

THE BEAVERTON REVIEW

Entered as second-class matter December 9, 1922, at the postoffice at Beaverton, Oregon, under the act of March 8, 1879.

ISSUED EVERY FRIDAY AT BEAVERTON, OREGON

Eugene Crosby Publisher

SUBSCRIPTION RATES Per year (in advance) $1.00

OLD GROWTH FIR

Cut To Order

12" or 16" Mill Run 3.25 cord 12" or 16" Inside 4.50 cord 4' Heavy Green Slab 3.50 cord Screened Sawdust 2.50 unit These prices are on two cord Loads

CASH ON DELIVERY

CARNATION FUEL CO.

Forest Grove, Ore. Phone 318M

OUR FELLOW DRIVERS

By O'Daniel

"It's a little dangerous, but John does belong to so many clubs"

FOR THE ZERO HOUR

It was night. Coming toward them and walking on the sea the disciples saw the Lord and thought Him a ghost. They cry out in their fear and back comes His "Be of good cheer, It is I. Be not afraid." As they received Him into the ship the wind lulled. They that were in the boat were filled with amazement and fell down and worshipped Him saying:—Of a truth thou art the son of God. Yes—He is the Son of God; He is the Creator Himself and there among them in human form. The winds and the waves obey His will. And not only Creation is He but lover also. Where there is terror it is his nature to step in will. And not only Creator is He IS I; BE NOT AFRAID.

You saw Him give comfort long before that night on Galilee. Turn back to Moses leading the children of Israel out of Egyptian bondage. There they are; two million strong; the Red Sea before, marshes on either side and Pharaoh in hot pursuit. God tells Moses to speak—"And Moses said unto the people; 'Fear ye not; stand still and see the salvation of the Lord which he will show you today. For the Egyptians whom ye have seen today, ye shall see them no more forever. The Lord shall fight for you and ye shall hold your peace.'" Ex. 14:13-14

"And Moses stretched out his hand over the sea; and the Lord caused the sea to go back by a strong east wind all that night and made the sea dry land. So went the hosts of the Lord over dryshod and as the Egyptians came on the waters rolled back and covered them. Not one left to tell the tale. So God delivered his people from Pharaoh who had defied him those many days.

What will the Lord not do to honor the faith of all who cry out for Him? Is it the zero hour? Friends gone? Money, hope, health, all the props gone? Turn to Christ. Name Him as Savior and Lord; then cry out for mercy. "Call unto me, and I will answer thee, and show thee great and mighty things, which thou knowest not. Jeremiah 33:3. HE AND HE ALONE CAN SAVE—KEEP—SATISFY. THERE IS NO OTHER NAME UNDER HEAVEN GIVEN AMONG MEN WHEREBY WE MUST BE SAVED.

Dean Taylor

LIBRARY NOTES

Beaverton Community Library-Kiwanis hall Open 2:30 to 5:00 P. M. Wed. Thurs. and Sat., also 6:30 to 8:00 P. M. Sat. evening. Mrs. Thompson, Librarian.

Two very worthwhile historical novels, Drums and Marching On by William Boyd would not be difficult summer reading. Drums is the story of the American Revolution and Marching On is a Civil War story. Mr. Boyd is a resident of North Carolina, and in explaining the natural talk of the characters in Drums says "I had a tremendous advantage because I live in North Carolina and could just take the local speech. North Carolina is almost entirely Anglo-Saxon, 98% American born—and in the back district, has an almost pure Colonial dialect, as I discovered by checking it up as much as I could with old diaries, letters, etc., of the Revolutionary period. I choose North Carolina for setting for a Revolutionary novel because there is a better picture of the American colonies there than in any other state. Its character has changed less than any other, since it has no important seaport."

Both these books are in the community library, greatly to one's understanding of these two important periods in our history.

Room Bureaus Set Up For New York Fair

NEW YORK (Special)—Two agencies have been set up in New York City to insure World's Fair visitors' getting living accommodations at a most reasonable price.

One is the Mayor's Official World's Fair Housing Bureau, Inc., with headquarters in the Chanin Building, 122 East 42d Street, set up by Mayor LaGuardia to locate rooms for visitors in private homes and dwellings.

The other is the Hotel Room Information Bureau of the Hotel Association of New York City, representing 180 hotels with a total capacity of 80,000 rooms. The bureau is at association headquarters, 221 West 57th Street.

Both agencies function without any charge to the visitor in finding him clean and comfortable accommodations at a price within his means. Rooms in private dwellings range in price from $1 per night per person upward, with the average per person $1.50.

Every Western Union and Postal Telegraph office is equipped to handle requests for rooms in conjunction with the Housing Bureau's operation. Every policeman in New York City is familiar with the plan and is equipped to give visitors first hand information on methods of obtaining registered and sponsored rooms.

On making the application for a room the visitor pays a deposit of 50 cents per night per person for which he receives a receipt. The receipt may be presented to the landlord in lieu of cash as part payment for the room.

Call the Review Office for your next order of Printing

'Service With a Smile'

