Farm Economic Conference To Be Held

Conference To Be Held In Hillsboro On January 27

Advance Committee Meetings Are Being Held

Meetings of advance committees which are preparing material for the forthcoming Washington county farm economic conference, to be held in Hillsboro, January 27, are resulting in the accumulation of many important facts and figures regarding the present trends and future outlook for agriculture in this county.

The advance work for the conference is being handled through four committees this year, which are considering land use, crop production, livestock production, and farm home and rural life. The material being gathered by these committees will be submitted to the general conference for a full day's consideration, at the conclusion of which reports and recommendations will be adopted.

Similar meetings to the one being held in Washington county are scheduled for every county in the state this winter. These are being sponsored by the extension service at Oregon State college at the request of farmers and farm organizations, in order to review and add to, if necessary, the findings of previous conferences of this nature.

The forthcoming conference is to be a "family affair" emphasizes County Agent Cyrus, the idea being that the future welfare of the farm home is directly dependent on the economic success of the farm itself, and that plans for the farm and home should be made together.

Members of the various committees are as follows: General livestock committee: H. Hagg, D. G. Lilly, R. Hornecker, Frank Erickson, Joe Vanduyke, Pete Yunker, Frank Schulmerich, Frank Mitchell, J. L. Batchelder, Dwight McCue, Oscar Poe, Fred Grossen, A. E. Krahmer, R. G. Scott and Robert Warrens. General Farm Crops Committee: Elmer Guerber, Chester Koble, Loyed Anderson, Perry LaFollette, F. H. Jossey, Jack Crop, A. J. Sewell, John Klans, F. J. Lewis, John F. Kamna, Ferd Putnam, Ferd Lanzer.

Land Use Committee: John W. Kamna, Herman D. Kerkman, Harry D. Schmeltzer, J. M. Vanderzanden, R. Glenn Ritchey, Gus Krause, L. L. Crawford, Richard Wismer, W. T. Putnam, Jr., Oscar Love.

Farm Home and Rural Life Committee: Mrs. Lester Cyphers, Mrs. Hulda Connell, Mrs. E. F. Leming, Mrs. John K. Kamna, Mrs. Pam Patton, Mrs. Charles Nelson, Mrs. Harold Aebischer, Mrs. Leon Davis, Mrs. Ethel Pennington, Mrs. Sam Walters and Mrs. Edna Heinrichs.

BEAVER QUINTET DEFEATS TIGARD

By scoring 26 to their opponents 25, the Beaver quintet defeated their age old basketball rivals Tigard on the Beaverton floor Tuesday night. The contest became anybody's game after the first quarter when Beaverton led 8 to 4.

The game was between the two teams who tied for County Championship last year. The entire gym was packed and during the game excitement ran high as first one team then another would take a one or two point lead.

The leading scorer for the game was Beckman with 12 points while Brown of Beaverton was close behind with 10.

In the opening game of the year the Beaverton "B" squad downed the baby Tigers 17 to 12.

VISITORS LEAVE FOR THEIR HOME

Mr. and Mrs. Rex Denney and little daughter, who have been visiting relatives at Garden Home and Whitford the past few weeks left Friday for their home in Susanville, California where Mr. Denney is engaged in the Forest service. Mrs. Fred Stipe, mother of Mrs. Denney, accompanied them for an indefinite stay.

CORN SHOW HAS WIDE INFLUENCE

(By L. E. Francis, Assistant Co. Agent.)

The approach of the eighth annual Commercial National Bank Corn Show calls to mind the state-wide influence this corn growing project has had in the development of the Corn enterprise, and also the records made by some of the winners in this contest in former years.

In 1926 when the corn growing contest was started by the bank under the direction of W. F. Cyrus, who was then assistant county agent, corn growing in Oregon was in the pioneering stage. A small amount of a superior quality of locally adapted Minnesota 13 seed was distributed to each of the club members enrolled in the contest and from this small beginning, the project has grown until now about twelve tons of first quality seed corn is produced each year by the 4-H members of Washington county. In addition to this local development the Commercial National Bank contest set an example which has resulted in eight Oregon counties sponsoring similar corn growing contests, several of them getting their foundation seed from the Washington county club members.

As a climax of the program to develop the corn growing enterprise in the state, in which the Commercial National Bank's contest has been a major and initial feature, the First National Bank of Portland sponsored last year the state corn show.

At the state corn show the winner in District II was Elmer Bierly of Gervais, who with his two brothers, Ivan and Amos made their start in the corn project in Washington county. From 1930 until 1935, when the Bierlys moved from the county, Ivan won first place in three of the shows and second in two. Amos placed first in one and second in three.

Joe Berger of Beaverton, who placed second in District II in last year's state corn show was the county's first place winner in 1932. In 1935 Lawrence and Gervais Jansen of Verboort placed first and third respectively and in 1936 Clayton Nyberg of Tualatin, one of Oregon's outstanding club members, won first honors.

FRUIT GROWERS TO HOLD MEETING

Strawberry and other small fruit growers will be interested in the coming small fruits meetings scheduled for Sherwood and Banks, January 24 and 25. Programs for these meetings have been developed around the most frequent questions asked by growers, says County Agent Cyrus.

Topics to be discussed include: "Management of Cultivated Hill Soils to Prevent Erosion," "Summary of Fertilizer Demonstration Work and Fertilizer Uses on Small Fruit Crops in Washington County," "Farm and Crop Management Systems for Small Fruit Farms," "Buying Fertilizers," "Insect Pest Control on Small Fruits Including Spittle Bug, Root Weevil, Root and Crown Borers," and "Diseases of Small Fruits and Their Control, Crinkle and Leaf Spot on Strawberries and Mosaic and Wilt on Raspberries."

Some of these discussions will be illustrated. The meetings will begin at 10:00 a.m. and continue through part of the afternoon.

SOCIAL IS TO BE GIVEN AT CHURCH

A county wide sports social is to be held at the Beaverton Congregational Church next Monday, January 17 at 8:00 p.m.

This is sponsored by the Christian Endeavor but guests are to include young people of all denominations throughout the county. Come, you'll have a good time. Dorothy Howes will direct the social.

CARRIER HAS AUTO ACCIDENT SAT.

Eighth Annual Corn Show To Be Held

Show To Be Held January 14 And 15 In Lobby Of Bank

Dr. R. E. Fore Of O. S. G. Is To Be Official Judge

The late Ed Schulmerich, former president of the Commercial National Bank and founder of the Washington County 4-H corn contest will be honored at the eighth annual 4-H corn show which will be held in the lobby of the bank, January 14 and 15. Final plans and arrangements for the event have been announced by J. L. Searcey, cashier, who is in charge of the show.

Dr. R. E. Fore of the farm crops department O.S.C. will be the official judge at the contest and one of the main speakers at the banquet which will be held in the Hillsboro Grand Hotel by the officers of the bank Friday evening, and at which the club members, their leaders and parents will be guests. William L. Teutsch, assistant state county agent, leader, will be the other speaker.

O. Phelps, Hillsboro theatre owner will again have the exhibitors as his guests at the Saturday matinee as has been his custom in past years. The show will open at 9:00 o'clock Friday morning. Exhibits will be judged Friday afternoon followed by the banquet at 7:00 o'clock Friday evening. The show will close at the regular closing hour of the bank at noon Saturday.

There will be two divisions in this year's show; one for the 25 ear exhibits and the other for the yield-per-acre contest. Interest among the club members in the competition at the show this year is very keen with many of the boys endeavoring to either maintain honors won in past years or to establish new records. The corn generally is of superior quality and from the quality standpoint the show should be one of the best that has ever been held.

ANNUAL BALL IS TO BE GIVEN SOON

The Beaver will be the Trade mark and name of the feeds and fertilizer manufactured.

The warehouse will also be used as headquarters for a statewide horticultural Co-operative association, which specializes in chemicals, spray materials, insecticides, disinfectants and fertilizers. H. R. Findley is manager of the Co-operative.

ST. MARY'S WARD JOINS U. S. ARMY

Major H. D. Bagnall, the Army Recruiting Officer, 323 New Post Office Building, Portland announced Saturday the enlistment in the United States Army of John E. Gaessler, an orphan, and ward of St. Mary's Home, Huber, for service with the Field Artillery with station in the Hawaiian Islands.

Gaessler applied for enlistment at the Portland office on Jan. 3 and was tentatively accepted on that date by Major Bagnall. After passing the final examinations at Vancouver Barracks, Washington he was enlisted on January 8th.

The Major said Gaessler will be sent without delay to the Overseas Discharge and Replacement Depot at San Francisco, California to prepare to sail for the Islands on the next outbound Army Transport.

LOCAL BOY IS ON U. OF O. HONOR ROLL

Among the names on the honor roll for the fall term at the University of Oregon was that of Henry Russel Hulett, freshman in law.

This list, handed out by the registrar at the end of every term, includes only those students having exceptionally high scholastic standings for the period over which the grades are taken.

Hulett, son of Mr. J. H. Hulett, is a graduate of Beaverton high school.

COMMITTEES PREPARING REPORTS

Farmers committees have been meeting the past week preparing reports for the coming Washington county agricultural economic conference scheduled for Friday, January 28. Preliminary plans for this conference were made in November, at which time Robert W. Warrens was elected general chairman. Following that time four committees were appointed representing general livestock, all farm crops, and use, and the women's division. Henry Hagg, Reedville; Fred Josay, Rt. 2, Portland; J. W. Kamna, Rt. 5, Hillsboro and Mrs. Lester Cyphers, North Plains, head these respective groups.

This conference will not be a repetition of the one of two years ago. The proceedings and report of the conference two years ago will be reviewed and possibly some changes made in a few instances, minor recommendations altered. The 1938 study has a somewhat different scope. Increased emphasis throughout the country is being placed on various types of planning and with various programs being developed from time to time pertaining to agriculture, none of which are developed with this region particularly in mind. It is only by being prepared and having ready definite conclusions supported by actual data that requests and modifications or adjustments in these programs can be asked for and obtained.

The reports now being developed deal with advisable shifts in types of production on Washington county farms in the few instances where such shifts could be of advantage, together with the data to show the needs and desirability of such shifts. Results of these studies and ideas being developed in these committee groups will be presented to whatever part of the general public cares to attend the session on January 28. At that time it is hoped that there will be some discussion pertaining to these things.

Grade Quintet Defeats Orenco Mon.

Beaverton Defeats Witch Hazel By Score Of 26-6

Many Students Absent From School Because Of Illness

The basketball boys played Orenco Monday evening with a score of 23 to 4 in favor of the Beaverton grade school team. Kenneth Fox made 12 of the 23 points. The score for the game with Witch Hazel last Friday was 26 to 6 with Beaverton having high score. There will be a game here with Aloha-Huber Friday evening.

Homer Speer has been absent from the first grade for several days due to illness. Dickie Cushman has been confined to his home for four weeks with flu and complications.

Each pupil's writing paper with a review of all the small letters is posted in the room. Practice on the capital letters will now be given. Row 2 has the best health record for the past month. A star is given every morning to the row where in each child has clean hands, clean finger nails, a clean handkerchief and has brushed his teeth. The children are making a border of trains of gray and blue construction paper.

Children in the second grade are very much interested in a new fish bowl and fish brought by one of the children. The stories, "The Elves and the Shoemaker," and "The Three Billy Goats," were dramatized this week in language class. Orange and yellow paper dolls mounted on black were cut free hand for their art work this week.

The third grade children have been re-telling fairy tales they have read. Clothing posters are being made in connection with their geography study. Bird posters of red and blue construction paper were made in art class and make an attractive display in the room.

Ida May Taylor and Wilson Ross are absent with the mumps from the fourth grade. A book chart has been posted in the room. This chart contains a record of library books read by each child.

The sixth grade has become very much interested in a spelling contest with Helen Randall and Crandall Peck as the team captains. The score is now 54 to 39, with the Randall team in the lead. Their January art problem is a snow scene worked on in black and white. The girls are leading by three points in a character and author contest between the girls and boys of the reading class.

Caroline and Marjorie Bozich, both of the seventh grade are absent this week because of the mumps.

The eighth grade Hygiene class has been very busy the past few days learning the names of the bones in the body. They also have spent some time making a diagram of the lungs. Their present art problem is a winter studp of two snow covered trees silhouetted against a large moon. It is being done in black and white.
