

These Were Among Highlights in the Year's News

PERSECUTION—The world sought a new home for the wandering Jew, driven from Germany, Czechoslovakia and Italy, by the Nazis. FLOODS—Raging torrents swept California in the spring, Texas in the summer, New England in the autumn. POLITICS—Primary and general elections in many states of the union focused attention on national affairs and brought Republican gains in many sections. AGGRESSION—Germany's Adolf Hitler marched through Austria and Czechoslovakia, Japan marched through China and fought with Russia on the Siberian border.

CHRONOLOGY

of the year

1938

Compiled by JOHN D. GRANT

DOMESTIC

Jan. 2—Postmaster General Farley's annual report showed "net surplus" of more than 12 million dollars.

Jan. 3—Congress opened regular session and received President's annual message.

Supreme court upheld federal power loans and grants.

Jan. 4—Representative Lester Hill nominated for senator from Alabama.

Jan. 5—President's budget message revealed larger deficit, smaller revenues, and asked a billion for national defense.

Associate Justice George Sutherland of Supreme court announced his retirement.

Jan. 10—Resolution for war referendum amendment to Constitution buried by house.

Jan. 11—Indiana Supreme court outvoted marriage bill.

Jan. 12—House voted to widen President's power to cut appropriations.

Jan. 15—Stanley F. Reed, solicitor general, appointed to Supreme court by President Roosevelt.

Jan. 16—House appropriated billion and a half for treasury and post office departments.

Jan. 20—Comptroller of the Currency J. F. O'Connor resigned.

Jan. 21—Federal court of appeals at Chattanooga upheld TVA competition with private power companies.

House passed $53 million navy appropriation bill.

Jan. 22—Sixteen oil companies and 30 individuals found guilty of conspiring to violate Sherman anti-trust law.

Jan. 25—Senate confirmed appointment of Stanley Reed to Supreme court.

Jan. 27—Robert H. Jackson nominated for solicitor general.

Jan. 28—President sent congress a program to strengthen national defense.

Jan. 29—Supreme court upheld labor board's power to make investigations.

Feb. 1—House bill finally enacted.

Feb. 6—A. F. of L. expelled United Mine Workers and two other C. I. O. unions.

Feb. 10—President asked congress to appropriate $200,000,000 for relief.

Feb. 14—Farm bill finally enacted by congress.

Feb. 16—House passed 250 million dollar relief bill.

Feb. 18—Five United States army planes completed 6,000-mile flight to Buenos Aires.

Secretary Wallace filed marketing quotas for cotton and tobacco.

Feb. 21—Anti-lynching bill withdrawn in senate.

Feb. 23—Baltimore coal commission revoked all fixed rates.

Senate passed $250,000,000 relief bill.

Feb. 26—Soy-rice selling United States military and naval secrets to foreign government smashed; two men and one woman arrested.

Feb. 28—Chairman Morgan of TVA asked congressional investigation of his two law directors.

March 2—Interstate commerce commission authorized 10 per cent increase in railroad freight rates.

March 10—President submitted to congress a six-year plan for developing national water resources of nation.

March 14—Chairman C. F. Hofstad of coal commission resigned.

March 17—Secretary of State Hull outlined American foreign policy of co-operation for peace and preparedness to defend international law and order.

March 21—House passed navy expansion bill.

March 22—President Roosevelt ousted A. E. Morgan from TVA, laid entire matter before congress and appointed Harcourt Morgan TVA chairman.

March 23—Senate voted for joint congressional investigation of TVA.

March 26—Senate passed government reorganization bill.

March 30—House voted for TVA investigation.

April 4—House passed bill releasing $100,000,000 RFC funds for business loans.

April 5—Presidents Roosevelt and Quezon agreed to defer Philippine economic independence until 1960.

April 6—Senate passed army appropriation bill carrying $546,966,000.

April 9—Senate passed revenue bill designed to relieve business.

April 11—Senate passed bill putting 15,000 postmasterhips under civil service.

April 14—President Roosevelt in message to congress asked nearly seven billion dollars for spending and lending program.

April 19—House passed 963 million dollar agriculture department bill, carrying 201 millions for road building.

April 21—Congress passed naval appropriation bill carrying $1,000,000,000.

April 22—President asked congress to abolish income tax exemption for government securities and government employees.

April 23—National Progressives of America party formed by Gov. Philip La Follette of Wisconsin and followers.

May 3—Senate passed naval expansion bill.

House passed bill to create 24 more federal judgeships.

May 6—Labor board withdrew decision against Ford company.

House passed $484,000,000 highway bill.

May 9—Senate passed billion dollar agricultural department bill.

Supreme court upheld federal power loans passed by house.

May 13—Enactment of naval expansion bill.

May 16—Senate passed bill creating aeronautics authority.

May 17—Supreme Court Democratic primaries resulted in defeat for C. I. O. candidates; Gov. G. H. Earle nominated for senator and C. A. Jones for governor. Republicans renominated Senator Davis and named A. H. James for governor.

May 21—Presbyterian church general assembly voted predestination sections out of constitution.

May 24—House passed the wage-hour bill.

May 25—Dr. A. E. Morgan, first vice in congressional inquiry into TVA, accused David Lilienthal and Harcourt Morgan of deceit and dishonest management.

May 26—Lilienthal and Harcourt Morgan heard in denial of A. E. Morgan's charges and counter-attack.

May 27—House passed the wage-hour bill.

May 28—President Roosevelt let tax bill become law without his signature.

May 31—Supreme court denied rehearing of stockyards case, rebuking Secretary Wallace and Solicitor General Jackson.

President signed bill creating 20 new federal judges.

Government reorganization bill shelved by congress.

June 1—Senate passed the three billion recovery bill.

June 9—House ousted Representative Hughes of New Hampshire, and seated Alphonse Roy, Democrat.

June 14—Senate passed the wage-hour act.

June 15—Congress passed flood control bill.

June 16—Congress passed relief and pump-priming bill and adjourned.

June 18—Eighteen persons indicted in New York.

June 24—President by executive order extended TVA's services to all government employees not exempted by statute.

July 6—Dr. A. E. Morgan sued for reinstatement as chairman of TVA.

July 7—President Roosevelt began investigation of TVA.

July 14—President reviewed battleship fleet at San Francisco.

July 15—President reviewed battle fleet at San Francisco.

July 16—President reviewed battle fleet at San Francisco.

July 17—President reviewed battle fleet at San Francisco.

July 18—President reviewed battle fleet at San Francisco.

July 19—President reviewed battle fleet at San Francisco.

July 20—President reviewed battle fleet at San Francisco.

July 21—President reviewed battle fleet at San Francisco.

July 22—President reviewed battle fleet at San Francisco.

July 23—President reviewed battle fleet at San Francisco.

July 24—President reviewed battle fleet at San Francisco.

July 25—President reviewed battle fleet at San Francisco.

July 26—President reviewed battle fleet at San Francisco.

July 27—President reviewed battle fleet at San Francisco.

July 28—President reviewed battle fleet at San Francisco.

July 29—President reviewed battle fleet at San Francisco.

July 30—President reviewed battle fleet at San Francisco.

July 31—President reviewed battle fleet at San Francisco.

Aug. 1—Justice department announces investigation of American Medical association on charge of anti-trust law violation.

Aug. 2—New Dealers defeated in Virginia and Missouri Democratic primaries.

Aug. 3—William C. Dodge, former New York district attorney, linked with James J. Brannan in policy racket charges.

Aug. 10—Douglas Corrigon of Los Angeles made solo flight from New York to Dublin, Ireland, in 28 hours, 13 minutes.

Aug. 11—Governor of Iowa ordered troops to Newton, home of strike-bound miners.

Aug. 12—Five officials and 12 corporations fined in oil conspiracy case at Madison, Wis.

Aug. 13—Government began anti-monopoly suit against chief movie companies.

Aug. 22—Federal court of appeals in Panama Canal zone.

Aug. 23—Justice department announced investigation of American Medical association on charge of anti-trust law violation.

Aug. 24—New Dealers defeated in Virginia and Missouri Democratic primaries.

Aug. 25—William C. Dodge, former New York district attorney, linked with James J. Brannan in policy racket charges.

Aug. 30—Douglas Corrigon of Los Angeles made solo flight from New York to Dublin, Ireland, in 28 hours, 13 minutes.

Aug. 31—Governor of Iowa ordered troops to Newton, home of strike-bound miners.

Aug. 32—Five officials and 12 corporations fined in oil conspiracy case at Madison, Wis.

Aug. 33—Government began anti-monopoly suit against chief movie companies.

Aug. 34—Federal court of appeals in Panama Canal zone.

Aug. 35—Justice department announced investigation of American Medical association on charge of anti-trust law violation.

Aug. 36—New Dealers defeated in Virginia and Missouri Democratic primaries.

Aug. 37—William C. Dodge, former New York district attorney, linked with James J. Brannan in policy racket charges.

Aug. 38—Douglas Corrigon of Los Angeles made solo flight from New York to Dublin, Ireland, in 28 hours, 13 minutes.

Aug. 39—Governor of Iowa ordered troops to Newton, home of strike-bound miners.

Aug. 40—Five officials and 12 corporations fined in oil conspiracy case at Madison, Wis.

Aug. 41—Government began anti-monopoly suit against chief movie companies.

Aug. 42—Federal court of appeals in Panama Canal zone.

Aug. 43—Justice department announced investigation of American Medical association on charge of anti-trust law violation.

Aug. 44—New Dealers defeated in Virginia and Missouri Democratic primaries.

Aug. 45—William C. Dodge, former New York district attorney, linked with James J. Brannan in policy racket charges.

Aug. 46—Douglas Corrigon of Los Angeles made solo flight from New York to Dublin, Ireland, in 28 hours, 13 minutes.

Aug. 47—Governor of Iowa ordered troops to Newton, home of strike-bound miners.

Aug. 48—Five officials and 12 corporations fined in oil conspiracy case at Madison, Wis.

Aug. 49—Government began anti-monopoly suit against chief movie companies.

Aug. 50—Federal court of appeals in Panama Canal zone.

Aug. 51—Justice department announced investigation of American Medical association on charge of anti-trust law violation.

Aug. 52—New Dealers defeated in Virginia and Missouri Democratic primaries.

Aug. 53—William C. Dodge, former New York district attorney, linked with James J. Brannan in policy racket charges.

Aug. 54—Douglas Corrigon of Los Angeles made solo flight from New York to Dublin, Ireland, in 28 hours, 13 minutes.

Aug. 55—Governor of Iowa ordered troops to Newton, home of strike-bound miners.

Aug. 56—Five officials and 12 corporations fined in oil conspiracy case at Madison, Wis.

Aug. 57—Government began anti-monopoly suit against chief movie companies.

Aug. 58—Federal court of appeals in Panama Canal zone.

Aug. 59—Justice department announced investigation of American Medical association on charge of anti-trust law violation.

Aug. 60—New Dealers defeated in Virginia and Missouri Democratic primaries.

Aug. 61—William C. Dodge, former New York district attorney, linked with James J. Brannan in policy racket charges.

Aug. 62—Douglas Corrigon of Los Angeles made solo flight from New York to Dublin, Ireland, in 28 hours, 13 minutes.

Aug. 63—Governor of Iowa ordered troops to Newton, home of strike-bound miners.

Aug. 64—Five officials and 12 corporations fined in oil conspiracy case at Madison, Wis.

Aug. 65—Government began anti-monopoly suit against chief movie companies.

Aug. 66—Federal court of appeals in Panama Canal zone.

Aug. 67—Justice department announced investigation of American Medical association on charge of anti-trust law violation.

Aug. 68—New Dealers defeated in Virginia and Missouri Democratic primaries.

Aug. 69—William C. Dodge, former New York district attorney, linked with James J. Brannan in policy racket charges.

Aug. 70—Douglas Corrigon of Los Angeles made solo flight from New York to Dublin, Ireland, in 28 hours, 13 minutes.

Aug. 71—Governor of Iowa ordered troops to Newton, home of strike-bound miners.

Aug. 72—Five officials and 12 corporations fined in oil conspiracy case at Madison, Wis.

Aug. 73—Government began anti-monopoly suit against chief movie companies.

Aug. 74—Federal court of appeals in Panama Canal zone.

Aug. 75—Justice department announced investigation of American Medical association on charge of anti-trust law violation.

Aug. 76—New Dealers defeated in Virginia and Missouri Democratic primaries.

Aug. 77—William C. Dodge, former New York district attorney, linked with James J. Brannan in policy racket charges.

Aug. 78—Douglas Corrigon of Los Angeles made solo flight from New York to Dublin, Ireland, in 28 hours, 13 minutes.

Aug. 79—Governor of Iowa ordered troops to Newton, home of strike-bound miners.

Aug. 80—Five officials and 12 corporations fined in oil conspiracy case at Madison, Wis.

Aug. 81—Government began anti-monopoly suit against chief movie companies.

Aug. 82—Federal court of appeals in Panama Canal zone.

Aug. 83—Justice department announced investigation of American Medical association on charge of anti-trust law violation.

Aug. 84—New Dealers defeated in Virginia and Missouri Democratic primaries.

Aug. 85—William C. Dodge, former New York district attorney, linked with James J. Brannan in policy racket charges.

Aug. 86—Douglas Corrigon of Los Angeles made solo flight from New York to Dublin, Ireland, in 28 hours, 13 minutes.

Aug. 87—Governor of Iowa ordered troops to Newton, home of strike-bound miners.

Aug. 88—Five officials and 12 corporations fined in oil conspiracy case at Madison, Wis.

Aug. 89—Government began anti-monopoly suit against chief movie companies.

Aug. 90—Federal court of appeals in Panama Canal zone.

Aug. 91—Justice department announced investigation of American Medical association on charge of anti-trust law violation.

Aug. 92—New Dealers defeated in Virginia and Missouri Democratic primaries.

Aug. 93—William C. Dodge, former New York district attorney, linked with James J. Brannan in policy racket charges.

Aug. 94—Douglas Corrigon of Los Angeles made solo flight from New York to Dublin, Ireland, in 28 hours, 13 minutes.

Aug. 95—Governor of Iowa ordered troops to Newton, home of strike-bound miners.

Aug. 96—Five officials and 12 corporations fined in oil conspiracy case at Madison, Wis.

Aug. 97—Government began anti-monopoly suit against chief movie companies.

Aug. 98—Federal court of appeals in Panama Canal zone.

Aug. 99—Justice department announced investigation of American Medical association on charge of anti-trust law violation.

Aug. 100—New Dealers defeated in Virginia and Missouri Democratic primaries.

Aug. 101—William C. Dodge, former New York district attorney, linked with James J. Brannan in policy racket charges.

Aug. 102—Douglas Corrigon of Los Angeles made solo flight from New York to Dublin, Ireland, in 28 hours, 13 minutes.

Aug. 103—Governor of Iowa ordered troops to Newton, home of strike-bound miners.

Aug. 104—Five officials and 12 corporations fined in oil conspiracy case at Madison, Wis.

Aug. 105—Government began anti-monopoly suit against chief movie companies.

Aug. 106—Federal court of appeals in Panama Canal zone.

Aug. 107—Justice department announced investigation of American Medical association on charge of anti-trust law violation.

Aug. 108—New Dealers defeated in Virginia and Missouri Democratic primaries.

Aug. 109—William C. Dodge, former New York district attorney, linked with James J. Brannan in policy racket charges.

Aug. 110—Douglas Corrigon of Los Angeles made solo flight from New York to Dublin, Ireland, in 28 hours, 13 minutes.

Aug. 111—Governor of Iowa ordered troops to Newton, home of strike-bound miners.

Aug. 112—Five officials and 12 corporations fined in oil conspiracy case at Madison, Wis.

Aug. 113—Government began anti-monopoly suit against chief movie companies.

Aug. 114—Federal court of appeals in Panama Canal zone.

Aug. 115—Justice department announced investigation of American Medical association on charge of anti-trust law violation.

Aug. 116—New Dealers defeated in Virginia and Missouri Democratic primaries.

Aug. 117—William C. Dodge, former New York district attorney, linked with James J. Brannan in policy racket charges.

Aug. 118—Douglas Corrigon of Los Angeles made solo flight from New York to Dublin, Ireland, in 28 hours, 13 minutes.

Aug. 119—Governor of Iowa ordered troops to Newton, home of strike-bound miners.

Aug. 120—Five officials and 12 corporations fined in oil conspiracy case at Madison, Wis.

Aug. 121—Government began anti-monopoly suit against chief movie companies.

Aug. 122—Federal court of appeals in Panama Canal zone.

Aug. 123—Justice department announced investigation of American Medical association on charge of anti-trust law violation.

Aug. 124—New Dealers defeated in Virginia and Missouri Democratic primaries.

Aug. 125—William C. Dodge, former New York district attorney, linked with James J. Brannan in policy racket charges.

Aug. 126—Douglas Corrigon of Los Angeles made solo flight from New York to Dublin, Ireland, in 28 hours, 13 minutes.

Aug. 127—Governor of Iowa ordered troops to Newton, home of strike-bound miners.

Aug. 128—Five officials and 12 corporations fined in oil conspiracy case at Madison, Wis.

Aug. 129—Government began anti-monopoly suit against chief movie companies.

Aug. 130—Federal court of appeals in Panama Canal zone.

Aug. 131—Justice department announced investigation of American Medical association on charge of anti-trust law violation.

Aug. 132—New Dealers defeated in Virginia and Missouri Democratic primaries.

Aug. 133—William C. Dodge, former New York district attorney, linked with James J. Brannan in policy racket charges.

Aug. 134—Douglas Corrigon of Los Angeles made solo flight from New York to Dublin, Ireland, in 28 hours, 13 minutes.

Aug. 135—Governor of Iowa ordered troops to Newton, home of strike-bound miners.

Aug. 136—Five officials and 12 corporations fined in oil conspiracy case at Madison, Wis.

Aug. 137—Government began anti-monopoly suit against chief movie companies.

Aug. 138—Federal court of appeals in Panama Canal zone.

Aug. 139—Justice department announced investigation of American Medical association on charge of anti-trust law violation.

Aug. 140—New Dealers defeated in Virginia and Missouri Democratic primaries.

Aug. 141—William C. Dodge, former New York district attorney, linked with James J. Brannan in policy racket charges.

Aug. 142—Douglas Corrigon of Los Angeles made solo flight from New York to Dublin, Ireland, in 28 hours, 13 minutes.

Aug. 143—Governor of Iowa ordered troops to Newton, home of strike-bound miners.

Aug. 144—Five officials and 12 corporations fined in oil conspiracy case at Madison, Wis.

Aug. 145—Government began anti-monopoly suit against chief movie companies.

Aug. 146—Federal court of appeals in Panama Canal zone.

Aug. 147—Justice department announced investigation of American Medical association on charge of anti-trust law violation.

Aug. 148—New Dealers defeated in Virginia and Missouri Democratic primaries.

Aug. 149—William C. Dodge, former New York district attorney, linked with James J. Brannan in policy racket charges.

Aug. 150—Douglas Corrigon of Los Angeles made solo flight from New York to Dublin, Ireland, in 28 hours, 13 minutes.

Aug. 151—Governor of Iowa ordered troops to Newton, home of strike-bound miners.

Aug. 152—Five officials and 12 corporations fined in oil conspiracy case at Madison, Wis.

Aug. 153—Government began anti-monopoly suit against chief movie companies.

Aug. 154—Federal court of appeals in Panama Canal zone.

Aug. 155—Justice department announced investigation of American Medical association on charge of anti-trust law violation.

Aug. 156—New Dealers defeated in Virginia and Missouri Democratic primaries.

Aug. 157—William C. Dodge, former New York district attorney, linked with James J. Brannan in policy racket charges.

Aug. 158—Douglas Corrigon of Los Angeles made solo flight from New York to Dublin, Ireland, in 28 hours, 13 minutes.

Aug. 159—Governor of Iowa ordered troops to Newton, home of strike-bound miners.

Aug. 160—Five officials and 12 corporations fined in oil conspiracy case at Madison, Wis.

Aug. 161—Government began anti-monopoly suit against chief movie companies.

Aug. 162—Federal court of appeals in Panama Canal zone.

Aug. 163—Justice department announced investigation of American Medical association on charge of anti-trust law violation.

Aug. 164—New Dealers defeated in Virginia and Missouri Democratic primaries.

Aug. 165—William C. Dodge, former New York district attorney, linked with James J. Brannan in policy racket charges.

Aug. 166—Douglas Corrigon of Los Angeles made solo flight from New York to Dublin, Ireland, in 28 hours, 13 minutes.

Aug. 167—Governor of Iowa ordered troops to Newton, home of strike-bound miners.

Aug. 168—Five officials and 12 corporations fined in oil conspiracy case at Madison, Wis.

Aug. 169—Government began anti-monopoly suit against chief movie companies.

Aug. 170—Federal court of appeals in Panama Canal zone.

Aug. 171—Justice department announced investigation of American Medical association on charge of anti-trust law violation.

Aug. 172—New Dealers defeated in Virginia and Missouri Democratic primaries.

Aug. 173—William C. Dodge, former New York district attorney, linked with James J. Brannan in policy racket charges.

Aug. 174—Douglas Corrigon of Los Angeles made solo flight from New York to Dublin, Ireland, in 28 hours, 13 minutes.

Aug. 175—Governor of Iowa ordered troops to Newton, home of strike-bound miners.

Aug. 176—Five officials and 12 corporations fined in oil conspiracy case at Madison, Wis.

Aug. 177—Government began anti-monopoly suit against chief movie companies.

Aug. 178—Federal court of appeals in Panama Canal zone.

Aug. 179—Justice department announced investigation of American Medical association on charge of anti-trust law violation.

Aug. 180—New Dealers defeated in Virginia and Missouri Democratic primaries.

Aug. 181—William C. Dodge, former New York district attorney, linked with James J. Brannan in policy racket charges.

Aug. 182—Douglas Corrigon of Los Angeles made solo flight from New York to Dublin, Ireland, in 28 hours, 13 minutes.

Aug. 183—Governor of Iowa ordered troops to Newton, home of strike-bound miners.

Aug. 184—Five officials and 12 corporations fined in oil conspiracy case at Madison, Wis.

Aug. 185—Government began anti-monopoly suit against chief movie companies.

Aug. 186—Federal court of appeals in Panama Canal zone.

Aug. 187—Justice department announced investigation of American Medical association on charge of anti-trust law violation.

Aug. 188—New Dealers defeated in Virginia and Missouri Democratic primaries.

Aug. 189—William C. Dodge, former New York district attorney, linked with James J. Brannan in policy racket charges.

Aug. 190—Douglas Corrigon of Los Angeles made solo flight from New York to Dublin, Ireland, in 28 hours, 13 minutes.

Aug. 191—Governor of Iowa ordered troops to Newton, home of strike-bound miners.

Aug. 192—Five officials and 12 corporations fined in oil conspiracy case at Madison, Wis.

Aug. 193—Government began anti-monopoly suit against chief movie companies.

Aug. 194—Federal court of appeals in Panama Canal zone.

Aug. 195—Justice department announced investigation of American Medical association on charge of anti-trust law violation.

Aug. 196—New Dealers defeated in Virginia and Missouri Democratic primaries.

Aug. 197—William C. Dodge, former New York district attorney, linked with James J. Brannan in policy racket charges.

Aug. 198—Douglas Corrigon of Los Angeles made solo flight from New York to Dublin, Ireland, in 28 hours, 13 minutes.

Aug. 199—Governor of Iowa ordered troops to Newton, home of strike-bound miners.

Aug. 200—Five officials and 12 corporations fined in oil conspiracy case at Madison, Wis.

Aug. 201—Government began anti-monopoly suit against chief movie companies.

Aug. 202—Federal court of appeals in Panama Canal zone.

Aug. 203—Justice department announced investigation of American Medical association on charge of anti-trust law violation.

Aug. 204—New Dealers defeated in Virginia and Missouri Democratic primaries.

Aug. 205—William C. Dodge, former New York district attorney, linked with James J. Brannan in policy racket charges.

Aug. 206—Douglas Corrigon of Los Angeles made solo flight from New York to Dublin, Ireland, in 28 hours, 13 minutes.

Aug. 207—Governor of Iowa ordered troops to Newton, home of strike-bound miners.

Aug. 208—Five officials and 12 corporations fined in oil conspiracy case at Madison, Wis.

Aug. 209—Government began anti-monopoly suit against chief movie companies.

Aug. 210—Federal court of appeals in Panama Canal zone.

Aug. 211—Justice department announced investigation of American Medical association on charge of anti-trust law violation.

Aug. 212—New Dealers defeated in Virginia and Missouri Democratic primaries.

Aug. 213—William C. Dodge, former New York district attorney, linked with James J. Brannan in policy racket charges.

Aug. 214—Douglas Corrigon of Los Angeles made solo flight from New York to Dublin, Ireland, in 28 hours, 13 minutes.

Aug. 215—Governor of Iowa ordered troops to Newton, home of strike-bound miners.

Aug. 216—Five officials and 12 corporations fined in oil conspiracy case at Madison, Wis.

Aug. 217—Government began anti-monopoly suit against chief movie companies.

Aug. 218—Federal court of appeals in Panama Canal zone.

Aug. 219—Justice department announced investigation of American Medical association on charge of anti-trust law violation.

Aug. 220—New Dealers defeated in Virginia and Missouri Democratic primaries.

Aug. 221—William C. Dodge, former New York district attorney, linked with James J. Brannan in policy racket charges.

Aug. 222—Douglas Corrigon of Los Angeles made solo flight from New York to Dublin, Ireland, in 28 hours, 13 minutes.

Aug. 223—Governor of Iowa ordered troops to Newton, home of strike-bound miners.

Aug. 224—Five officials and 12 corporations fined in oil conspiracy case at Madison, Wis.

Aug. 225—Government began anti-monopoly suit against chief movie companies.

Aug. 226—Federal court of appeals in Panama Canal zone.

Aug. 227—Justice department announced investigation of American Medical association on charge of anti-trust law violation.

Aug. 228—New Dealers defeated in Virginia and Missouri Democratic primaries.

Aug. 229—William C. Dodge, former New York district attorney, linked with James J. Brannan in policy racket charges.

Aug. 230—Douglas Corrigon of Los Angeles made solo flight from New York to Dublin, Ireland, in 28 hours, 13 minutes.

Aug. 231—Governor of Iowa ordered troops to Newton, home of strike-bound miners.

Aug. 232—Five officials and 12 corporations fined in oil conspiracy case at Madison, Wis.

Aug. 233—Government began anti-monopoly suit against chief movie companies.

Aug. 234—Federal court of appeals in Panama Canal zone.

Aug. 235—Justice department announced investigation of American Medical association on charge of anti-trust law violation.

Aug. 236—New Dealers defeated in Virginia and Missouri Democratic primaries.

Aug. 237—William C. Dodge, former New York district attorney, linked with James J. Brannan in policy racket charges.

Aug. 238—Douglas Corrigon of Los Angeles made solo flight from New York to Dublin, Ireland, in 28 hours, 13 minutes.

Aug. 239—Governor of Iowa ordered troops to Newton, home of strike-bound miners.

Aug. 240—Five officials and 12 corporations fined in oil conspiracy case at Madison, Wis.

Aug. 241—Government began anti-monopoly suit against chief movie companies.

Aug. 242—Federal court of appeals in Panama Canal zone.

Aug. 243—Justice department announced investigation of American Medical association on charge of anti-trust law violation.

Aug. 244—New Dealers defeated in Virginia and Missouri Democratic primaries.

Aug. 245—William C. Dodge, former New York district attorney, linked with James J. Brannan in policy racket charges.

Aug. 246—Douglas Corrigon of Los Angeles made solo flight from New York to Dublin, Ireland, in 28 hours, 13 minutes.

Aug. 247—Governor of Iowa ordered troops to Newton, home of strike-bound miners.

Aug. 248—Five officials and 12 corporations fined in oil conspiracy case at Madison, Wis.

Aug. 249—Government began anti-monopoly suit against chief movie companies.

Aug. 250—Federal court of appeals in Panama Canal zone.

Aug. 251—Justice department announced investigation of American Medical association on charge of anti-trust law violation.

Aug. 252—New Dealers defeated in Virginia and Missouri Democratic primaries.

Aug. 253—William C. Dodge, former New York district attorney, linked with James J. Brannan in policy racket charges.

Aug. 254—Douglas Corrigon of Los Angeles made solo flight from New York to Dublin, Ireland, in 28 hours, 13 minutes.

Aug. 255—Governor of Iowa ordered troops to Newton, home of strike-bound miners.

Aug. 256—Five officials and 12 corporations fined in oil conspiracy case at Madison, Wis.

Aug. 257—Government began anti-monopoly suit against chief movie companies.

Aug. 258—Federal court of appeals in Panama Canal zone.

Aug. 259—Justice department announced investigation of American Medical association on charge of anti-trust law violation.

Aug. 260—New Dealers defeated in Virginia and Missouri Democratic primaries.

Aug. 261—William C. Dodge, former New York district attorney, linked with James J. Brannan in policy racket charges.

Aug. 262—Douglas Corrigon of Los Angeles made solo flight from New York to Dublin, Ireland, in 28 hours, 13 minutes.

Aug. 263—Governor of Iowa ordered troops to Newton, home of strike-bound miners.

Aug. 264—Five officials and 12 corporations fined in oil conspiracy case at Madison, Wis.

Aug. 265—Government began anti-monopoly suit against chief movie companies.

Aug. 266—Federal court of appeals in Panama Canal zone.

Aug. 267—Justice department announced investigation of American Medical association on charge of anti-trust law violation.

Aug. 268—New Dealers defeated in Virginia and Missouri Democratic primaries.

Aug. 269—William C. Dodge, former New York district attorney, linked with James J. Brannan in policy racket charges.

Aug. 270—Douglas Corrigon of Los Angeles made solo flight from New York to Dublin, Ireland, in 28 hours, 13 minutes.

Aug. 271—Governor of Iowa ordered troops to Newton, home of strike-bound miners.

Aug. 272—Five officials and 12 corporations fined in oil conspiracy case at Madison, Wis.

Aug. 273—Government began anti-monopoly suit against chief movie companies.

Aug. 274—Federal court of appeals in Panama Canal zone.

Aug. 275—Justice department announced investigation of American Medical association on charge of anti-trust law violation.

Aug. 276—New Dealers defeated in Virginia and Missouri Democratic primaries.

Aug. 277—William C. Dodge, former New York district attorney, linked with James J. Brannan in policy racket charges.

Aug. 278—Douglas Corrigon of Los Angeles made solo flight from New York to Dublin, Ireland, in 28 hours, 13 minutes.

Aug. 279—Governor of Iowa ordered troops to Newton, home of strike-bound miners.

Aug. 280—Five officials and 12 corporations fined in oil conspiracy case at Madison, Wis.

Aug. 281—Government began anti-monopoly suit against chief movie companies.

Aug. 282—Federal court of appeals in Panama Canal zone.

Aug. 283—Justice department announced investigation of American Medical association on charge of anti-trust law violation.

Aug. 284—New Dealers defeated in Virginia and Missouri Democratic primaries.

Aug. 285—William C. Dodge, former New York district attorney, linked with James J. Brannan in policy racket charges.

Aug. 286—Douglas Corrigon of Los Angeles made solo flight from New York to Dublin, Ireland, in 28 hours, 13 minutes.

Aug. 287—Governor of Iowa ordered troops to Newton, home of strike-bound miners.

Aug. 288—Five officials and 12 corporations fined in oil conspiracy case at Madison, Wis.

Aug. 289—Government began anti-monopoly suit against chief movie companies.

Aug. 290—Federal court of appeals in Panama Canal zone.

Aug. 291—Justice department announced investigation of American Medical association on charge of anti-trust law violation.

Aug. 292—New Dealers defeated in Virginia and Missouri Democratic primaries.

Aug. 293—William C. Dodge, former New York district attorney, linked with James J. Brannan in policy racket charges.

Aug. 294—Douglas Corrigon of Los Angeles made solo flight from New York to Dublin, Ireland, in 28 hours, 13 minutes.

Aug. 295—Governor of Iowa ordered troops to Newton, home of strike-bound miners.

Aug. 296—Five officials and 12 corporations fined in oil conspiracy case at Madison, Wis.

Aug. 297—Government began anti-monopoly suit against chief movie companies.

Aug. 298—Federal court of appeals in Panama Canal zone.

Aug. 299—Justice department announced investigation of American Medical association on charge of anti-trust law violation.

Aug. 300—New Dealers defeated in Virginia and Missouri Democratic primaries.

Aug. 301—William C. Dodge, former New York district attorney, linked with James J. Brannan in policy racket charges.

Aug. 302—Douglas Corrigon of Los Angeles made solo flight from New York to Dublin, Ireland, in 28 hours, 13 minutes.

Aug. 303—Governor of Iowa ordered troops to Newton, home of strike-bound miners.

Aug. 304—Five officials and 12 corporations fined in oil conspiracy case at Madison, Wis.

Aug. 305—Government began anti-monopoly suit against chief movie companies.

Aug. 306—Federal court of appeals in Panama Canal zone.

Aug. 307—Justice department announced investigation of American Medical association on charge of anti-trust law violation.

Aug. 308—New Dealers defeated in Virginia and Missouri Democratic primaries.

Aug. 309—William C. Dodge, former New York district attorney, linked with James J. Brannan in policy racket charges.

Aug. 310—Douglas Corrigon of Los Angeles made solo flight from New York to Dublin, Ireland, in 28 hours, 13 minutes.

Aug. 311—Governor of Iowa ordered troops to Newton, home of strike-bound miners.

Aug. 312—Five officials and 12 corporations fined in oil conspiracy case at Madison, Wis.

Aug. 313—Government began anti-monopoly suit against chief movie companies.

Aug. 314—Federal court of appeals in Panama Canal zone.

Aug. 315—Justice department announced investigation of American Medical association on charge of anti-trust law violation.

Aug. 316—New Dealers defeated in Virginia and Missouri Democratic primaries.

Aug. 317—William C. Dodge, former New York district attorney, linked with James J. Brannan in policy racket charges.

Aug. 318—Douglas Corrigon of Los Angeles made solo flight from New York to Dublin, Ireland, in 28 hours, 13 minutes.

Aug. 319—Governor of Iowa ordered troops to Newton, home of strike-bound miners.

Aug. 320—Five officials and 12 corporations fined in oil conspiracy case at Madison, Wis.

Aug. 321—Government began anti-monopoly suit against chief movie companies.

Aug. 322—Federal court of appeals in Panama Canal zone.

Aug. 323—Justice department announced investigation of American Medical association on charge of anti-trust law violation.

Aug. 324—New Dealers defeated in Virginia and Missouri Democratic primaries.

Aug. 325—William C. Dodge, former New York district attorney, linked with James J. Brannan in policy racket charges.

Aug. 326—Douglas Corrigon of Los Angeles made solo flight from New York to Dublin, Ireland, in 28 hours, 13 minutes.

Aug. 327—Governor of Iowa ordered troops to Newton, home of strike-bound miners.

Aug. 328—Five officials and 12 corporations fined in oil conspiracy case at Madison, Wis.

Aug. 329—Government began anti-monopoly suit against chief movie companies.

Aug. 330—Federal court of appeals in Panama Canal zone.

Aug. 331—Justice department announced investigation of American Medical association on charge of anti-trust law violation.

Aug. 332—New Dealers defeated in Virginia and Missouri Democratic primaries.

Aug. 333—William C. Dodge, former New York district attorney, linked with James J. Brannan in policy racket charges.

Aug. 334—Douglas Corrigon of Los Angeles made solo flight from New York to Dublin, Ireland, in 28 hours, 13 minutes.

Aug. 335—Governor of Iowa ordered troops to Newton, home of strike-bound miners.

Aug. 336—Five officials and 12 corporations fined in oil conspiracy case at Madison, Wis.

Aug. 337—Government began anti-monopoly suit against chief movie companies.

Aug. 338—Federal court of appeals in Panama Canal zone.

Aug. 339—Justice department announced investigation of American Medical association on charge of anti-trust law violation.

Aug. 340—New Dealers defeated in Virginia and Missouri Democratic primaries.

Aug. 341—William C. Dodge, former New York district attorney, linked with James J. Brannan in policy racket charges.

Aug. 342—Douglas Corrigon of Los Angeles made solo flight from New York to Dublin, Ireland, in 28 hours, 13 minutes.

Aug. 343—Governor of Iowa ordered troops to Newton, home of strike-bound miners.

Aug. 344—Five officials and 12 corporations fined in oil conspiracy case at Madison, Wis.

Aug. 345—Government began anti-monopoly suit against chief movie companies.

Aug. 346—Federal court of appeals in Panama Canal zone.

Aug. 347—Justice department announced investigation of American Medical association on charge of anti-trust law violation.

Aug. 348—New Dealers defeated in Virginia and Missouri Democratic primaries.

Aug. 349—William C. Dodge, former New York district attorney, linked with James J. Brannan in policy racket charges.

Aug. 350—Douglas Corrigon of Los Angeles made solo flight from New York to Dublin, Ireland, in 28 hours, 13 minutes.

Aug. 351—Governor of Iowa ordered troops to Newton, home of strike-bound miners.

Aug. 352—Five officials and 12 corporations fined in oil conspiracy case at Madison, Wis.

Aug. 353—Government began anti-monopoly suit against chief movie companies.

Aug. 354—Federal court of appeals in Panama Canal zone.

Aug. 355—Justice department announced investigation of American Medical association on charge of anti-trust law violation.

Aug. 356—New Dealers defeated in Virginia and Missouri Democratic