RIGHT OUT OF THE AIR

By EARLE FERRIS

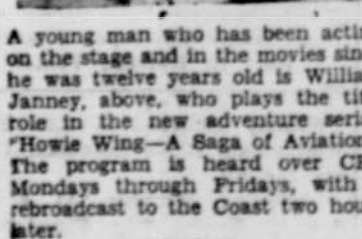

Marian McManus, above, featured on the Tuesday and Saturday nights "Johnny Presents" programs, is proof that a girl can have both looks and a voice. She's a featured member of the "Swing Fourteen" on these programs.

"Be just yourself and speak with natural ardor," is the advice of "We, the People" program directors in preparing guests for their microphone debuts on this popular Tuesday night program on CBS.

Rudy Vallee starts a series of broadcasts from Hollywood on Nov. 10. He'll be on the Coast six weeks playing a night club engagement.

A young man who has been acting on the stage and in the movies since he was twelve years old is William Janney, above, who plays the title role in the new adventure serial, "Howie Wing—A Saga of Aviation." The program is heard over CBS Mondays through Fridays, with a rebroadcast to the Coast two hours later.

No one can question Bill Adams' background. The "Your Family and Mine" program actor has spent 25 years in the theatre—working with such distinguished personalities as Bothern and Marlowe, Arthur Hopkins, John Barrymore and Norman Bel Geddes.

Virginia Payne, above, one of radio's greatest actresses, is heard from Chicago where she ranks as the top player of crossword lexicon in broadcast circles. A believer in simplicity of delivery, she also believes in a simplified vocabulary.
