A HANDY grease gun for your transmission or differential can easily be made from an old tire pump. Cut the barrel down to a convenient length. Whittle a round wooden plug to fit the barrel. Drill a hole in the center of the plug, insert a short length of brass tubing, and force the plug into place in the barrel. Internal suction of the pump plunger will draw in the grease.

A blowtorch will usually loosen nuts that cannot be loosened with a wrench or by soaking with kerosene. If the flame is directed on the nut for a few minutes the nut will expand away from the bolt. When working on the heated nut be sure to use a tight-fitting wrench, so as not to damage the hot metal.

To Be Caught UP

Right on through good times and depression, you married men never quit; you still go on planning and working and giving yourself to the big job of making the girl of the honeymoon days the happy wife of your fireside.

Takes us back to that first Lover and His Bride—"Married men love your wives, even as Christ also loved the church—the Bride—and gave Himself to die for her" means Ephesians 5:25. The true church, the Bride, all who have been born again through faith in Jesus Christ. These born-again ones are all about us, right here, and next door; in the work but not of it. Strangers and pilgrims on the earth with buying and selling a sideline to pay expenses, so the Bible sees them. Just one big job for them, even to go over land and sea and deliver the Message—"God had a Son and He died for your sins." And if they lose sight of that one big central thing and settle down in the world to enjoy the world, they lose their power to save souls.

And what is the destiny of the true church? The Bible tells it. "Our citizenship is in heaven; from whence we wait also for a Saviour, the Lord Jesus Christ; who shall fashion anew the body of our humiliation, that it may be conformed to the body of His glory." Phil. 3:20-21. Behold the Bridegroom comes. He comes when the true church has seen the last call brought in to finish the roll-call of the redeemed. Then her mission ended, she will be caught up—"So shall we ever be with the Lord."

"I Never Read The Advertisements"

You know this man. He thinks he is telling the truth, but — quiz him about the make of his car, shirt, shoes etc. They are all advertised. He must read the advertisements to keep from picking blindly and inaccurately. They are an integral part of his life.

The important thing is to read ALL the advertisements. The last one may contain the very information you need.
