AN EDITORIAL

Popularity, in other words, is one's own personality, and personality is a quality with which you are endowed by nature. One of the most dangerous things a person can do is to attempt to build up an artificial personality. If you will be your own self and do what you think is right, adhere to your principles and decisions you have a personality. If you let others guide you and do your thinking for you in any subject, if you believe you have no personality and you develop an inferiority complex you will discover when you attempt to build up an artificial personality to gain popularity that you have none.

JUNIOR CLASS

A group of juniors held a meeting last Tuesday to discuss the part they are to take in the Senior class day celebration. The following have been chosen to take part: Catherine Markovich, Margaret West, Joyce Simonton, Margaret Dickman, Dorothy Boy, Lila Boyce, Imogene Smith, Eva Wolfe, Ruby Zastrow, Alice Lundgren, Willard Clinton, Kenneth Taylor, Hays Boyce, Carl Gravelle, Henry Greenwald, Ed Posson, Douglas Taylor, Donald Walker, Paul Wilson, Tom Wilson and Marvin Stalder. Betty Buchanan will be the pianist. There may be some changes made in the group.

They will march in and sing a song to the graduating class.

Aunt Sophrony's Column

Dear Aunt Sophie:
Oh, Auntie, I'm in the awfulest mess. Every time anybody reads any of my notes to Ella J. they always start laughing. If there's anything I can't stand is just that. What can I do about it? D.W.
P. S. Don't get me wrong. I'm not one of those thin skinned persons. I'm the first to laugh at my own foolishness, but what can I do about it? Humbly your nephew,
—D. Walker

Dear Donny:
My! My! What a merry life you must lead. You ask what you can do about your foolishness. We've often wondered! Possibly the best thing would be to quit cluttering up the halls with those silly notes.
Aunt S.

Dear Aunt Sophrony:
Mr. Hughes told us George Washington died during the latter part of his life. Do you think he really meant it, or was he merely jesting? Yours truly, —R. Denney

My Dear Boy:
You should know better than to accuse Mr. Hughes of jesting. Simply shocking! However, don't take him too seriously or I fear you'll be sadly disillusioned.

Dear Auntie:
Maybe you've noticed that I always say exactly what I think. Is that the best way to popularity? —A. B.

Dear A. E:
So that's why you are always so quiet? Just keep plugging away at your problem and I'm sure all will end well. Write me again in a couple of weeks and tell me how you are getting along. —Auntie

Dear Aunt Sophrony:
What shall I do to win G. M.'s affection? He deliberately avoids my notes and pays marked attention to J. going so far as to take her to lunch. Should I wear green, which according to the color of his shirt is the royal app. of love? —Doris Yarton.

Dear Doris:
As far as I can see it would be a splendid idea for you to wear both red and green. If he has an apple eye, that apple would most likely be one of those colors. Altho' this is not Christmas, make variety your choice if you must have him. —Auntie

Dear Auntie:
C. D. is sending so many notes to V. M. who throws them into the waste basket, that by the time I get them read, I don't have time to finish my work. How can we

GIRL RESERVES

(The Girl Reserves held a regular meeting on April 7 in the gym. After leading the girls in the Lord's Prayer, Lila Fay Boyce read from the Bible a scripture. A financial report was given by the treasurer, Ruth Wismer. The club has $21.73. There was much discussion about an all girls party to be given on May 4th. Catherine Markovich is chairman and appointed Lila Fay Boyce as her assistant. An interesting speech was given by Margaret Dickman about the ring ceremonial at the Washington Bowl in Portland, April 23. The president, Margaret West, gave a report of the inter-club council meeting she attended. Arrangements were completed for going to Rockcreek the following week-end. A list was taken of the girls desiring to go to Rockcreek on all-high-school day, May 6. The girls approved of the delegates selected at the special meeting to go to Horsehead Camp Tacoma, Wash. Lila Fay Boyce and Catherine Markovich have been chosen. Mrs. Hughes, the advisor, led the group in singing Girl Reserve songs. Elizabeth Struthers played the piano. —C Markovich

HOME ECONOMIC NEWS

The high school cafeteria will prepare lunch for the teachers and the grade school pupils for about two weeks.

For the remainder of the school year the grade school cafeteria will be sponsored by the Parent Teachers Association.

The girls in Home Economics have finished their project and will practice making bound button holes and pockets. Next week they will start on the last project a spring print dress to be finished by the closing of the term.

GIRL RESERVES OUT-ING A REAL SUCCESS

There wasn't much left of the Rock Creek Lodge when the Girl Reserves departed from it at 4:00 Saturday afternoon. There was certainly nothing left that resembled food and very little left of the building.

Agda Matson carried away all the signs in the surrounding neighborhood, and everyone that is, except Mrs. Hughes and Miss Funk, carried away a great deal of the red clay mud that's so common on the by-roads.

But, don't get us wrong, our motto is to give and take and like all good Girl Reserves we left something. All of us left our names (no, for once not on the furniture) in the registration book. Many left small three cornered squares of material from their clothes on the surrounding shrubs.

We didn't forget our school work either, because Agda asked Biology questions of everyone at 3:00 A.M. But I slept through that.

Well, all in all, we had a marvelous time and expect to return next year if only to the debris.

—Pearl Dudley

Gertrude DesBrisay returned to school Monday after a week's absence due to illness.

The Biology class under the supervision of Mrs. Robertson is beginning the collection and classification of flowers.

Much work is being done on the tennis court and it is hoped it will be ready for use by Wednesday, May 3.

Nada Suthers underwent an operation for appendicitis at the Portland County Hospital last week.

George Klein, a student at Columbia University, visited school last week while recuperating from injuries received while playing baseball.

make him stop it, for the best interest of the school? —Amo.

Dear Amo:
Don't give up. He may get writers' cramp yet. Meanwhile let's just let the poor things alone. A.S.

Dear Sympathetic One:
Why is it that I cannot gain E. A.'s friendship so it will be everlasting. We write notes to each other every day but still she won't accept my dates. What is it that T. H. possesses? Won't you please tell me so I can be hers? —D. J.

Dear Don:
I guess the reason Evelyn doesn't pay any attention to you is because T. H. is a Frenchman and Evelyn just loves that type. But if I hear anything about him and a girl by the name of J. H. I'll see that you know it. Lovingly, Auntie

STUDENT BODY HAS REGULAR MEETING

The meeting of Friday, April 28 was called to order by the president Ivan Bierly. Following were the treasurers report, remarks by the different members of the Student Council encouraging the students to rid their treasury of the present deficit. They were urged to attend all scholastic activities for the remainder of the term, primarily the Senior Play.

The coach and different members of the track team discussed the coming meet.

The meeting was made enjoyable by musical numbers given by students. They were: two vocal duets, one solo and a piano duet. Lloyd Wirtz carried in the chairs.

After further announcements the meeting was adjourned.

Mr. Hughes—"What are people called who are always trying to point out other people's defects?"
Bronkey—"Teachers."

FIRE SQUAD HAS NEW MEMBERS

The Fire Squad meeting on Monday, April 24, was called to order by the Chief, Mac Clement who read the constitution of the Fire Squad for the benefit of two persons, Bob Engelke and John Mason who were officially made members of the B. H. S. Fire Squad. There was a discussion about the girls wearing the members' pins. Mr. Metzler advised that they hold on to them or they wouldn't have any proof of membership. Also the members are to help prevent any accidents happening again during the track meets.

The following firemen are going to work on the tennis court Tuesday: Bob Engelke, John Mason, Tom Wilson, Neil Jackson, Jerome Tuttle, Beverly Bielman, Bill Underwood and Mac Clement.

TRACK TEAMS HAVE BIG COMPETITION

The Tigard track team journeyed to Beaverton Wednesday, April 25 and defeated the home track squad 56 to 42. Tigard was much stronger than expected. Beaverton has beaten Tigard badly every year but they got their revenge this year.

Friday the Washington county track meet was held at Forest Grove. The teams finished in this order: First, Forest Grove; Second, Tigard Third, Hillsboro and fourth, Beaverton. Last year Beaverton took this meet by a large margin.

"Pa, what does it mean here by Diplomatic Phraseology?"

"My son, if you tell a girl that time stands still while you gaze into her eyes, that's diplomacy. But, if you tell her that her face would stop a clock, you are in for it."

Miss Barnes—(to Frances Dobbs) "Francis, did you ever see the Cat-skill mountains?"

Francis (proud of herself)—"No, but I've seen them kill mice."
