This message will bring to light and your attention the major way in which Christians are in slavery. How difficult it is to apply the teaching of Christ to the deep spiritual aspect of inner life. An age of materialism has made its impression in the religious life and thinking of the day. We can exist on materialism. There is no food for soul life. Man is more than flesh therefore his life must draw its supply from an invisible world. To cut this off will result in death more tragic than physical extinction. You will enjoy this message. A cordial welcome awaits you.
