

West Slope

The West Slope Improvement Club will meet Friday, April 14, at the Sylvan school at 8 p. m. The officers of the club report that they have received word of a great victory in their telephone battle, the details of which will be given at the meeting. Mr. Russell of the Public Utilities Commission and the telephone company officials will be present and will make a detailed report. The club feels this is an occasion for a celebration and that it has again proven its worth. They wish to thank Mr. Moore and Mr. Brisbane for their wonderful work, and to urge all members to be present April 14.

Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Stewart spent the week end at Ocean Lake.

Mrs. Theodore Krueger and Miss Clara Sigerud of Seattle are guests this week of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Nichol on Canyon Drive.

Capt. Webb is building a new home next to the Carl Johnson house on Canyon Crest.

Mr. and Mrs. M. W. Peaks of Canyon Drive are the proud parents of a boy, born Tuesday, April 4.

Mrs. Fred Moore went to Phoenix, Arizona, last Tuesday, being called there by the death of her mother. She went by airplane.

Mrs. Henry Dahl entertained seven ladies at a bridge luncheon on Tuesday.

Mr. Owen has four new houses under construction, and it is reported that forty new homes are to be built in the Multnomah club addition this spring. The architect says they will all be Cape Cod or colonial type.

Mrs. Jack Furlong entertained seven guests Tuesday at a bridge luncheon.

The new addition to the Sylvan school is progressing nicely. When completed the Sylvan school will have four attractive class rooms.

Mr. Eldon and Miss Eva Davis spent last Sunday at Mt. Hood enjoying the ski tournament.

VALUABLE PRIZES

Five hundred and seventeen prizes totaling $2500 and ranging from $1000 for first down to 500 prizes of $1 each, are being offered by The American Boy magazine in an "editorial idea" contest.

A contestant is required, first, to write on a sheet of plain paper, which also carries his or her name and address, 25 or less words on the subject "I think a boy's magazine should contain..."

and, second, to subscribe to The American Boy Magazine at the special contest rate of fifty cents for eight months. This is half the regular subscription price.

The subscription order simply stating, "Enter me; send subscription to The American Boy for eight months together with the contestant's name and address, should be on a sheet of plain paper separate from the contest entry. The contest entry, the subscription order, and the fifty cents remittance should all be mailed in the same envelope to Contest Editor, The American Boy, Detroit, Michigan.

The contest is open to boys, girls, and adults alike. It closes April 25, 1939, and winners will be published in the July, 1939, issue of The American Boy.

SAY IT WITH SONGS

What's the Reason I'm not Pleasing You? demands irate boy upon receiving a cold shoulder from the girl friend.

To which the aloof girl replies "Now it can be Told". You go out on a "One O'clock Jive" and now you look as if you were "Lost in a Fog". Behind my back you're always whispering, "Never in a Million Years" have I ever seen anyone like you. "After You've Gone", "We'll Speak of You Often". But then after a few days I'm always ready to say "Hurry Home". That shows you how "I Cry for You". Oh, "You Must Have Been a Beautiful Baby" cause "You're the Only Star in My Blue Heaven".
