THE THIRD RAIL

Interesting AND True

Focus—The Newspaper Guild contends (and who should be in a better position to know) that 95 per cent of the American press is guilty of downright misrepresentation of facts. Dispatches from Spain are altered so that "Government" is changed to "Reds"; Jews in Austria are never "murdered" they invariably "commit suicide." Even columnists such as Westbrook Pegler, Heywood Brown and Hugh Johnson have learned that the moth-eaten phrase "the freedom of the press" does not apply to them. The general magazines have never even attempted to take the side of "the people" because so far it has not been considered a paying proposition. Spasmodically a new magazine appears on the publishing horizon boasting itself the mouthpiece for the "under dog." But somewhere along the route from the editorial offices to the printers the advertising department talks turkey. And that is that.

OUR VOCABULARY
(Watch it Grow)

TISKET—Word used in popular song bewailing catastrophe to yellow basket. This writer does not know meaning. See TASKET—concerning which we are likewise mystified.

Uncle Henry Henstuter says: "I'm willin' to make almost any sacrifice if this country gets mixed up in that there war that Hitler is askin' for; but I'll be double gosh-durned if I'll try to knit another sweater!"

THE SECOND READER

See the Boy. The Boy's Nose is Bleeding. Why Does the Boy's Nose Bleed? Because it Has been Smitten by the Boy's Playmate. Why Did the Boy's Playmate Tag Him on the Horn? Because the Boy Socked His Little Playmate in the Eye. What Will the Boy's Mama Say? She will Say that the Boy's Playmate is a Little Ruffian and Just Look at Your Shirt All Covered With Blood. Will the Boy Stop Fighting? No. He Will Probably Resume Hostilities Tomorrow.

Again the smiling candidate files in from each direction. The "pee-pul" to emancipate. Right after his election. —L. C. D.

DOWN IN THE DUMPS!

Saved one day and lost in the next, if you go on your religious feelings. So the Father bids his people stand on that Solid Rock, His Eternal Word the Bible. Blow hot, blow cold, that stands. Feelings or no feelings, that ends it. You need not day by day feel your spiritual pulse settle your sonship in the family of God—"Verily, Verily, I say unto you, he that heareth My word and believeth on him that sent Me, hath eternal life and shall not come into judgement but is passes out of death into life.—JESUS CHRIST. God said it; Christ did it; I believe it; that settles it.

Now you the sheep of His pasture and you repeat that most beloved Psalm—THE LORD IS MY SHEPHERD; I SHALL NOT WANT. The poor sheep is not asked to have any feelings in the matter but he is asked to clean house, take every need to the Lord and hank on the Father's faithfulness. "God is able to make all grace abound to ward you, that you having always, all sufficiency in all things, all abounded in every good work."—2 Cor. 9:8. But the saved must first get their skirts clean—IF I REGARD SIN IN MY HEART-GOD WILL NOT HEAR ME—Ps 66:18.

find a promise in the Book to cover every need and emergency and all made by eternal God who changeth not. So man has ever received of the Lord all that he might have had and God pledges—BEFORE THEY CALL I WILL ANSWER AND WHILE THEY ARE YET SPEAKING I WILL HEAR—Isa. 65:24 Sure THE EYES OF THE LORD RUN TOO AND FRO THROUGHOUT THE WHOLE EARTH TO SHOW HIMSELF STRONG IN BEHALF OF THEM WHOSE HEART IS PERFECT TOWARD HIM. 2 Chron. 6:9—Call Unto Me and I Will Answer Thee, and Show Thee Great and Mighty Things, Which Thou Knowest Not. Jer. 33:3.

Leave off the search for religious thrills, face your duty toward God and man, then claim the Bible promise for present need—His eye is one the sparrow and I know He watches me." God in Christ SAVES-KEEPS. SATISFIES all who receive Him as Saviour and Lord.

Pleased to Meet You
You have heard the old saying, "you can take a boy out of the country, but you can't take the country out of the boy"—This seems very practical in my case. For the past two years I have been trying to locate again in a small town or country community, where people stop to say "How Do You Do," and think of more than just their own selfish interest.
It is with this thought in mind that I feel very happy to become your only service store operator and citizen of Beaverton.
I'm sure that we have something more to sell other than cheap merchandise at a supposed cheap price, and a fair comparison considering quality and size of tins with free delivery to your door--saving nothing of convenience and cold weather--will prove to you that the Service Store still gives you more for your money.
Yours for better service,
O. K. BELL.
