HELL ON EARTH

On the night of the big football game men of the winning team went out to see the town, wine and women included. Some weeks later the star runner sought out an M. D. who found him to be venerable. In due time this diseased man took to himself as his life partner the daughter of a leading citizen. The town called it a great match. Star athlete and talented daughter of fine old stock. Bon voyage, young couple. Then the shock. First a child born terribly diseased and later the young father on the road to imbecility with a nurse hired to change his underthings. They pinned them on and off as though he were a babe. Yes, it was hell on earth for this proud family. Now comes Dr. E. C. Brown's will leaving $300,000 to the State Hygiene society to educate our youth on the perils of sex. But he left also $20,000 to the American Sunday School Union for its Bible work among boys and girls in unchurched parts. All praise to Dr. B. for the big sum set out for sex teaching. But listen dads and mothers—EVEN WITH THE YOUNG FOLKS POSTED ON ALL THAT HAS TO DO WITH SEX THEY YET MUST HAVE GOD-GIVEN POWER TO SAY N-O which spells "NO." Here is where the dynamic of the indwelling Christ counts. Teach them; warn and school them but forget not the hour of crisis. There they need Him who was tempted at every point like as we are and who yet stood out against sin. Says Judge Hill of N. Y. Juvenile Court: "As a jurist who judges thousands of crime-broken boys and girls each year, I know that religious interests for young people are essential for their moral welfare and future as worth-while American citizens. IT IS NOT ENOUGH MERELY TO SEND CHILDREN TO THE CHURCH. PARENTS MUST ATTEND CHURCH FOR THE CHILD TO FOLLOW THE EXAMPLE SET BY FATHER AND MOTHER." Like father, the boy and like mother, the girl. Blessed by the family that travels the upward path, on to the glory-land. By the way of the cross it leads, where died for our sins, the CHRIST who SAVES, KEEPS, SATISFIES whatever the perils may be. pd ad.

Thin Skinned Cows Not Wanted

Due to the heavy rains "thin skinned" cows were not popular with one early-day farmer who expressed his views in the following advertisement in the Oregon Spectator at Oregon City, December 2, 1851: "COW—I will pay a fair price in cash for a good sized cow with a white face and a very thick skin, as thin-skinned cows are found to leak owing to the continued rains in this climate. One of the above kind will command a good price if of gentle and kind habits, and would be preferred from the country and to ensure a market she should be accompanied by a very small calf."—Historical Records Survey, WPA.

Beautiful Tuberous Plants On Display

A pretty and interesting display is arranged in the windows of The Flower Shop this week. Two plants of tuberous begonia from the George L. Baker greenhouses at The Tides are worthy of attention. One plant is salmon pink and the other is red. Both are exceptionally hardy.

While spending last weekend at Seaside the George W. Richardson family visited the famous Baker greenhouses at The Tides and were presented with these plants.

New York Skyscrapers Form Back Drop For Air View of Fair
