

June Bride of '37 Upsets Tradition and Tells Grandma a Thing

Don't pity the bride—imitate her! Don't pine because her lulle veil must be exchanged for kitchen gingham—she'll probably wear shorts! Don't brush up on jokes about bride's leaden biscuits; she turns out feathery ones with a speedy new method. Don't worry over her first meals; all the food purveyors are busy helping to tell her what to serve. And as for her being a butterfly turned moth, put it right in the don't-give-it-a-second-thought department; modern appliances will keep her high flying!

It's hard on the joke makers, this new scheme of things, and it may upset the traditionalists. But granddaughter reverses procedure and now figuratively tells "her grandmother how to raise ducks."

Brides of '37 or brides of '97; all brides that were and brides to be will find something old or new or borrowed to keep the blue on the budget ledger from the recipes following:

Bride's Quick Biscuit

(Good for shortcake too.)
2 cups flour
4 teaspoons baking powder
1 teaspoon salt
1/2 cup shortening
3/4 cup milk
Sift together dry ingredients. Add shortening and milk and mix thoroughly, using enough milk to make soft dough. Remove dough to well floured board and pat until smooth. Cut into rounds and bake in hot oven, 450° F., ten to twelve minutes.

Sautéed Bananas

(To serve for that first dinner.)
One thing every bride should know is the versatility of bananas. In desserts, pies, cakes, salads, muffins, atop cereal, for shortcake—bananas star at every meal! Newest way to serve them is cooked—with the main course as a vegetable. To sauté bananas peel, cut bananas in quarters or lengthwise halves. Heat 1 or 2 tablespoons of butter in frying pan. Fry bananas turning them until brown and tender. Sprinkle with salt if desired. Serve very hot.

Orange Blossoms

(Always in Season.)
2 cups water
1 cup sugar
3 tablespoons lemon juice
2 teaspoons gelatin
3/4 cup orange juice
2 cups whipping cream
2 doz. lady fingers
1/2 lb. marshmallows
1 cup nutmeats
Candied orange peel

Boil sugar and water 20 minutes; dissolve gelatin in cold water; add to boiling sugar and water. Add lemon juice and orange juice and chill for one hour. Beat chilled mixture with wire whisk; add whipped cream to which has been added cut marshmallows and nuts; beat mixture thoroughly. Select mold with straight sides (or use straight-sided pan). Line with waxed paper and arrange lady fingers around edge, rounding side out; place other lady fingers between filling. Chill until thoroughly set. Unmold and decorate top with cut marshmallows and candied orange peel to represent flowers. Cut in wedges to serve.

At-Home Supper Salad

(When Dinner's for Six.)
1 pkg. gelatin
1/4 cup cold water
1/2 cup hot water
1 cup canned grapefruit juice
1/4 teaspoon salt
1/4 cup sugar
12 whole pecan nutmeats
1/2 cup celery, diced
12 stuffed olives, sliced
Pour cold water in bowl; sprinkle gelatin on top. Add salt, sugar and hot water and stir until dissolved. Add canned grapefruit juice. Pour a little of the liquid jelly in individual molds. When thickened slightly, arrange a ring of sliced olives with a pecan in the center on the jelly in molds. When remaining jelly has stiffened, stir in rest of olives and celery and fill molds. Chill until firm. Unmold on lettuce and garnish each salad with mayonnaise and whole pecan nutmeats. Makes six servings.

Meat Cuts and How to Cook Them PORK CHART

Retail Cuts

Wholesale Cuts

Retail Cuts

Pork is a universal favorite. It appears more frequently on the American table than any other meat dish, but there are a good many attractive pork cuts which are passed over by the average homemaker, because she is not acquainted with the possibilities they offer for new and attractive main dishes. The pork chart shown above deserves a place in the household files because it shows at a glance the variety of pork cuts and how to cook them.
