SHERIFF GETS GOLD NUGGET

St. Louis, Mo.—Behind the bars in his cell, Valentine Burke is deep in the morning paper. Mr. Burke seems not to like the news, for he throws down the sheet and stamps it under foot. He picks it up again and reads. There must be something personal in it to so hold Mr. B. Next the prisoner gets the eye of a guard. Yes, the guard will get a message out to the man who is so freely quoted in the columns. Mr. Burke would see him. In due time the stranger comes and the two talk. And next you see for the millionth time and then some, the old, old, and yet ever new chapter. A convicted sinner kneels to receive Jesus Christ as Saviour and Lord. What? Yes, the mighty God has received Valentine Burke into the family of the redeemed.—For God So Loved You And He And Burke That He Gave His Only Begotten Son That if We Believe On Him We Should not stay on the junk heap but have Eternal Life. It all came about in this wise. In one of his St. Louis meetings, the papers told Mr. Moody that they would quote him at length. So Mr. Moody filled his messages with Scripture and out of it Burke, the notorious criminal was converted.

New York City.—"A wire for you Mr. Burke." The message was from the sheriff in St. Louis. Burke was wanted; come back. What now? Had he not gone straight these months? In poverty, yes. But on the square. So back he goes to hear the officer say—"Burke, we have followed you all these months and we know you will go straight and keep straight. We are making you a deputy sheriff."

Some years later.—"Sheriff, will you send Burke over to the meeting? The place is packed, and the preacher whom they came to hear is suddenly laid low. Burke can hold them. We want Burke." And the sheriff was sorry but that $50,000 jewelry stock was being inventoried by Burke and there was no one else to be trusted with the job. True enough. If Any Man Be Indwelt by Christ Jesus He Belongs to a New Order of Creatures On The Earth. Old things have passed away. All things have become new. See 2 Corinthians 5:17.

RALEIGH NEWS

The Raleigh community and parents' group met last Monday evening in the auditorium of the Raleigh school. This group, which is organized for the purpose of bettering school and community life, and is composed of two groups in one, meets the second Monday of each month. Mrs. Hy Samuels is the president of the parents' group. The secretary is Mrs. Thos. Lilles, and the cafeteria treasurer is Thos. Nichols. The general treasurer is Mr. Pollard, and Mr. Mallan is project chairman and has charge of community work. The meeting Monday was the first one held in conjunction with the community group. The usual entertainment was dispensed with in order to give more time for the organization. There are hostesses at each meeting and refreshments are served. The parents' group are enthusiastic over the interest that is shown in school affairs, and feel schools in Washington county. A new furnace, oil burner, has recently been installed. An excellent cafeteria is maintained at which well-balanced and nourishing meals are served. This project is more than self-supporting, and recently the price of meals has been cut in half with no reduction in the high standard set. This school district is prosperous and the parents are deeply interested in promoting the welfare of their children. This group recently raised money to start a library for the school. The community group will stress district improvement. All money is raised through projects as there are no fees in connection with the organization. All members of the community are invited to attend and participate in this organization.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Grainger and family are moving soon to California. While their friends are glad that a promotion in his firm is responsible for the Grainger's leaving, still they are sorry to lose this excellent family from the community. There have been a number of social affairs given in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Grainger.

A large group from Beaver Chapter of Eastern Star attended the installation ceremonies at the Oswego chapter Thursday night and at Oronomah chapter at Mullinoham Saturday night. Those in attendance were Bess Lacy, H. G. Poulson, Stella Ellis, Madge Ellander and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Goyt.

Purely Personal Ponderings: Saw a pack of Duke's Mixture the other day, which brings up memories of Pieper Hiedtschek and Sweet Burley Finecut purloined from my sire's supply, and the prodigious sickness which resulted—truly an adventure in island mal de mer.

Wonder if school principals still wield the rubber tube, and if so, what they expect to profit by it except the fleeting satisfaction of venting their spleen, which must always be followed by smoldering regret. Corporal punishment of a child, regardless of who administers it, is always an admission of weakness on the part of the parent or teacher who resorts to it.

Baseball ballyhoo just coming up—miles of free advertising for a purely commercial industry which refuses to advertise. One refreshing phase of the recent football season—clear cut admission by all colleges that they hire players. A sweet brand of football we'd get if the colleges had to draw their players only from youths whose dads could buy them a college education.

HOME HELPS

Dear Third Rail: My husband has contracted the snoring vice. It is terrible. He keeps me awake several hours every night. I think he snores deliberately and has been taking lessons from a snoring professor. Please tell me what to do. Sincerely,
Mrs. P. J. B.

Dear Mrs. P. J. B.: I fear you have the wrong conception of your husband's malady. No, indeed, he does not snore deliberately. It may surprise you to learn that you are responsible for his deplorable condition. When a man snores it is because of unjust criticism and more or less constant complaining by his wife. When he relapses into slumber his sub-conscious self attempts a defense which his conscious self is unable or reluctant to make. This results in snoring. Did you ever hear of a snoring bachelor? Of course not. Treat your husband with considerate kindness at all times. Praise him frequently and think always of his comfort. Never criticize or complain. After a few months of this you will notice a great change in him. Feel free to call upon this department for advice at all times.
The Third Rail.

Uncle Henry Henstetter says, "Old Banse Snodgrass has such a cigarette company 'cause their brand didn't cure his rheumatism, as advertised over the radio."
