CHURCH ANNOUNCEMENTS

Kinton Church

Sixty-one attended Sunday school last Sunday. The enrollment is 61 for the quarter, and the average has been unusually good. There were a number of former members of the school present Sunday.

Methodist Church

George F. Gordon, Pastor

The hour for worship has been changed from eight o'clock P. M. to nine o'clock A. M. Our plan is to hold a fifty minute service and follow this with Sunday school. This is a decided change in the usual hour for service, and we are hoping that our people will rally and co-operate.

The service must commence promptly as we leave immediately following for Wilsonville. With many the nine o'clock hour should be advantageous. Others may find it a little difficult to be on hand at that hour.

Nazarene Church

Rev. Willard P. Andersen, Pastor

We are glad for the spirit of revival now in progress at the church. We had planned a tent meeting, but the Lord is graciously meeting with us in the church. Rev. E. E. Wordsworth, the evangelist, is a man of humble dependance upon God. His messages are soul stirring, and filled with scripture teaching. If you hear him once, you will want to hear him again. Services every night except Saturday at eight o'clock.

Mr. Clarke has returned from a three weeks sojourn in California and will occupy his pulpit next Sunday morning, preaching on the topic "The Castle of Vanished Splendor". Bible school meets at 9:45. There will be no evening services. A cordial invitation is extended to you at all our gatherings.

Church Of Christ

Rev. G. W. Springer

Our Church has not known a "summer slump" this year, but thus far attendance has held well above the average for the entire year. There were 103 in Sunday school last Sunday, the young people's society was large and the attendance at the evening service was good. Prayer meeting attendance has averaged between 25 and 30 all during the summer. We are looking forward expectantly to the fall months.

Two young men accepted Christ as their personal Saviour last Sunday morning and were obedient to him in Christian baptism at the (Continued on Back Page)
