Silently Passing

MRS. SUSAN B. CLEMENT

Mrs. Susan B. Clement, 84, was born at Honey Creek, Wis., Feb. 23, 1851. After her marriage to John S. Clement she made her home in Racine, Wis., until 1905, when with her family she came to Beaverton, where they made their home permanently.

Since the death of her husband several years ago, Mrs. Clement has made her home with her daughter, Miss Alice Clement, at McMinville, where she passed away suddenly at noon, Wednesday, Mar. twentieth.

She is survived by one son, A. B. Clement of Beaverton, two daughters, Mrs. C. E. Mason of Beaverton and Miss Alice Clement of McMinville; seven grandsons; one grand daughter, and two sisters, Mrs. Herbert Adams, DuBuque, Iowa, and Mrs. W. A. Newell, Salisbury, N. C.

Funeral services will be held at the local Congregational church, Friday at 2 p.m., with interment at Riverview Cemetery. W. E. Poeg will be in charge of arrangements.

MARIAN LEWIS HONORED AT PARTY

A happy St. Patrick's birthday party was held at the home of A. M. Boner, Saturday evening, with Vivian Finch as hostess and Marian Lewis as honor guest, as it was her birthday. Some 15 guests of the younger set were present. Cards and dancing were the diversion of the evening.

High School Notes

A number of students of Beaverton High school held a meeting this week in which they discussed at length the probability of introducing tennis as a scholastic activity. Those present were: Donald Short, Allen Springle, Delbert Burke, Bill Woods, John Mason, Gene Brown, Harold Peterson, Bob Engelke, James Miller, Neal Jackson, Amie Thyng, Lois Russell, Virginia

Crundall, Betty Altshin, Betty Alberta, Grace Miller, Mildred Twoby, and Carolyn Peterson.

Forest Grove students are also interested in this line.

A new modern library is greeting the eyes of the students at the high school this year. Several new features of interest are available for the students. A large number of new books have been secured, among which are the following: "Elizabeth and Essex" by Lytton Strachey; "100,000,000 Guinea Pigs", Kallet and Schlink; "Uncle Sam's Attie", Mary Lee Davis; "Beneath Tropic Seas", William Beebe; "Franklin D. Roosevelt, Man of Action", Lowitz and Anson; "Skyward", Richard E. Byrd; "Skin Deep", Phillips; "The Challenge to Liberty", Herbert Hoover; "The World Since 1914", Langsam; The magazines circulating in the library are as follows: Readers' Digest, National Geographic, Occupations, Time, Motor Transportation, Oregon State Monthly, Literary Digest, Saturday Evening Post, Sports Afield, Open Road for Boys, Social Studies, and Popular Science.

An average of 70 to 75 students use the library daily which is in charge of the following girls during the day: first period, Jean Lewis; second, Chloe Gee; third, Mildred Twoby; fourth, Evelyn Alexander; fifth, Vera Jacobson; and sixth, Edna Blanken.

Beaverton High school debating teams met West Linn High teams at Tigard, Tuesday afternoon to debate for the Northern Willamette district championship. The local debaters were awarded the decision, which entitles them to debate the winners of the Columbia River district, at a later date.

These students debated the state question, "Resolved that the Federal Government should adopt the policy of equalizing educational opportunity throughout the nation by means of annual grants to the several states for public elementary and secondary education."

Those participating from here were Aline Boswell and Donald Walker, negative; and Mildred Twoby and Delbert Burke, affirmative.

The first year Public Speaking students spent their class period, Wednesday in an interesting way, by giving a mock banquet attended by many distinguished guests who were portrayed by a number of the students. These guests were as follows: President Franklin D. Roosevelt, Markey Sayre; Mrs. Franklin Roosevelt, Agda Matson, Al Smith, Francis Holboke; George Bernard Shaw, Raymond Rugland; Miss Frances Perkins, Katherine Denney; Huey Long, Kenneth Walde, Alda Lehman was the toast mistress.

The Torch Honor Society of Beaverton High held a special meeting Wednesday afternoon. After a short business period, Dr. J. R. Talbert spoke to the students on old coins and displayed to them a number of his coin collections. The meeting proved very interesting.

The Powder Puff Minstrel given last Friday night, was well attended. Alda Lehman, as interlocutor, had the leading part.

M. W. Manning, Jay Gibson, and W. E. McCloskey have been appointed to appraise City owned land.
