He was married on November 7, 1879, to Isabelle McRae in Sacramento, Calif.

He is survived by his wife, Isabelle, and six children: Mrs. Charles Edmondson and Mrs. V. L. Hamlin of Portland, and Mrs. F. S. Grummon, Jr., of Berkeley, California, Arthur, Dan and William at Portland, Route two.

Funeral services were held Tuesday morning, June 6, at St. Cecilia church with interment at Mt. Calvary cemetery.

COME AWAY DOWN

Listen, Mr. Chance-It! You say you are not good enough to take on the old-time religion. Is anyone good enough?

The people who get the blessing know they are not good at all. You must come away down and confess yourself a sinner and lost.

For:— "I came not to call the righteous but sinners to repentance," says Christ. It is a great hour when you wake up to it that you are not ready to face the sins of a lifetime at the judgment throne of God. Now settle it—

Take your stand on God's own word that Christ's death for your sins clears you. Then the Eternal Word, the Bible, for your new marching orders and prayer for the power to go ahead through life to the Glory Land: Old Time Religion, Route 2, Beaverton, Ore.
