Brisk "Mail Order Business" In Pie Requires New "Piedeas"

What's the "male order" for dessert in restaurants? It's pie, five to one! What's the most popular male order at home? Pie again! And how is this "male order business" doing? Fine, as usual, with new "piedeas" coming out every day, which makes masculine molars masticate in mirth!

Women like pie too, and don't forget it in your rush to please the men. Young ones follow eagerly in dad's pie steps, so select kinds the whole family will enjoy and be sure your pastry is flaky and fresh.

Since most homes have their favorite familiar pie recipes by now, the best piedeas are those of the less familiar kinds, or for those once considered difficult or time consuming. Now try today's selections, which are easy—as pie!

Banana Chiffon Pie

1 1/2 teaspoons granulated gelatin
2 cups cold water
3/4 cup mashed bananas (2 to 3 bananas)
1 tablespoon lemon juice
1/2 teaspoon grated lemon rind
1/4 teaspoon grated orange rind
5 teaspoons sugar
2 egg yolks, beaten
1/2 teaspoon salt
2 egg whites
1 8" pie shell

Soften gelatin in cold water. Mix banana and lemon juice. Add lemon and orange rind, 2 tablespoons of sugar, egg yolks, and salt. Cook over low heat, stirring constantly, until thickened. Remove from heat, add gelatin and stir until dissolved. Cool until slightly thickened. Beat egg whites until stiff enough to form peaks. Then add remaining 2 tablespoons of sugar gradually while continuing to beat. Fold in banana mixture. Fill pie shell. Keep in cool place to stiffen. Top with whipped cream if desired. Makes one 8" pie.

Orange And Nut Pie

2 tablespoons lemon juice
2 cups fresh orange juice
1 1/4 cups sugar
1/2 teaspoon salt
6 tablespoons cornstarch
4 eggs
1/2 cup walnut meats
Cooked pastry shells

Combine orange juice and the lemon juice. Add sugar, salt and cornstarch dissolved in small amount of the liquid. Heat in a double boiler, stirring constantly, until thick. Add egg yolk and cook two minutes longer. Remove from stove and let cool. Pour into cooked pastry shell. Sprinkle nuts over top. Beat egg whites very stiff, and add 1/2 cup sugar, gradually, beating in well. Flavor with lemon juice or lemon extract to taste. Spread on pie filling and bake in slow oven (325 deg. F.) until meringue is delicate brown.

Brown Sugar Apple Pie

1 recipe pastry
4 large apples, thinly sliced
1/4 cup sugar
1/2 cup brown sugar, firmly packed
1/2 teaspoon cinnamon
1/2 teaspoon butter

Line a 9 inch pie plate with the pastry, rolled to 1/4 inch thick. Fill with apples. Combine granulated and brown sugars and cinnamon and sprinkle over

Crisscross Date Pie

1 1/2 cups boiling water
1 pkg. dates

apples. Dot with butter. Moisten edges of pastry with cold water. Cover with remaining pastry, press edges together. With sharp knife trim off surplus pastry. Bake in hot oven (450 deg. F.) for 15 minutes; decrease heat to moderate (350 deg. F.) and bake 30 minutes longer, or until the apples are tender.

JOY IN CALIFORNIA

The gray haired woman with liquor on her breath would have a dime for something to eat. At the offer to take her out and buy a lunch she slipped away. The dime was for drink, you see, not for eats.

"That's my trouble." This from the young medic looking man in the fine o'coat standing by. Seems he had throw up a 360 job as orderly in a sanitarium down South to go on a drunk. So far as able to recall he had been in town four days. A little touch of home life ought to help the man, and the voice at the end of phone said a guest would be welcome for dinner.

Outside the Mission door the man lighted a cigarette to quiet the nerves always upset after days of drink. Back among the firs in the west side hills the open fire and magazines were his until dinner. Born in Argentine Republic and a perfect gentleman, his experiences down there made him worthwhile in the dinner hour. Then another smoke as he followed out to the milking shed. The chores done, he had a question. "Do you really mean that you have peace in your heart?" That was opening enough and the WHY? perfect: peace now and forever was set before him. Two seasons on a bale of alfalfa can get down to business.

(Young people from a Bible institute had the services in the Mission that evening and the man of dark skin and lonesome heart raised his hand for prayer. The group quit the platform and surrounded him. Bible verses testimonies, with prayer flowed in on him and finally he yielded himself, kneeled and asked forgiveness for the sins of a lifetime. One of the first fruits was to give over a six page letter written earlier in the day to set forth to his mother his drunk

Beware Kidney Germs if Tired, Nervous, Aching

Are You Run Down, Nervous, suffer Aching or Swollen Joints? Do you Get Up Nights, or suffer from Burning Passages, a Stomach Headache, Leg Pains, Backache, Dizziness, Furry Eyelids, Loss of Appetite and Energy? If so, the true cause often may be germs developed in the body during colds, or by bad teeth or tonsils that need removing. These germs may attack the delicate membranes of your Kidneys or Bladder and often cause much trouble. Ordinary medicines can't help much because they don't fight the germs. The doctor's formula Cystex, not stocked by all druggists, starts fighting Kidney germs in 3 hours and must prove entirely satisfactory in 1 week and be exactly the medicine you need or money back is guaranteed. Telephone your druggist for Cystex (blue box) today. The guarantee protects you. Copyright, 1937 The Knox Co.

HOW OFTEN CAN YOU KISS AND MAKE UP?

FEW husbands can understand why a wife should turn from a pleasant companion into a shrew for one whole week in every month. You can say "I'm sorry" and kiss and make up easier before marriage than after. Be wise. If you want to hold your husband, you won't be a three-quarter wife.

For three generations one woman has told another how to go "smiling through" with Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. It helps Nature tone up the system, thus lessening the discomfort from the functional disorders which women must endure in the three ordeals of life: 1. Turning from girlhood to womanhood. 2. Preparing for motherhood. 3. Approaching "middle age."

Don't be a three-quarter wife, take LYDIA E. PINKHAM'S VEGETABLE COMPOUND and go "Smiling Through."

WISE

The wise and pleasant way to relieve a cough due to a cold is a Smith Brothers Cough Drop. (Two kinds: Black or Menthol—5¢.)

Smith Bros. Cough Drops are the only drops containing VITAMIN A. This is the vitamin that raises the resistance of the mucous membranes of the nose and throat to cold and cough infections.

RIGHT OUT OF THE AIR

By EARLE FERRIS

Observers say that a large part of the credit for Don Ameche's sensational climb in the box office ratings of the picture business goes to his Sunday night radio program. As a master of ceremonies, his style was new to the air last spring. Now in most of the radio polls he is either at the top or very near it.

Only important addition to nighttime dramatic series this season is "Those We Love," heard over the NBC-Blue network on Tuesday nights.

So real a person does Elnice Howard make "Linda" in "Pepper Young's Family," that countless young girls write to her confiding their problems and ambitions, much as if "Linda" were a school chum. Even many mothers have written to Miss Howard, pictured here, thanking her for the "good example" she is setting for their "teen-age daughters."

Since The Mystery Chef of NBC said in a broadcast that he could provide four persons with good meals for a week for $4 he has been deluged with requests for menus—which he is supplying.

It's "Captain" Raymond Paige now. The noted maestro has just been elected fleet captain of the California Yacht Club for 1938 in honor of his sailing activities. Paige is one of the most ardent yachtsmen on the Pacific Coast.

Ethel Owen, shown here, is heard regularly on Edgar A. Guest's "It Can Be Done" programs. She is the only proprietress of a cat and dog hospital in the country. It's in Milwaukee. Left a widow with three children, she bought the hospital, later bought the building. Now she runs the hospital and appears on radio as an actress.

Several actors were tested for the title role of "Dick Tracy" on NBC, but Ned Weaver was selected because his voice conveys force, vigor and square-jawed determination which characterizes the familiar comic-strip hero.

While Jack Benny was taking his usual morning walk recently, he met Gabriel Heatter, the man at the helm of the "We, The People" Thursday night air series, is preparing a volume of true short stories inspired by his radio guest stars.

HOW I BECAME A RADIO STAR

By "THE VOICE OF EXPERIENCE"

It has been my lot to probe the souls of more men and women perhaps than any other man now living. But my early training was to cure their bodies. For I had determined to be a surgeon. My father was an evangelical missionary; my mother a settlement worker. From the beginning it seemed to be my destiny to serve people.

Music was an inborn talent and at nineteen I was earning my way through medical school by playing the pipe organ—one of the youngest organists in the world, playing many of the country's largest organs as guest or concert artist. I was happy. Medicine came to me like something remembered; the organ was a mighty river of almost tangible harmony, light and color, in which I rested and revived my strength and ideals. Life was warm; the future seemed assured—I was happy.

But plenty of money and an insatiable curiosity about life are not always the best equipment for nineteen. It seemed to me, callow as I was, that I had become a man of the world. The present became satisfyingly vivid; the future and the ideal of service became a distant, Never Never Land, warning to contemplate, but from whose labor of achievement I instinctively shrank. Then, as if the high gods had decided to discipline me, things began to happen.

First I met Gypsy Smith, that sublime evangelist, quite by chance. He didn't know my name, nor I his. But he did recognize a soul-sick boy. He toppled my pretty house of cards in one talk. Through his eyes I saw the petty egotist I had become. Then, tragically it seemed, an automobile accident destroyed my hands for both music and surgery. I was through; life was finished!

But in the long convalescence the seeds that Gypsy Smith had planted stirred, grew in my soul—the old ideal of service to humanity, once almost dead through success, blossomed again.

Recovered, I spent five and a half years with the human flotsam and jetsam which life had cast up on the Barbary Coast, and in the underworlds of Seattle, Denver and Butte. I knew intimately the drunkard, the drug addict, the murderer, the thief, the unmoral and immoral man and woman of every stripe and background. "Why did you do it?" I cried, "What made you take the first step? What are you really after?" I lived those five and a half years as an inquirer in Hell!

Afterward I spent other years studying soul-sick men and women in many parts of the world. I examined the most intellectual persons in the oldest civilizations—and the Aborigines of Australia. Strangely, the most vivid conviction I brought out of the world's slime, was of the unquenchable glory of the human spirit. At length, I said, "I am ready!"

I spoke before hundreds of schools and colleges; from the lecture platforms of almost every American city. Someone suggested that I hold radio forums in connection with my talks and these attained such popularity that today I speak on a nation-wide hook-up of the Mutual Broadcasting System five times a week.

The Voice of Experience? Yes, but not merely my experience. Speaking through me are the hopes, despairs, successes, failures, anguishes of the thousands of tortured human souls I have studied.
