KINTON HAPPENINGS

By Mrs. E. L. Cox

Miss Mableanna Gembella and Robert Richards spent last week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Williams of Clackamas.

Last Tuesday was the hottest day of the season. The thermometer reached the 102 degree mark in all the places around here.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. McCracken and Mr. and Mrs. Lytle from Ashland were guests Thursday and Friday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. VanKleek.

Mrs. Jake Faix had her tonsils removed last Thursday by Dr. Mason of Beaverton. Mrs. Faix is getting along very well at her home on Tile Flat road.

Mr. and Mrs. Chris Enabnit and son of Park Rose were visitors on Thursday at the home of Mrs. Enabnit's parents, Mr. and Mrs. August H. Dallmann.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Bierly and family and Misses Grace and Blanche McCormick spent part of the day Sunday on board the U.S.S. Constitution in Portland.

Joseph Wenzel returned home Saturday from a two weeks' trip in Canada, where he visited many places of interest. Mr. Wenzel will teach the Helvetia school again this year.

Mr. and Mrs. George Spender and son of Lone, Oregon, spent Saturday and Sunday in town. They attended the Snider family reunion held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Snider Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Cox entertained a few friends at their home Wednesday evening in honor of Mrs. Cox's birthday. Ice cream and cake were served, the cake being presented to Mrs. Cox by Mrs. Sarah VanKleek of Hiteon.

The Snider family reunion was held last Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Snider. Many of the family were present, some from Beaverton, Portland, and the state of Oregon. Forty-two were present. A big family dinner was served at noon.

The board of directors of the Kinton school have decided to commence the fall term of school, Monday, September 18. The instructors for the term will be: Miss Helen Schneider of Portland, principal, and Mrs. Melvin Vandermost, teacher of the primary grades.

Mrs. Mary Kershaw of Portland, formerly of Mrs. Lilly Bierly last Thursday, will make a visit with her many friends around town Mrs. Kershaw and family resided for many years on what is now the W. C. Hall place.

Most of the men in the community have been busy during the past week, working in the numerous treeing outfits. As usual there are a number in the field. They are as follows: A. B. Flint, Hesse Brothers & Co., J. J. Van Kleek, Charles Hemrich, Hansen Bros., Conrad Algesheime, and Jake Faix.

Mrs. Mary Kershaw of Portland, a former member of the Kinton church and Sunday school, and who held different offices having been superintendent, secretary and treasurer while connected with the church work, was present at the services Sunday, and made some interesting remarks. All were glad to welcome Mrs. Kershaw.

Mrs. Lilly M. Bierly had the building which was formerly her home, and occupied by the Bierly family until the new one was built, torn down last week. It was built 42 years ago. For the past number of years it was used as a shed, washroom, etc. Mrs. Bierly is now to have a new shed erected. Her son, Floyd Bierly, and E. L. Cox will do the carpenter work.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles VanKleek and Mrs. E. L. Cox represented the Kinton grade at the Pomona picnic held at Rippling Waters Sunday. Mrs. Cox also spent part of the day at the Washington county Odd Fellow and Rebekah picnic at the same place, being a member of Ruby Rebekah lodge of Scholla. Mrs. Cox was presented a beautiful water set for being the Rebekah oldest in membership, having been a member 43 years.
