Fancy Breads Are Quick to Make, Quick to Bake, Quick to Disappear. Plain bread may be "the staff of life" but fancy bread is the gold knob on the end of it! The words "home made bread" are magic ones that conjure up thoughts of warm fragrance and delectable flavors, and although modern matrons rely on the baker to keep the bread box filled with the everyday supply, they continue to make the extra-special kinds themselves!

Most of the fancy breads are "quick ones," which means they are quick to make, quick to bake, and quick to disappear as soon as they hit the plates of the open-jawed family! There are four kinds of quick bread: those made with "pour batter," "drop batter," a soft dough or a stiff dough. The pour batter is most generally used, while the stiff dough is seldom employed. As opposed to the yeast or "light" breads, the quick variety is made with baking powder or some form of leaven which acts quickly.

Definitions of Types of Quick Bread
Rolls are properly made with yeast but the term is also applied to quick breads made with dough. Biscuits are made of dough thick enough to roll, or a stiff batter; they are usually made without eggs. Muffins are usually made with a thin pour batter and often contain egg. Gems is a term used for various types of muffins; it originally referred to the special long narrow shape. Popovers are a special pour mixture, scones a special biscuit, and buns are usually made like rolls although some biscuits are called buns. Under any name all are a delicious addition to any meal—and the very acme of home sweet home!

Unless otherwise specified, hard wheat or bread flour is recommended for quick breads. A liquid shortening is used in almost every recipe, and it will be found that a smooth cool oil gives excellent results and makes unnecessary the work of melting the shortening.

West Indies Muffins

- 1 cup bran
- 1 cup sour milk
- 2 tbsps. shortening
- 4 tbsps. sugar

- 1 egg
 - 1 1/2 cups flour
 - 1/2 teasp. soda
 - 1 tsp. baking powder
 - 1/4 tsp. salt
 - 1 tsp. cinnamon
 - 1/4 cup banana cut very fine
- Soak bran in sour milk. Cream together the shortening and sugar. Add egg and beat well. Mix and sift flour, soda, baking powder, salt and cinnamon, and beat into creamed mixture alternately with soaked bran. Now fold in bananas and pour into greased muffin tins. Bake in moderately hot oven (400 degrees F.) about 25 to 30 minutes.

Caramel Cinnamon Buns

- 3 cups flour
- 6 tbsps. baking powder
- 4 tbsps. shortening
- 1/2 cup cold water, or more
- 1 egg or 2 egg yolks
- 2/3 cup currants or small raisins
- Grated maple or brown sugar
- 2 tbsps. sugar
- 1 tsp. salt
- Soft butter
- Cinnamon

Sift flour, sugar, baking powder and salt together; add shortening. Beat egg slightly in measuring cup and add water. Mix liquid with dry ingredients to make a soft dough. Turn out dough on floured board and knead lightly to smooth the dough. Roll 1/4 inch thick. Spread with butter, cover with fruit; sprinkle with sugar and cinnamon. Roll up dough like jelly roll and cut off pieces 2 inches thick. Melt 4 tablespoons butter in a heavy skillet, add 1/2 cup maple corn syrup. Place biscuits, cut side up, in the prepared pan. Bake in moderate oven (40-425° F.) 35 mins.

Date Peanut Biscuit

- 2 cups flour
- 4 tbsps. baking powder
- 1/2 tsp. salt
- 1 tbsps. sugar
- 4 tbsps. shortening
- 2/3 cup milk
- 1/3 cup dates
- 4 tbsps. peanut butter
- 1 egg yolk

Sift flour, baking powder, salt and sugar. Work in shortening with finger tips or fork. Stirring with a knife, add milk to form soft dough. Toss dough on lightly floured board and roll out to thickness

ONION STRIKER ON GUARD—Strike breakers trying to interfere with Miss Floyd Collins, friend of Okay O'Dell, leader of the onion workers strike at McGuffey, Ohio, are warned they'll get something stronger than onions!

SCHOLAR SHIP WARRIORS—W. A. Fisher (right), president of the Fisher Body Craftsman's Guild, presented each of these four boys a $5,000 university scholarship for building the most perfect miniature models of a Napoleonic coach. The boys, who received their awards at the Guild convention in Chicago, are: Left to right, Bartholomew Mandel, Detroit, Mich.; Robert H. Hellman, Indianapolis, Ind.; Franklin S. Atwater, New Britain, Conn.; and Frank F. Hines, Blacksburg, West Virginia.

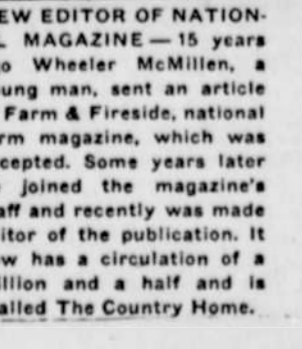

"MEET ME AT" In 1893 World's Columbian Exposition visitors met at the Ferris Wheel. At A Century of Progress, 1933-34, also in Chicago, the favorite meeting place is the Havoline Thermometer because it can be seen from any point in the grounds and because it is centrally located.

NEW EDITOR OF NATIONAL MAGAZINE—15 years ago Wheeler McMillen, a young man, sent an article to Farm & Fireside, national farm magazine, which was accepted. Some years later he joined the magazine's staff and recently was made editor of the publication. It now has a circulation of a million and a half and is called The Country Home.

MODERN GAS RANGES GIVE YOU ALL THESE:
INSULATED AND VENTILATED OVENS | TIME CONTROL | SWAY-LESS GUIDING BROTHERS
COUNTERBALANCED OVEN DOORS | TEMPERATURE CONTROL | AUTOMATIC LIGHTING | NON-TIPPABLE SHELVES | PORCELAIN ENAMEL FINISH
Available in Console, Table-top and Other Styles

Jane, that new GAS RANGE makes your kitchen look like a magazine illustration!

Modern gas ranges virtually look "too good to be true". Their beauty is startling—yet lasting—for it is the result of skillful styling, precise craftsmanship and lovely, colorful enamel finishes. However, these ranges are not all "face value". They contain the same advantages that have always made gas better for cooking; namely, an unlimited variety of temperatures, instant heat, and economy of operation. Supplementing these advantages are all the modern conveniences necessary to make cooking effortless and enjoyable. See the list above... These reasons and many more suggest that you inspect the new gas ranges first. Why not plan to visit the Portland Gas & Coke Company's showrooms? Or visit your dealer's and let him explain the new features and terms of purchase?
