

THE BEAVERTON REVIEW

Entered as second-class matter December 9, 1922, at the postoffice at Beaverton, Oregon, under the act of March 8, 1879.

ISSUED EVERY FRIDAY AT BEAVERTON, OREGON

J. H. HULETT, EDITOR

SUBSCRIPTION RATES Per year (in advance) $1.00 Not in advance 1.50

URA LYRE'S OWN COLUMN

Just what are we coming to? For what are we headed? Today we are in the midst of the Roosevelt depression. During the campaign of 1932 and for the years following the present chief executive promised to bring the upset in government affairs to a speedy close, that he would obtain the balancing of the budget somewhere about 1935, '36 and '37. As each time approached the balancing receded; and now it is nowhere near. He promised to decrease bureaus. He multiplied them to immense proportions. Taxes are worse than ever and he is asking for further increases at the same time that we are being further burdened and shoved down hill. When he took office the public debt soon after a great war was in the neighborhood of $20,000,000,000. Now it is about the $30,000,000,000 mark while his policies have put us where the power of the people to pay taxes is greatly reduced; and that in time of peace.

Not only is the end not in sight, but a treacherous war is in the offing and a greatly added armament is requested to enable us to meet any aggressor. If we do not do this we are in the greatest danger of being attacked or imposed upon by blood thirsty dictatorships of various kinds. If we do spend for preparation to meet the threats, we are ever verging closer to bankruptcy because an unbusinesslike executive and his administration, following out the idiosyncracies of an inexperienced lot of youthful college professors and others have borrowed blindly, spent lavishly, planned foolishly, sought power and prestige persistently and heedlessly and provided jobs for the greedy; while common sense flew out of the window. Have they learned anything or are they still assaulting business efforts and putting the fear of his satanic majesty into the hearts of those who would like to do something to help a good cause? You know.

Politics in the Keystone state is getting warm, especially in the democratic camp. A couple of weeks ago this column called attention to the fact that the democratic machine had dictated a certain ticket. At the head of this machine was a Pittsburgh politician by the name of David Lawrence; while Senator Guffey was set down on by Lawrence, Roosevelt and others. For the U. S. senatorship Governor Earle was nominated and for governor a Pittsburgh attorney named Jones. In the mean time published reports had it that Earle had declared that no coercion would be attempted. Immediately the C.I.O. put out lieutenant governor Kennedy for governor but endorsed Earle for senator, taking it for granted that Earle would remain neutral. But they reckoned without their host for Earle has declared for the state straight thru. Here was a "pretty kettle of fish." Senator Guffey, former declared dictator and boss evidently wore as a foil, since he was not given the state nomination for governor and has declared for the C.I.O. nominees—his own slate as it were, and much bitterness has been engendered. There is also a third candidate as an independent democrat for the same office.

There are more than one candidate for each of these offices on the republican side, but so far no bitter personalities have been indulged in; and every effort is being made to keep it a friendly contest in those ranks. For chief executive of the commonwealth former Governor Gifford Pinchot is arrayed against Judge James. Senator James Davis, former cabinet officer wishes to succeed himself, but will have opposition. He is quite able and no stigma either moral, financial or political is against his record, as has been the case with plenty of men who have representatives for Pennsylvania in Congress.

URA LYRE.

The following card was going the rounds of the middle west recently and is not the composition of Ura Lyre.

From Santa Claus I'm sending this card just to tell you That the new deal has taken away The things that I most sorely needed My workshop, my reindeer, my sleigh. So now I am out with a donkey He's spavined, decrepit and slow So you'll know if I don't see you Christmas. I'm out on my ass in the snow.

Real Estate Transfers

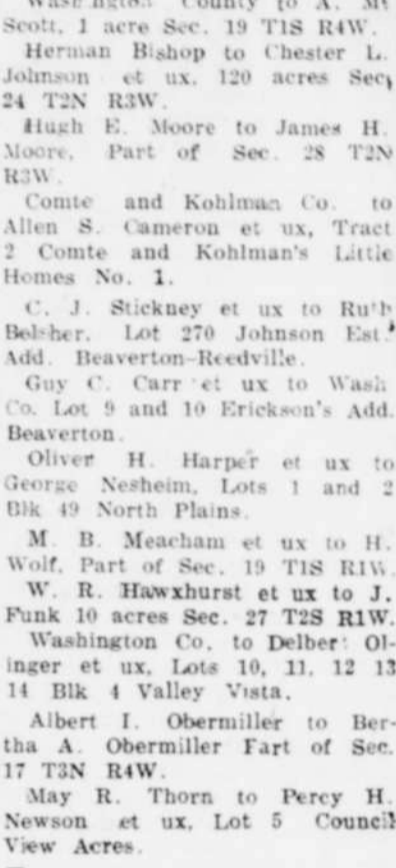

- P. J. McDonald to Anna Elii. Muehlhauser. Part of Sec 11 T2S R2W.
E. L. Johnson et ux to Leonard Van Lom et ux. Part Isaiah Kelsey DLC TIN R2W.
Mathilda Gaarde to Harry Jacobsen et ux N 1/2 of W 1-2 of Lot 281 Beaverton-Reedville.
Frank Vandebey et al to C. Vandebey. Blk 20 Beaverton.
Lou Belle Katterman to J. C. Heinrich. Lots in Portland Hgts. No 2 Blks 22 and 23.
Anna H. Prickett et vir to O. E. Johnson Part of Sec. 36 T2N R4W.
Washington County to O. E. Johnson. Part of Sec. 4 T2N R4W.
Guto Erickson et ux to Guy C. Carr et ux. Lots in Rev' plat of Erickson's Add. to Beaverton.
B. E. Gunderson et ux to C. T. Erickson et ux. 5.837 acres Johnson Est. Add.
Plus Van'ebey to George Van Mandel et al. Tis. in C. Conklin DLC 53 TIN R3W.
A. V. Vincent et al to E. E. Feike et al. Part of Sec. 22 T2S R2W.
Jane Ingram to Grant C. Dodge et ux. 44.5 acres Abram Landess DLC 54.
Geneva L. Randall to Thomas Arnold McDougall. Part of Sec.

LITTLE MOMENTS IN BIG LIVES

W. Q. RUTHERFORD EX-PRESIDENT OF THE RUBBER ASSOCIATION OF AMERICA, STARTED ROLLING SEWER PIPES IN AKRON, OHIO.

THINGS THAT NEVER HAPPEN

ALOHA NEWS

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Hulvey of Albany were weekend guests at the home of their aunt, Mrs. J. H. Neal.
Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Wickman and Patricia Ann were Sunday callers at the home of L. E. Gordan of Stacey Ave.
Mrs. Hulda Rydman entertained Sunday her brother and family of Orchard, Wash. Mr. and Mrs. Paul Fernquist.
Betty Lou and Carol Jeanne Gordan were guests at a birthday party in Portland Friday of Patricia Ann Wickman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Wickman.
Mr. and Mrs. John Imlah entertained a group of young people at a party Saturday evening honoring Dale Kelley of Nelscott whose father was the former mail carrier on route 1.

HAZELDALE NEWS

Dale Kelly from Nelscott was a guest from Friday to Monday of Byron Blich and Melvin Smith.
The 4-H garden club will meet at the home of their leader Johnnie Santoro Friday evening (tonight).
Ray Knechloe received a shipment of baby chicks last week.
Frank Garven is through with his work at the Durham rock crusher for a while as the bunkers are all filled with gravel and the crusher closed last week.
Charles Weaver is shooting stumps and clearing his acreage on Wheeler Avenue.
Al Jelderks had as his guests Sunday his brother and wife from Gervais.
R. L. Rogers returned home over the weekend from Seaside where he is employed.
James H. Morce, deputy assessor was on the rounds of this district last week.

The SNAPSHOT GUILD SUNNY PICTURES INDOORS

An afternoon nap—and an indoor-sunlight picture of rare charm. Note how reflecting surfaces, the light walls, the bed spread, the white dress, soften and brighten the shadows. Exposure 1/10 second at f.8.

DO not feel, fellow snapshotters, that just because the sun stays out of doors you cannot make sunlight pictures inside.
Wherever a sunlight streams through a window, there is a setting for a picture, often an extremely good picture, because of the play of light and shadow from the window-framing and curtains.
In a light-walled room, especially one with plain plaster walls or patternless wallpaper, the shadows in such an indoor-sunlight picture have a soft, luminous quality which gives the prints unusual delicacy and appeal. However, unless it is a sun-room that has windows facing in several directions, it is necessary to aid the shadow illumination with reflectors. These can be white sheets or pillowcases draped over a chair, white cardboard or blotter-paper, or anything else that will pick up the sunlight and cast it toward the subject's shadow side.
In addition, the light may be pleasingly softened by a close-mesh window curtain through which the sunbeams pass. With such a diffuser, exposure should be about double what you would give outside in the sun. The sunlight should come from above, slanting downward upon the subject and amateur floodlight bulbs can be used to soften shadows where reflectors are insufficient.

John van Guilder

Miss Thelma Davies became ill last week and returned to her home at Corbett. Mrs. R. Denton is substitute teacher in her place.
Jean O'Connor is slowly improving at Emanuel hospital.
The upper grade room held a spelling contest Friday afternoon. Jean Miller, a 7th grader won the contest.
Vern Jelderks is confined to his home with the mumps.
The Junior Red Cross lesson for this week at Aloha Huber school Monday evening was "What to do in case of snake bite." Hazel Dale 4-H boys are attending these meetings.
The school children are practicing for the annual track meet.

ARE YOU ONLY A THREE-QUARTER WIFE? HOW OFTEN CAN YOU KISS AND MAKE UP?

MEN, because they are men, can never understand a three-quarter wife—a wife who is all love and kindness three weeks in a month and a hell cat the rest of the time.
No matter how your back aches—how your nerves scream—don't take it out on your husband.
For three generations one woman has told another how to go "smiling through" with Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. It helps Nature tone up the system, thus lessening the discomforts from the functional disorders which women must endure in the three ordeals of life: 1. Turning from girlhood to womanhood. 2. Preparing for motherhood. 3. Approaching "middle age."
Don't be a three-quarter wife, take LYDIA E. PINKHAM'S VEGETABLE COMPOUND and Go "Smiling Through."

Raising the Family - Pa didn't stop to think how it would sound!

T. Knowlitt - If his wife would only listen to him she'd be wiser!

Business Places To Patronise IN BEAVERTON

- STUDIO BARBER SHOP HAIRCUT 35¢ (Children Under 12)
Beaverton Barber Shop C. J. STEVENS, PROPRIETOR SATISFACTION GUARANTEED
Reather & Moore, Props. UNION SHOP
W. E. PEGG UNDERTAKER AND EMBALMER Grange Building Beaverton
OPTOMETRY Glasses, Fitted or Repaired Our Specialty DR. A. E. WILSON
The Oregonian Great Newspaper of the Northwest ARTHUR MULHOLLAND Auto Route and Agency Beaverton - Oregon For information regarding service or subscriptions Phone Beaverton 7303 Residence and office: Corner, Second and Hall

AMERICA'S LEADER AT 4 for 10¢ PROBAK BLADES