SCOUT NEWS

The 10 scouts at the Anniversary meeting had the advantage over other scouts of seeing exactly where the scout troop stands. The senior patrol leader read a list of comparative attendance and cue payments. Mention was made of a 5-year hiking and camping award requiring 90 per cent perfect hike attendance. Only three scouts have this percentage as yet.

The advancement chart showed a graph representing the number of merit badges and awards in the troop. In January there were 64 awards, and at the end of August, by an addition of 58 merit badges and 6 ranks, the total was just doubled—128 awards.

Mr. Fordney spoke to the scouts on preparation and uses of leather. This Friday evening there will be an overnight hike. Scouts should be ready to leave the assistant scoutmaster's place by 5:45, and should bring food for two or three meals.

METHODIST CHURCH

George F. Gordon, Minister
The sermon subject at the 9 o'clock service Sunday will be "Affirmations." Most people live by denials. Job says "Thou shalt also affirm a thing and it shall be established unto thee." This is accepted only in part by many Christians. "What thing soever ye desire, when ye pray, believe that ye receive them, and ye shall have them." When we actually accept this teaching the Christian religion will mean more to us. To affirm anything is to assert positively that it is so. This belief overcomes every spiritual and mental perplexity and will open up spiritual facts to the place of understanding.

Our big task is not to adjust God to our liking, for we can not drive a hard-headed bargain with Him. What we do is actually adjust our lives and thinking to God. We often hear it said that prayer changes things. In reality prayer changes us and then things take on a new form and value.

If you are interested in this subject come to our church at 9 o'clock. You will be greatly benefited.

CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH.

Rev. Charles F. Clarke, Pastor.
Homecoming Sunday will be observed next Sunday. This means that we are anxious to have all the departments of the church largely attended and functioning fully. We hope the choir will sing at both services. At 11 A. M. the pastor will take as his subject: "The Church that Holds the Keys," and at P. M. his topic will be "The Boy Who Fell Asleep During the Sermon." You may be more interested in the boy than in the sermon, but come anyway. The Ladies' Aid society will hold its first meeting of the fall at the church Thursday at 11 o'clock. This will be a very delightful get-together and is important, as winter plans will be discussed. Basket luncheon.

CHURCH OF CHRIST.

Rev. G. W. Springer, Pastor.
Vacation over, we are looking forward expectantly to fall and winter months for an increased attendance and a spiritual enthusiasm.
Sunday school begins at 9:45. The morning worship is at 11 o'clock. The sermon topic will be "Christ's Earthly Career Foretold in Prophecy." Christian Endeavor is at 7 o'clock sharp and the evening service begins at 8 o'clock. The topic of the evening sermon is "Five Precious Things Mentioned in the Old Testament."

COLLEGE MAN THINKS THROUGH

This is the way one student settled the big question:
It was over on the coast of a Sunday night. The little church on the mountain side above the ocean was alight. The high schoolers and a bit older made most of the crowd.
On the blackboard, with a piece of chalk the old, old story of life or death; of time and eternity; of sin and repentance was unfolded, out of the Bible passage. "All we like sheep have gone astray; we have turned every one to his own way; and the Lord hath laid on Him—the iniquity of us all."

For half an hour the appeal had been made to the eye, to the mind and to the soul. Now what of the will? What would these young folk do about it? The university man—a junior year—seemed not a bit moved. But, nevertheless, three days later he came to the pastor with the request to be received by baptism, on confession of Christ as his Lord and Saviour. "I can't get away from the text on that blackboard Sunday night," he said.
"Yes, verily, the Lord laid on him the sins of us all—Rev. George N. Taylor, Beaverton, Or. —Adv.

Common Alfalfa Dead; Grimm Stays.

A large bare brown spot in the middle of a 40-acre alfalfa field on the Jack O'Keefe farm at Adel, near Lakeview, visible from all parts of the valley, was causing considerable question and comment until inquiry brought out the fact that Mr. O'Keefe was planting the field to Grimm alfalfa, but ran out of Grimm seed and completed the seeding with Surprise valley common alfalfa. The common alfalfa froze out last winter, leaving the bare patch in the middle of a fine field of Grimm alfalfa.
