your two most delicate organs and should receive the correct attention they deserve.

We wish to direct the attention of our readers to this well known office when your eyes require help. He has merited the reputation gained and is ready at all times to give any information you may desire that is in the province of the eye.
