Food Lovers Of World Owe Fine Monument to Alexander the Great

A Monument as big as the Statue of Liberty is past due the honor of Alexander the Great if the histories of food's origins contain an ounce of truth! The projected pillar to apple pie, the European memorial to the discoverer of Roquefort cheese, the statue of Savarin—all pale beside the glory due our Alex!

Alexander, it was you know, who led the famous army which conquered half the world. Read of their exploits and realize that when somebody got off that immortal line about an "army marching on its stomach" Alexander was certainly making tummy-walkers of his!

To turn as seriously as a geometry theorem, however, many are the foods the Emperor discovered for our delectation and delight. When you strip and eat a banana, reflect that Alexander discovered this popular fruit abundant in the valley of the Indus in 327 B.C. When you bite into a plum, realize that it was first introduced into Greece from Syria by none other than our hero. Dates! These treats for our children were not only relished by the Great's army, but to day we have all we want because they ate them as they marched and scattered date seeds all along the Persian Gulf!

Stepped Into Your Shoes

My friend who sells to the auto trade makes it from Bend to Portland at sixty miles per. Bridges across gorges he takes with never a thought as to the river that roars far below.

Why so sure Mr. Salesman? How do you know the bridge will hold? Right-O. You believe in the work of men you have never seen. Engineers and draftsmen and the rest, who give bridges form on paper and then in steel and concrete. Yes—you put your life into the keeping of men whom never having seen, you trust.

But the biggest piece of work ever done for you dates back a long, long time as men count the years. One stepped into your shoes and went into the court room to hear the verdict against you. He took your place and substituted for you that day.

The record of your life was all spread out. It proved you a rebel against God's holy law. Then came the verdict GUILTY with death the penalty. For—THE SOUL THAT SINNETH, IT SHALL DIE. Eternal separation from God who made you for himself, that is. At the verdict, your Substitute went to Calvary and died under the sult to clear you. So He suffered for you, the just for the unjust.

But that was not all. Because He was Himself sinless, God raised Him back to life to become to you the Friend that sticketh closer than a brother. And still more; because you are His if you will have it so. He is to return on a day and call you from the grave to glorify you in the ages to come and to shower you with riches of His grace.

Right now, right where you are, tell God you take over for yourself the saving work that His Son did for you that day.—"Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ and thou shalt be saved." Believe on His death as clearing you so utterly that in God's holy eyes you stand as sinless as Christ Himself. Believe in His present power to break the chains of sin and to forgive you when you do sin. Believe on His coming again to raise you from the grave into eternal glory. Look away from self and BELIEVE—BELIEVE—BELIEVE ON HIM.

Lin Agriculture Shifting

ALBANY—A rapid shifting of Lin county agriculture from grain to winter field peas, vetch, clover and alfalfa is noted by County Agent P. G. Mullen. Clover growers of the county this year obtained seed yields averaging from 100 to 200 lbs. an acre, in addition to their hay crop. A total of 1592 acres of certified English rye grass was harvested in 1937, more than in any previous year, Mullen says, largely due to the agricultural conservation program.

Fruit Salad for the Luncheon Or Supper Main Course

By BETTY BARCLAY

Salad bowls should not be confined to summer alone. They are even more valuable in winter when fresh fruits and vegetables are less plentiful. They help supply the daily ration of vitamins and minerals so necessary for optimum health. Especially valuable in these combinations are the citrus fruits, since they are available in fresh form the year around. Combined with other fruits in season, they make possible delicious and nourishing salads for every day in the year and all types of occasions. Try this menu for Sunday night supper or a bride luncheon or even surprise the family with it for luncheon or supper any day.

Fresh Fruit Salad Bowl

The newest fashion in Fruit Salad Bowls keeps fruits separate. Greens afford contrast and background. For the salad pictured, wash and dry carefully one or more varieties of fresh crisp greens such as romaine, lettuce, watercress, endive, chicory, escarole. Arrange attractively in a salad bowl. Place on the greens in definite groups:

3 slices of California Navel orange
4 slices of unpeeled, red-skinned apple, each "sandwiched" between 2 orange slices

Homemakers' Exchange of Helpful Household Hints and Recipes

Conducted by ELEANOR HOWE

If you make patch quilts and have difficulty cutting out the blocks from the pattern, here's an idea that may help you: Cut the patterns in duplicate from light cardboard. Then place the material between the two cardboard patterns and the cutting will proceed swiftly and precisely because the material will not slip.

JEWEL COOKIES are popular with everybody. Here's the recipe and it makes 3 1/2 dozen cookies. Cream 1/2 cup of shortening and to it add 1/2 cup granulated sugar slowly, while beating constantly. Add 1 egg and blend thoroughly. Mix and sift together 1 1/2 cups general purpose flour, 1/4 teaspoon soda, 1/2 teaspoon baking powder and 1/4 teaspoon salt. Add together with 1 teaspoon vanilla extract. Form into two rolls and chill thoroughly for at least 1 hour. (You can keep this dough indefinitely in one of the new air-conditioned ice refrigerators without danger that it will "pick up" the flavors of other foods.) Before baking, decorate each cookie with small gum drops (cut in half) and press them in top of cookies. Place on greased baking sheet and bake in a moderately hot oven (375°) until brown—approximately 10 minutes.

When serving hot buttered Parker House rolls, try this idea for easy buttering. Open the roll and butter the top half instead of the lower. When ready to serve, both sides of the roll will then be nicely buttered, rather than having the upper half dry as happens when we butter the lower part only.

Mix chocolate malt powder with sugar and cinnamon for a delicious "something" to sprinkle over buttered toast. Keep the mixture
