MANY BROKEN BONES IN WEEK

Falls From Trees, Dog Fights and Horseback Riding Responsible.

According to Dr. Mason there has been an epidemic of broken bones in Beaverton during the past week, most of the sufferers being small boys. Two of the casualties, however, were caused by dog bites, the sufferers being Elmer Schlottman of Elmonica and the small son of S. H. Bechen. Mr. Schlottman was severely bitten on the wrist when he attempted to separate two dogs which were engaged in fighting.

Nail Dennis, 6 years old, fell from an apple tree and fractured his right arm near the shoulder. It was necessary to take him to the hospital for treatment.

Lawrence Lehman, son of John Lehman, fell from a horse and broke his right leg above the ankle.

A small son of Stephen Shonk is suffering from a broken right arm. The bone was fractured above the wrist when he fell from the back porch at his home.

Donald Siddens broke his arm at the elbow when he fell from a bicycle.

Ralph Nielsen, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Nielsen of Aloha, fell from a box car and broke his arm at the wrist. Arthur Presten, assisting Sanford Rogers in carpenter work, almost severed the thumb from his left hand with a small ax.

A. L. Gunther was quite severely injured about his leg when his team of horses ran away. He was working on the farm of Conrad Algesheimer.

Birthday Party Enjoyed.

Mrs. T. B. Denney entertained with a birthday party at her home Saturday afternoon in honor of her little niece, Mary Frances Downing's, twelfth birthday.

The afternoon was made merry with numerous lively games, after which delicious refreshments and a gayly lighted cake were much enjoyed. Those present were Mary Frances Downing, Wanda Brown, Eleanor Culter, Ruth Ellen and Roberta Hartley of Vancouver, Wash., Joyce Kellington, Mary Alys, Dolores Tuttle, Lorraine Olsen and Lorraine Denney.
