HUMOR

Hairdressers, a Chicago dispatch informs us, complain that "ordinary barbers in the Midwest are calling themselves hairdressers, to the great detriment of the advanced profession."

Reminds us of the late Judge Joseph Quinn of the Massachusetts Superior Court. In his court one day the district attorney, questioning a witness, asked, "You are a barber, aren't you?" The witness replied pompously, "I am a tonsorial artist." "Well, now," said Judge Quinn, "isn't that splitting hairs?"

An American playwright noticed her colored maid pause in her cleaning of the apartment to pick up the manuscript of a new and very unsold play. The girl read for a minute and then broke into hilarious laughter. Naturally much pleased, the playwright asked what passage had struck her as so funny.

"No passage at all, missy, no passage at all," replied the domestic. "It just don't take much to make me laugh."

The wife of an usher, suddenly remembering that she had left her Sunday roast in the oven, hastily wrote a note to her husband and gave it to another usher to hand to him. He, however, mistook it for a note to the minister, who was in the middle of his sermon.

Thinking it was an important announcement, the minister unfolded the note and read aloud: "Please go home and turn off the gas."

A QUICK RELIEF FOR ATONIC INDIGESTION

Do you feel run-down, sluggish without appetite for food or zest for living? Many people do because of atonic indigestion and poisons in their systems which might easily be relieved by a good mild laxative, tonic, mild stomachic stimulant and diuretic stimulant for the kidneys. In such cases take a few doses of Williams S. L. K. Formula. The first bottle must give relief or money back. Williams S. L. K. Formula is compounded from the prescription of a former army doctor who used it in private practice many years. Now this valuable medicine is available to you at a cost of only a few cents a day. Try a bottle under money-back guarantee and see how much better you feel. Being a liquid—already dissolved—Williams S. L. K. Formula starts to work almost immediately. Ask your druggist.—Paid adv. University Grad Gets Life

Ten business men held the platform at the Mission on the recent night when a Portland professional man was converted; a University of Michigan man.

The ten closed their hour of song, testimony, prayer and Bible by going down among the men for close-up work. They located two seekers and in the prayer room the two came on into salvation; one of them this U. of M. man.

"I had a breakdown brought on by too much liquor and went home to the old folks to build up," this one said. "I found that they had in their Christ a peace and assurance that I lacked and I came to want K as I saw what it meant to them." So, coming home, men saw a Light in the faces of the old parents and as a trained thinker, reasoning down into the why's and wherefores, he became persuaded that the Light in their faces reflected a Life in their hearts.

Back to the city next and for ten nights he visited the Mission. No, not "Ten Nights in a Bar-Room" now, but ten nights in the Mission. And there the man came on into the Life and Light himself.

The first act after the decision was to send a note home. That very night it went out and had quick delivery. Then Father, eight, and Mother, seventy-nine, broke into glad praise. After all these years of pleading before the throne of the great God who cannot deny himself, the two came over into the glad land of ASK AND YE SHALL RECEIVE.

Next night after he came to the Lord, our man was back and had his part in the testimonies. Later he sketched the chapters that led to the decision giving first credit to what he saw in father and mother. So you have it—the shock that threatened his life; the peace and joy of the old folks; the ten men whom to live is Christ; their close-up that located a seeker down in the audience and your own prayers and support that sends the Gospel over land and sea. Come on folks—Pray—Pray—Pray and God Works—Works—Works and the Converts Come—Come—Come.

From Our Readers

Seattle, Wash.

Beaverton Review: Just want to say I called at your office several times before I came up here, but never found you in. And want to tell you it was your ad that sold my piano.

Do not know if you heard of our accident coming to Seattle. We were on this side of Tenino going around 50 miles per hour and a back tire blew out. Jack lost control and the car left the pavement. We turned bottom side up; windows all closed, all the time. I could feel myself being burned. I called to Jack to shut off the car and by this time had found the handle to the door and crawled out. Oil acid and gas were running fast. As people gathered and helped right the car, Jack got his foot caught under the side of running board in righting the car, and crushed the flesh on his right foot badly and now with the aid of crutches is able to be about. Other than that we are all o.k. and like Seattle very much.

Regards to all.

Sincerely,

Mrs. Sprague
