KINTON HAPPENINGS

By Mrs. E. L. Cox

It is rumored that one of our popular young men is to become a benedict come time in the near future. One of our well known young ladies has been chosen as the little bird to move into a nice new home which is nearly ready for occupancy. The young lady is wearing a diamond ring on the right finger of her left hand, which divulged the secret.

WILD MAN'S BLUFF

Ho! Mr. Zula Chief!

You who kept the jungle in terror with your club and knife!

Come here! We are going to scrub you and shave you. Then dress you and teach you. And into your hands, red with the blood of many a hapless victim, we will put the white man's pen and you will write the songs of civilization.

Then on a day the great God, your maker, will call you hence. There you stand, a naked shivering soul to face your record of murder and carnage.

What shall it profit a jungle man if he gain all of civilization and lose his own soul? Jungle man or white man, "Blessed are they whose iniquities are forgiven, and whose sins are covered. Blessed is the man to whom the Lord will not impute sin."

Now settle it—

Take your stand on God's own word that Christ's death for your sins clears you. Then the Good Book for your new marching orders and prayer for the power to go ahead on the upward path.

SUMMONS

In The Circuit Court Of The State Of Oregon For The County Of Washington.

Walter Johnson, Plaintiff vs. Elinor Wiberg, also known as Elinor Johnson and Elinor Masor and Mrs. James Mason, Defendant.

TO: Elinor Wiberg, also known as Elinor Johnson and Elinor Masor and Mrs. James Mason, Defendant:

In the name of the State of Oregon, you are hereby commanded and required to appear and answer the complaint filed against you in the above entitled court and suit on or before June 15th, 1933, which is more than four weeks after the date of the first publication of this summons, which said publication hereof is of the date of May 4th, 1933, and if you fail to answer, or in some manner plead to said complaint, for want thereof the plaintiff will take a decree against you in accordance therewith, to-wit: For a decree whereby it will be decreed that the plaintiff is the owner in fee simple of the following described real property in Washington County, Oregon:

All of Lot numbered Ten (10) in Fruitland Lands, containing Ten (10) acres according to the duly recorded maps and plats thereof, on file and on record in the office of the Recorder of Conveyances for Washington County, Oregon.

And that the defendant has no interest whatever in said land; and also that the defendant be forever debarred from asserting any claim whatever to said premises adverse to the plaintiff, and that the Court decree that whatever title the said defendant may have heretofore had, if any, she held in trust for the benefit of the plaintiff, and for such other relief as to this Court may seem just.

Service of this summons is made upon you by publication thereof, pursuant to an order of Honorable George R. Bagley, Judge of the

COURTS OKAY "SHORTS"

If Chicago girls want to play tennis in the new "shorts," polo shirt, shoes and a smile, it's okay with Chicago courts, they have declared in a decision restraining park officials from interfering with players in such a costume. The court ruling coincides with informal opinions expressed by physicians and tennis champions. Left: Jolita Macready of Chicago wearing the costume which started the latest battle around what is this and that in the matter of women's apparel or lack of apparel. Upper right: Mrs. Dorothy Weiss Hack, Western Women's Tennis Champion and wife of the color guard bassman, who thinks the new costume "sensible" and predicts that if some ranking player would adopt it, it would sweep the country quickly becoming a recognized institution frowned upon no more than the present day abbreviated bathing suit. Lower right: Dr. William Muhlborg, vice-president and medical director of Union Central Life Insurance Company, who sees in the costume an opportunity for girls to acquire more of the valuable Vitamin D from the added skin surface exposed to the sun's health giving rays. He declares girls need the benefits of summer sun even more than men because, up to 35, they must change less easily.
