EDITORIAL

"Why Many Country Editors Get Rich Easy"—if that title startles you (and it should), you'll be interested in the article which was reprinted in the Marietta (Minn.) News. "After a great deal of worry and study," the article read, "we have at last figured out why so many country editors get rich. Here is the secret of their success. There is a child born in the neighborhood. The attending physician gets $30. The editor gives the loud-lunged youngster a great send-off, and gets $0. It is christened, the minister gets $5, and the editor $00. It grows and gets married. The editor publishes another long-winded, flowery article, and tells a dozen lies about the beautiful and accomplished bride. The minister gets $10 and a piece of cake. The editor gets $000 and a request to carry on the groom's subscription account another year. In the course of time, she dies. The doctor gets from $5 to $100, the undertaker gets from $5 to $100, the editor publishes a notice of death and an obituary two columns long, lodge resolutions, a lot of poetry and a card of thanks, and gets $0-00. No wonder country editors get rich."

BRIDAL SHOWER IS GIVEN LOIS RUSSELL

The Misses Mary Jane Junor and Ethel Hunt entertained with a miscellaneous bridal shower at the home of Miss Junor at Raleigh, Saturday evening, complimenting Miss Lois Russell, who will become the bride of Clifford Macy, Saturday evening, March 7. Miss Russell is a member of the 1935 graduating class of Beaverton High school. She was the recipient of many beautiful and useful gifts.

Those present were the Misses Vera Jacobson, Jean Lewis, Martha and Alda Lehman, Mildred Twohy, Fay Louise Posson, Barbara Scott, Marian Metzler, the honor guest and hostesses.

KIWANIS DISCUSSES POSSIBLE PROJECTS

This week's meeting of the Kiwanis club was devoted to a discussion of various possibilities for W.-P. A. projects to improve streets and the general appearance of the town, and to furnish a playground for children.

It was decided that all persons interested in free music instruction, either instrumental or vocal, should be invited to attend a meeting Sunday, March 8th, at 12:30 p.m. at the Kiwanis hall to organize a class, or several classes. C. E. Berggren, a well qualified and experienced musician, has been made available as instructor through the W.-P. A. All instruction is absolutely without cost to those interested.

The class will be open to anyone. Persons who wish to take advantage of this opportunity, but find it impossible to attend the meeting Sunday at 12:30 are requested to leave their names with Homer Wilson or Dr. Talbert.

MARVIN STALDER TO MAKE DEBATE TOUR

Plan Campaign Against Pests

Oregon City—A county-wide campaign for the control of destructive birds and animals was planned by representatives of 17 local ranges of Clackamas county who met with County Agent J. J. Inskeep recently to plan a grange agricultural program for the county. The plan includes a contest with prizes for the farm family and the local grange eliminating the greatest number of these pests. Roy Fugate of the U. S. biological survey and Prof. H. M. DuBois of the Oregon Audubon society met with the group and assisted in outlining the campaign.
