1935 Class Has Job

Dear Graduates: You now step out into a world that is all at sixes and sevens and fast growing worse, say David Lloyd George and other statesmen and thinkers. Many are fixing their hope on you, the youth of the world. You to step in, avert the crash, turn things about and rebuild it all. The danger is that you are stripped and helpless before you begin; sold out by the enemy of your souls. A gruesome picture that ought not to be set down in print lest it take the heart out of you, some tell us.

1st—A viper, state liquor. For on one hand teachers and taxpayers have done their best for you and on the other hand the state holds forth the death-cup and bids you drink it, since state liquor must have boys and girls to fatten on. Penitentiary, insane asylum, and the gallows for many a 1935 graduate over the land.

And again—our present week-end that leaves out Bible and the worship that fits a man to face the storms of life. By leaving God out and doing as we please, vast numbers of us grown-ups have lost our moral fibre. So flabby have we become, that we refuse to stand up and be counted, if to stand for the right means to suffer loss of pleasure, profit or ease. Too busy, we are, for God's Day; God's Book or God's Christ as Saviour.

Does this setting forth of the truth set you against us? Then hear the Bible itself. It says that what is now unfolding marks the end of the age with chaos and the close of the present world-system at hand.

Now among our 1935ers are many of the Saved-By-Christ's-Blood. To you we urge, take time to be holy, for—"You also as living stones are built up a spiritual house, a holy priesthood, to offer up spiritual sacrifices, acceptable to God by Jesus Christ." 1 Peter 2:5.

MARY MARTHA SAYS: 'OUR CHILDREN? YES?'

You may well spare time for this vital need, For no flowers will bloom in his memory garden, Unless in his childhood you sow the seed.

O, dear mothers-of-men-to-be, let us carry this great privilege gladly, gloriously, and count ourselves blessed that we have been granted the use of such far-reaching opportunities. Let us study, seek for greater love and understanding, wider charity, deeper sympathy, for though we have no right to force these children into paths for which they are not fitted, yet we can set for them standards of right by our own conduct which will point the way to high endeavor, which will lead them toward days of peace and happiness, and help them by our own understanding to "hold fast to that which is good". Thus we may guide them by the good which we have built into our own lives; farther than this we cannot go, for as the Syrian poet, whom I so often quote to you, says in his poem on children:

"You may give them your love but not your thoughts, For they have their own thoughts. You may house their bodies but not their souls, For their souls dwell in the house of tomorrow, Which you cannot visit, not even in dreams. You may strive to be like them, but seek not to make them like you, For life goes not backward nor tarries with yesterday." Have I spoken of aught that will

The Reedville church is holding an all day meeting on Sunday, May 26th, at the church. Outside guest speakers are occupying the pulpit at 10 and 11 a.m. There will be a picnic dinner on the grounds, followed by another sermon at 3:00 p.m. All are invited to attend.
