PROFESSOR MCGUFF IS A GLAD-HAPPY GUY. WHO GAMBLE HIS LIFE FOR A LONG BUTTERFLY.

BUT HE FINALLY HAS RETURNED ON GOODFOL MCGUFF WHO GAMBLE HIS LIFE FOR A MORE RIGHT-OF-WAY.

National Safety Council

Gambling one's life and property on the right-of-way at an intersection is like gambling against a crooked roulette wheel—one may win a few seconds now and then, but the losses when they occur, will be extortionately heavy. Secretary of State Earl Snell states:

Failure to give right of way contributed to more traffic crashes than any other improper driving action in this state last year, figuring in 9133 cases. Fifteen of these accidents resulted fatally, and more than 1000 of them produced injuries.

Designed largely to determine which party was in the right following collisions at intersections, the right-of-way law itself is of little benefit in preventing accidents when drivers insist on taking advantage of their right-of-way privilege at every opportunity.

Briefly stated, the car approaching from the right has the right-of-way at an ordinary intersection, while a car stopped at a through street must yield the right-of-way to all other traffic approaching so closely as to constitute an immediate hazard. Cars traveling at unlawful speed forfeit whatever right-of-way they otherwise might have had.

BLOOD ON THE DOOR POST.

"When I see the blood I will pass over you and the plague shall not be upon you to destroy you, when I smite the land of Egypt." So spoke God to the Hebrew people at the end of their bitter Egyptian bondage. The fathers obeyed; a lamb was killed for each household and the blood put on the door-post. By that the first-born of the Hebrews would be kept. TRUST and OBEY was the rule that day.

"And it came to pass that at midnight the Lord smote all the first-born in the land of Egypt, from the first-born of Pharaoh who sat on the throne to the first-born of the captive in the dungeon." Ex 12:29.

Safe under the blood was the Hebrew. That very night the Lord's people left Egypt to go dry-shod through the Red sea on their way toward the Promised Land. And in the years to come the blood never lost its power. Had one of them sinned? Let him repent and bring a lamb as a sacrifice to be offered on the altar. By that his sin was covered over, for—"The life of the flesh is in the blood. I have given it to you upon the altar to make a covering for your sins." So means Lv 17:11.

"HOT COPY" IS SENIOR CLASS PLAY

A high falutin', rootin'-tootin' newspaper comedy is the theme of senior class play to be presented April 21, in the high school gym.

Even if the play is no further than the first act it plans to be the greatest attraction ever presented in this community.

Practicing ball tricks, trucking, missing snes, saying the wrong lines, and studying English are the main attractions at the practices.

Leading the cast is Jack Culbertson in the role of Bill Gregory, a young reporter with a great ambition.

Frances Brindell plays the part of Sylvia Dale another young reporter handling society columns and want ads; also he is "that way" about Bill Gregory.

Bud Rice, the man in charge of the Herald "back office" is played by Paul Schiebel.

A sob sister and carrying a torch for the editor and publisher, Kenneth Wade, played by Billy Bishop, is Pat Ward.

The outstanding colored boy, Randolph Peters, is played by Curtis Riley.

Ole Tollefson plays the sinister villain who threatens to foreclose on the mortgag.

Red Rice, the printer, is played by Lorell Boy.

Mrs. Devine, a meddlesome old busy body, is played by Shirley Frey.

La Ray's gassing and flattering, combined with Curtis' black face act will give many laughs.

Miss Sanford's commendable work in the past will again show itself in this fast-moving comedy.

SENIORS LAUNCH ANNUAL ON WAY

A much bigger and better annual is being put out by the graduating seniors of '39 under the supervision of Miss Watkins and Mr. Duncan, senior advisors.

The girls who were chosen as the 20 prettiest girls in high school have had their pictures taken at Gladys Gilbert's studio where a great deal of time and energy was spent upon the girls by Miss Gilbert herself. The most attractive will be chosen by Errol Flynn, Bob Hope, and Richard Greene, well known movie stars who have consented to judge the glamour girls and who have the pictures in their possession at the present time. The annual staff is anxiously awaiting their decision which will not be disclosed until the annual comes out.

April 1 was the date on which all material went to press for the large 64 page annual. It will be back and ready for sale and distribution on May 1.

The annual is being lithographed by Irwin Hodson Co. at the cost of $625. Because of the lithographic process it is possible to have larger pictures than those found in previous annuals.

BEAVERTON GIRLS ATTEND POW-WOW

A heap big sports "pow-wow" was held at Pacific university, March 18.

Representatives from this school were Nancy Junor, Betty Drorbaugh, Louise Heugben, Leila Trowbridge, Annabelle Moshofsky, Inez Miller, Vivian Eggers, Louise Bizzi, Margaret Holboke, and Mabel Kent.

They were asked to take with them gym suits, shoes, swimming suits and caps.

Delegates from all schools in the county were there.

Miss Duff accompanied the girls.

ENGLISH TEACHER TAKES NEW JOB

(By Kenneth Burson)
Last Friday, Beaverton bid Miss Elizabeth Watkins, a fond farewell. The English instructor left Beaverton to accept a Civil Service office position in the Land division of the Bonneville dam project.

Miss Watkins took the civil service typing exam in June, 1936. "Just to see what the test was like, and what I could do with it," she said. She received the returns in May, 1937, and since then has had four opportunities for jobs. She didn't, however, accept a position until she was notified of the above mentioned opening.

She will work in a very modern office building on the east side in Portland.

During her three years at Beaverton, Miss Watkins' perennial good nature and fine sense of humor have turned English, an ordinarily dull subject, into a lively and interesting class. She has also been instrumental in putting out High grade Annuals for the past four years.

She has elevated the taste of the student body in its appreciation of music through the type of music sung by the glee clubs both at the music tournament at Forest Grove, and in the operettas and concerts presented at the high school.

"I certainly hate to give up working with the musical organizations," she stated, with an expression of mingled eagerness and regret.

Mrs. Metzler will take her place for the rest of the year.

BISHOP AND SEE WORRY ABOUT FIRE

Nero may have fiddled while Rome burned, but Billy Bishop and Jack See quickly notified the occupants of a Louse near Milwa-see, when they saw the chimney was ablaze.

The boys were on their way to the skating party Friday night, when they saw the fire and noticed that no one seemed aware of it. After telling the people, and after the man had wasted much time looking for the fire department's phone number, Billy and Jack ascend the roof to see if they could do anything. The flames were roaring from the chimney two feet high and still the fire apparatus didn't show up. Although the rafters were beginning to smoulder, the truck leapt surely grove up, the firemen crawled out, and calmly watched the fire for several minutes.

After what seemed like interminable hours to the boys perched on the roof, the firemen produced their equipment and methodically prevented the flames from spreading.

After the fire was out the boys asked the owner why he looked so relieved. "My wife's been after me for months to have a phone put in, and we got one this morning," he replied with a chuckle.

JUNIORS LEARNING TRAFFIC SAFETY

Juniors are receiving instructions from Portland's traffic safety organization which is conducting an eight weeks course on Thursdays through Mr. Duncan's morning classes. These driving classes are being conducted in Portland high schools, Beaverton and Gresham high schools, St. Helens hall and at the Portland public market.

Tests will be given from the books, pamphlets, and discussions in class. At the end of the course, a certificate will be given to each student satisfactorily passing.

Two new members, Eldon Jenne and Roy Chase were initiated into the Hi-Y at the regular induction ceremony held at Hillsboro, Monday evening, March 13.

COLLEGE EXAMS ARE COMING UP

During junior week-end, April 28, 29, Maryhurst College competitive contests will be held for high school seniors who desire scholarships.

Three scholarships in each of the following departments will be given: Literature, social sciences, natural sciences, art, dramatics, and music.

A tuition scholarship amounting to $750.00 will be the first award in each division. Partial scholarships of $50.00 each will be awarded to second and third winners.

Official application blanks may be secured from the registrar and must be returned on or before April 10.

Reed College offers full and part tuition scholarships awarded through interscholastic competition. This competition requires the writing of a short essay and the taking of an examination.

For detailed information, address to the following: The Directors of Admission, Reed College, Portland, Oregon.

BEAVERTON DEMOSTHENES TO GO TO WILLAMETTE

Mr. Webb, speech instructor, will select his teams for the Willamette tournament, through tryouts starting March 29. The tournament will be held at Willamette university, April 23 and 24.

Three teams will be entered, each composed of three members, in the fields of oration, interpreting, declamation, and extemporaneous speech.

Beaver Grandstand Wakes Up-Speaks

"My name is Beaverton Grandstand and I live at Beaverton high school. One remarkable thing about me is my nice new white paint. By golly did you know that I was one of the few painted Grandstands in this state? How do I know that? Well, some people were standing on my right ear one day and I heard them say so. Yes, and on my shoulder they're putting green epaulets of laurel shrubs. Pretty swell, eh? But that glass fronted cap they gave me is on only one other Grandstand in Oregon, Multnomah stadium in Portland.

I'm strong and tough too, but that isn't any reason for trying to take me apart first chance you get. I have eyes and I can

AMOS 'N' ANDY TALKS BIG

AND 'BIG MIKE' TALKS BACK

With statistics showing that Amos 'n' Andy have increased their total listening audience more than 12 percent over the past six years, their sponsors, the Campbell Soup Company, have moved them to the still larger Columbia Broadcasting System's nationwide network of 35 stations, beginning Monday, April 3, at their regular time.

Thus, when Bill Hay sounds his familiar signal—"here they ARE!"—Amos (Freeman S. Gosden) 'n' Andy (Charles Correll)—left, above—in introducing Miss (Madaline Lee) Blue, the Kingfish, Brother Crawford, Lightnin' and all the other citizens of radio's make-believe Harlem to a nation which has followed their adventures for 11 years, Gaylord Carter, their organist, continues with them.
