High School Notes

A short pep meeting of the Student Body was held Friday as a send-off for the team. Each class made up a rooting section competing against the others in producing the most volume. From Milwaukie, which has a Student Body, twice as large as our own, the Beaverton team won a victory of 6-0. This Friday, October 12, Beaverton plays the Banks team at Banks.

About 200 Freshmen and Sophomores came in masquerade costumes to the reception last Friday evening. They came portraying Spaniards, gypsies, pirates, sailors, ladies of yesterday, old men, clowns, little "kids" and many other types of people. Miss Schaefer in a colonial gown and Miss Funk in a gypsy garb led the games. The entertainment consisted of a program and games in the gymnasium followed by refreshments in the cafeteria.

The old members of the Torch Honor Society met Tuesday to elect officers. Last year's President, Ellis Nylund was chosen. John Staehle was elected Vice President, and Vera Jacobson was selected as Secretary-Treasurer of the organization.

Friday, October 19th is to be the date of the initiation for new members. The President chose various committees to carry out the plans.

Those who are to select a place for the initiation ceremonies are: Evelyn Alexander, Mildred Twohy, and Delbert Burke; initiation committee: Markey Sayre, Jean Lewis and David Mason; entertainment committee, Carl Cornils, Vera Jacobson, and Aline Boswell; refreshment committee, Jeanne Tuttle, June Pollard, and Gertrude Des Brisay.

All students eligible for the Torch Honor Society are urged by Miss Schaefer, adviser, to apply at once to Torch Honor headquarters in room 10.

To be eligible for membership a student is required to have earned 24 points at the end of his Freshman year, 50 points at the end of his Sophomore year and 80 points by the end of his Junior year. An "A" grade counts 4 points, a "B" grade counts 3 points, a "C" grade deducts 1 point, and a "D" grade deducts 2 points. Major activities count 2 points and minor activities 1 point.

This is the first year that Beaverton High School has required, that new members of the Torch Society hand in their applications.

The 2nd year Public Speaking class has been having tri-outs for a play, "My Turn Next", which will be presented some time in the near future.

The debate on the "Old Age Pension" given last Wednesday by the first year class was won by the affirmative, Warren Haley and Raymond Rugland. This week Agda Mattson and Aletha Hulet gave very interesting speeches on experiences.
