Back-Track, Mr. President

Dear President Roosevelt:

It is not often that we pulp men get a letter done on White House paper and signed by the President himself. So comes your note to us preachers and you ask what might be done to give us all more well-being.

First, Mr. President, back-track. Undo what is an offense to a vast number of our God-fearing people. We speak of your having given the right hand of fellowship to God-hating Russia. This we deplore. "In God We Trust," reads the motto on our coin. The headmen of Russia say that God must not be trusted, but dethroned. Hear their words—"We have deposed the emperors of the earth; we shall now dethrone the Lord of heaven."—Stalin. And—"Every religion is opium for the people a means for stupefying the laborer. Therefore we are against every religion."—Boskovnik. And—"This battle must be waged against God, be he called Jehovah, Jesus, Buddha or Allah."—Stoffanoff. So her leaders speak—

Back-track, Mr. President. Win the favor of the great God from whom all blessings flow, rather than doubtful trade advantages with the nation whose avowed aim it is to dethrone the God of heaven and sweep away what liberty our people still enjoy. Uncle Sam opening his arms to Russia and expecting God's blessing. It just don't make sense, Mr. President.

And lastly, Mr. President, as Russia strikes at our God she strikes at our Christ. Sweep out Christ the Saviour of mankind and all your Social Security is gone. Back-track Mr. President and set us right with the God of our salvation.

Geo. N. Taylor, Beaverton, Oregon.

Roseburg with her household goods with the intention of living near her son in the house she built several years ago. All are glad to welcome her back to the neighborhood.

TIGARD VOTERS TO BALLOT ON BONDS

Tuesday, October 22, the Tigard Union high school will hold another election on the question of voting $25,000 bonds to build additional class rooms and a gym. The construction would be by WPA labor and the government is believed willing to furnish an equal amount of money to finance a $50,000 building.

A previous vote defeated the proposal by only a few votes. (Editor's note: We are wondering just how much effect the Beaverton Enterprise editor, who also prints the Tigard Sentinel, had on the result of the election. And if the same people are going to get in and fight the issue with the same tactics they used against the proposal to build a grade school for Beaverton.)
